

TOUGH. TOGETHER.

NEBRASKA WRESTLING

2011-12

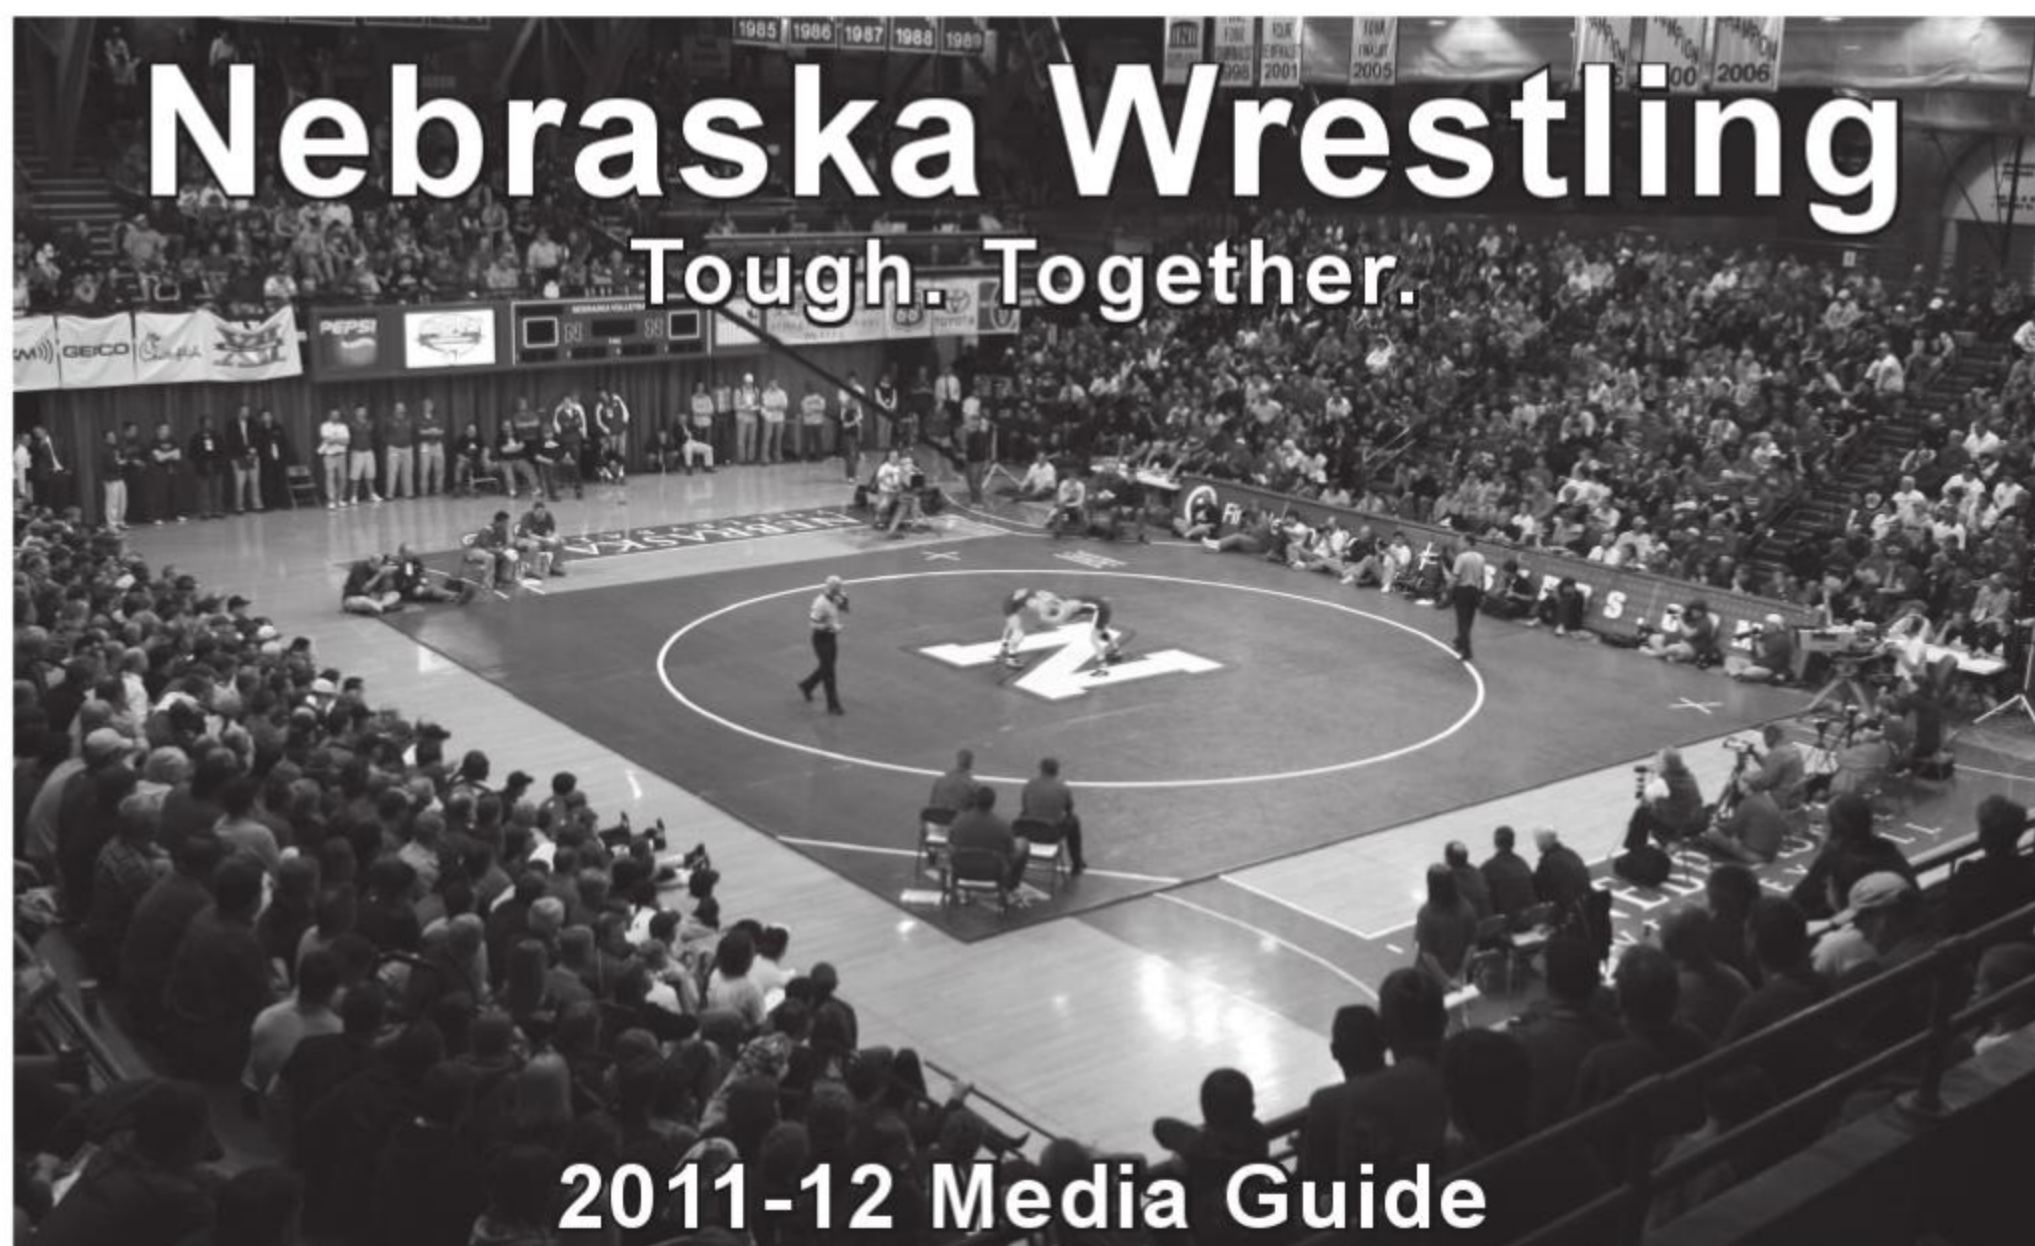

The Hendricks Training Complex was officially dedicated October 13, 2011.

The 84,000-square foot facility adjacent to the Bob Devaney Sports Center is the new home for the wrestling program.

The Husker wrestling team gained a 7,500-square foot wrestling room that doubled the size of the previous area in the Devaney Center. It features four mats, a cardio/viewing room as well as a satellite athletic medicine area right off the room.

THIS IS NEBRASKA

A year after celebrating its 100th season, the Nebraska wrestling program will look to continue its excellence both on and off that as a member of the prestigious Big Ten Conference. Coach Mark Manning has continued a tradition of success in his 11 years at the helm of the Huskers. With hard work and a dedication to excellence, Manning has developed a program that consistently competes with the nation's best in collegiate wrestling.

Since its inaugural season in 1910-11, Nebraska has earned more than 615 dual victories, including 149 wins in the past 11 years under Manning. Over the past decade, the Huskers have finished in the top eight at the NCAA Championships five times and racked up 34 All-America honors, including five individual national titles. In the classroom, the 2010-11 Huskers were recognized by the NWCA for the eighth-highest grade-point average in the nation (3.1343). NU wrestlers have earned 38 NWCA All-Academic Team selections and 59 academic All-Big 12 awards en route to five CoSIDA Academic All-America awards.

One reason NU has been able to develop such a successful program is its top-notch facilities. In the fall of 2011, the Husker wrestling program moved into the state-of-the-art Hendricks Training Complex, which will provide four full-sized practice mats, new office suites and new areas for both strength and conditioning and athletic medicine. From the Devaney Center to the state-of-the-art weight room in the Osborne Athletic Complex, the wrestling program created the necessary environment for victories at the NU Coliseum, located in the heart of campus. With a wealth of support and a history of success, Nebraska wrestling expects to contend for conference and national championships every year.

Above: The Nebraska wrestling program has been built on the strong support of coaches and wrestlers, including (from left): Coach Mark Manning, who has guided the Huskers to a 149-61-3 record since 2000; Justin Ruiz, a two-time All-American in 2002 and 2003 at 197 pounds; Matt Murray, an All-American in 2004 at 141 pounds; Jacob Klein, a two-time All-American in 2004 and 2006 at 165 and 174 pounds; Jordan Burroughs, a three-time All-American in 2008, 2009 and 2011 at 149, 157 and 165 pounds.

Right: The 2008-09 Nebraska wrestling squad added to the Huskers' achievements by claiming a share of the Big 12 Championship and finishing fourth at the NCAA Championships.

SUCCESS BEYOND WRESTLING

Nebraska coaches have always guided young men toward success on the mat while also teaching them to find success in life, and Mark Manning continues that with his coaching philosophies. Manning has helped young men grow into upstanding adults by teaching athletes that the values they learn on the mat can be transferred into their personal lives. Bryan Snyder (right), recently earned his Ph.D. in sociology after becoming NU's only four-time All-American. Snyder is now an assistant coach for the Huskers.

"Wrestling presents a lot of challenges, but also the ability to work through those challenges. Wrestling builds good character and good work ethic and I definitely built that at Nebraska." - Bryan Snyder

The Scherr brothers were both national champions at Nebraska in 1984, before continuing their prosperity on the mat into their personal lives. Bill (above left) earned the collegiate title at 190 pounds and went on to win five medals in the Olympics and FILA World Championships before turning his attention to a professional career. He now serves as the vice president of a global investment banking and securities firm.

"Wrestling teaches you valuable life lessons like self-discipline and perseverance. It gives you a sense of pride and accomplishment. All of those translate into any sort of career you would want to pursue." - Bill Scherr

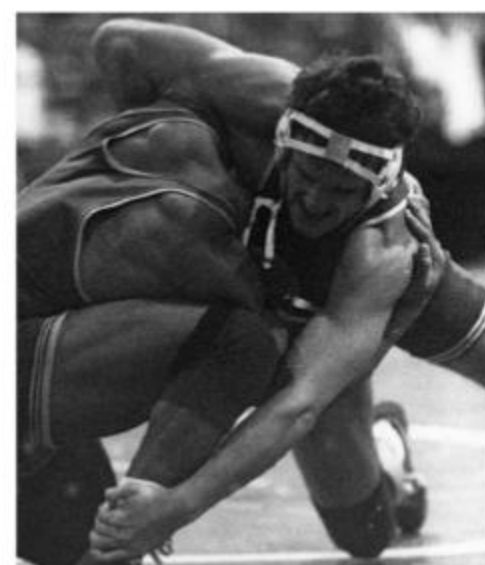

Jim (above right) won the national title at 177 pounds with a victory over Iowa's Duane Goldman and also continued his wrestling career onto the international stage. Jim claimed three medals between the Olympics and FILA World Championships and continued his involvement with the Olympics through 2008.

"[Nebraska] has a good core of dedicated faculty with great academic support in place. The sports department has tremendous personnel and resources. Nebraska was a great experience from both ends of the spectrum, athletically and academically." - Jim Scherr

A sample of Husker wrestler accomplishments after graduation:

Name	Years Lettered	Major	Currently

Bryan Snyder	1999-2002	Sociology/Communication Studies	Assistant coach for Nebraska Wrestling
Robert Thorpe	1961	Business/Economics	President of his own architecture firm

A three-time All-American at Nebraska in the early 1990's, Scott Chenoweth (above) has coached his high school team to multiple state titles. "I learned the only thing holding me back was me. If I wanted a degree, there was no reason I couldn't get that degree."

Two-time letterwinner John Myers (below) wrestled for NU in the late 1980's, before becoming executive producer of his own digital design and effects studio. "All of the greatest things in my life past and present, big and small, can be attributed to wrestling and everything that came with wrestling at Nebraska."

Olympic Glory

Nebraska wrestling has climbed its way into the Olympic spotlight during the past several Olympics. Former Huskers who have continued their careers on the international stage include two-time Olympic medal-winner Rulon Gardner, who won a gold medal in 2000 and a bronze in 2004 in Greco-Roman. Overall, six Nebraska wrestlers have participated on six U.S. Olympic teams and claimed five medals.

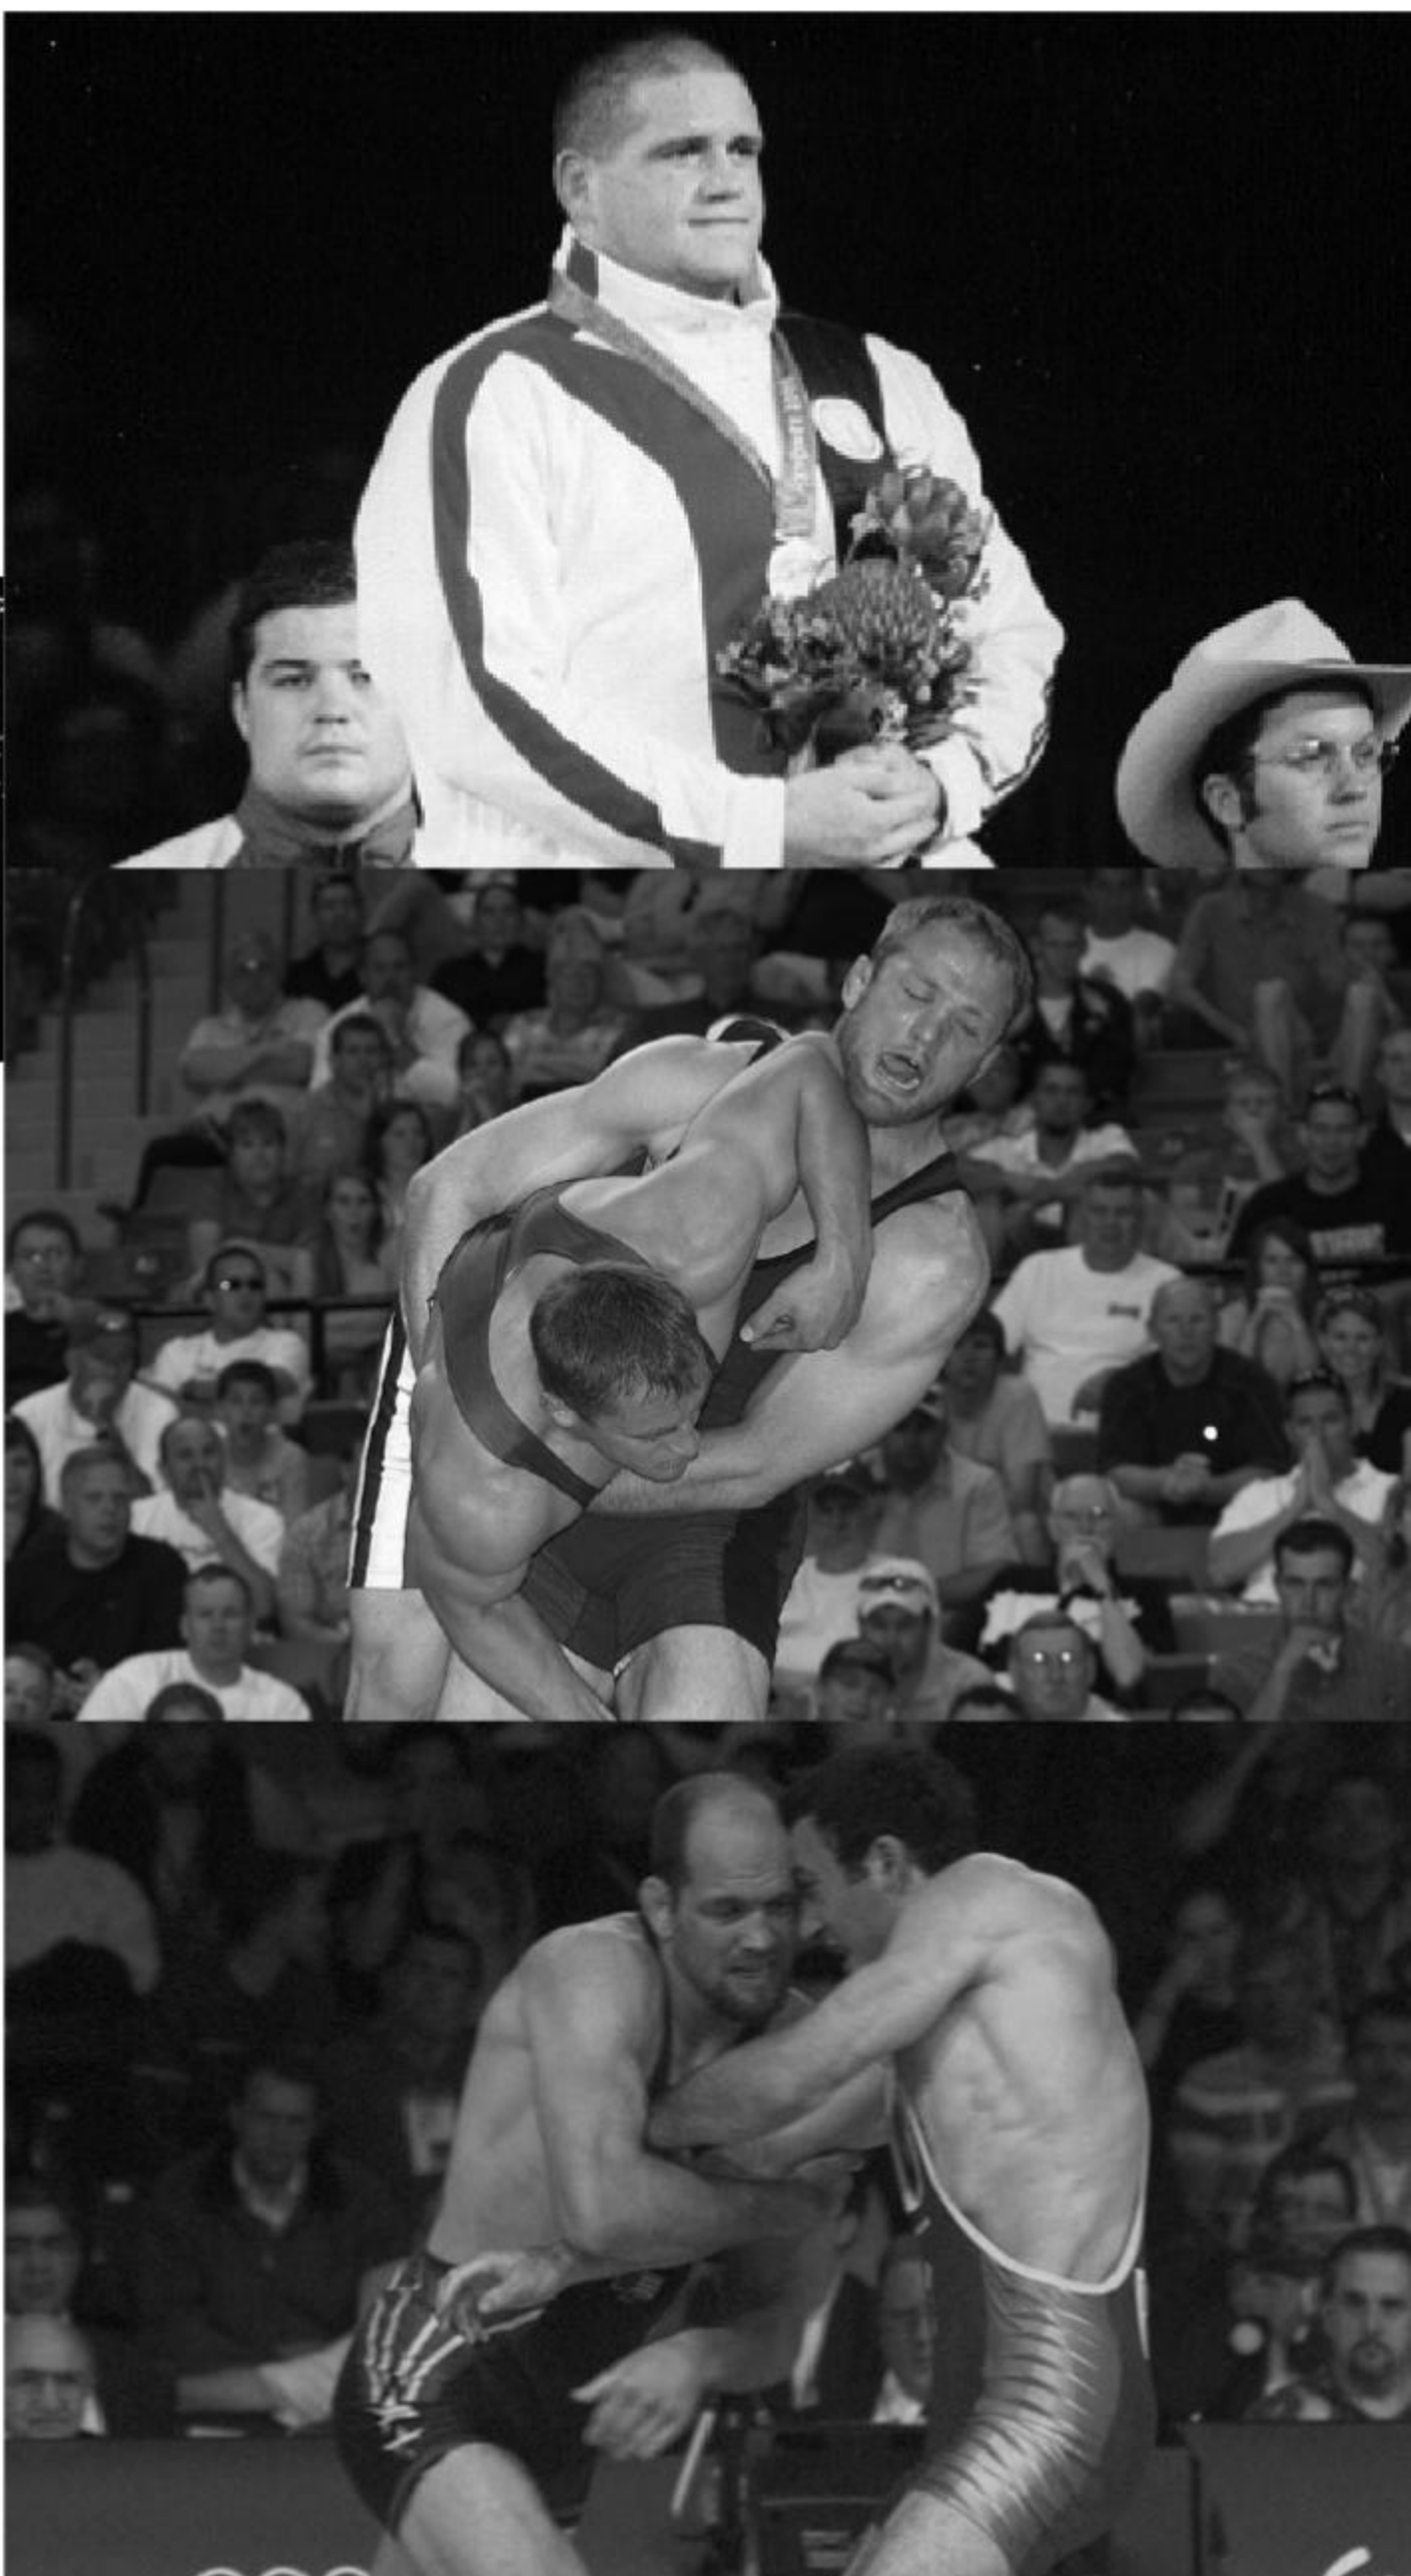

A 1993 All-American at heavyweight for Nebraska, Rulon Gardner (top) pulled off one of the most remarkable upsets in sports history with his victory over previously undefeated Alexander Karelin of Russia in the gold medal match in the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia. Gardner also earned a bronze medal in the 2004 Olympics in Athens, Greece.

Brad Vering (middle), a Howells, Neb., native and former Husker, is the latest NU wrestler to earn a spot on the U.S. Olympic team, participating in the last two Olympic Games.

Matt Lindland (bottom) was a 1993 Big Eight champion for Nebraska and went on to earn a silver medal at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia.

International Excellence

Numerous Nebraska wrestlers have continued their careers on the international stage after their time with the Huskers. At least two former NU wrestlers have represented the United States at the FILA World Championships each of the last five years. Huskers have won 16 medals at the championships, including titles by Bill Scherr in 1986, Rulon Gardner in 2001 and Jordan Burroughs in 2011. Brad Vering was named the 2007 Greco-Roman Wrestler of the Year by USA Wrestling after his silver-medal performance at the 2007 FILA World Championships. Burroughs became the first American freestyle world champion since 2006.

Jordan Burroughs (top) captured the world championship in 2011 after finishing his career at Nebraska as the school's only two-time national champion.

Justin Ruiz (middle-left), a two-time All-American for the Huskers, earned a bronze medal in the 2005 FILA World Championships in Budapest, Hungary. He has represented the United States in the last four FILA World Championships.

Tolly Thompson (middle-right) claimed a national title for Nebraska in 1995 and was a three-time All-American before going on to earn a bronze medal at the 2005 FILA World Championships. He was also a member of the 2006 U.S. squad.

After winning national titles at Nebraska in 1984, the Scherr brothers, Bill (bottom left) and Jim (bottom right) continued their wrestling careers by winning seven medals between them at the FILA World Championships, including a title by Bill in 1985.

National Champions

A Winning Tradition

Always one of the nation's premier wrestling programs, Nebraska has produced 11 national champions, including five in the last 11 years. In addition, Husker wrestlers have earned a total of 89 All-America honors in the history of the program, including 64 awards since 1990 and 34 since Coach Mark Manning took the reins of the program in 2000-01.

The school record holder for career wins, heavyweight Tolly Thompson (middle) won the 1995 national title with an 8-0 major decision over Justin Greenlee of Northern Iowa. Thompson was a three-time Big Eight champion and All-American at Nebraska. Jason Powell (below) capped a career that saw him earn three All-America honors with a national championship his senior year at 125 pounds in 2004. Powell, who ended his career 109-24, took third in 2003 and fifth in 2002 before becoming the eighth national champion in Husker history and the first national champion coached by Mark Manning at NU. Jordan Burroughs (above right) became Nebraska's only two-time national champion in 2011 at 165 pounds after winning the 157-pound title in 2009.

The Scherr brothers (above), Bill and Jim, were standouts for Nebraska from 1980 to 1984. Bill was NU's first three-time All-American and beat Jim Baumgardner of Oregon State in the finals of the 1984 NCAA Championships at 190 pounds to clinch his national championship with a 36-1 senior season at NU. He was also a three-time Big Eight champion. Jim earned the Huskers' second individual title with his win over Iowa's Duane Goldman at 177 pounds in 1984.

Mike Nissen (bottom right) became Nebraska's first national champion in 1963. Wrestling at 123 pounds, Nissen finished his senior season with a 19-1 record and closed his career with a perfect 36-0 dual mark. Tony Purler (top right) won the title at 126 pounds in 1993 by defeating Shawn Charles of Arizona State, avenging his only two losses of the season. Purler finished the season with an overall record of 35-2. Jason Kelber (below) led the Huskers to a 10th-place NCAA finish in 1991 with his national title at 126 pounds. He ended his senior year with a 32-2 record by defeating Terry Brands in the NCAA finals. Paul Donahoe (middle right) won the 2007 national championship at 125 pounds.

Fifth all-time on Nebraska's career win charts with a 124-26 mark in four years at Nebraska, Brad Vering (bottom left) became the seventh national champion in school history when he defeated Iowa State's Zack Thompson in a tiebreaker, 2-1, in the finals of the 197-pound bracket in 2000. Vering was a three-time All-American for the Huskers and won the Big 12 Conference championship once in his career.

Wrestling Facilities

The competitive home of Nebraska wrestling, the NU Coliseum has provided Husker teams with a distinct home advantage for more than 80 years. Located in the heart of campus right next to Memorial Stadium, the Coliseum provides the Huskers a thrilling match-day environment for all of their home matches. A perfect setting for college wrestling, the Coliseum was home to the National Duals from 1993 to 1997, and host to the 2009 Big 12 Championships when Nebraska claimed a share of the conference title.

The brand new Hendricks Training Complex houses the wrestling offices, locker room, weight room and wrestling room, all just steps from each other, providing an atmosphere conducive to elite training.

Top Right: Nebraska wrestles all of its home duals in the NU Coliseum, which holds more than 4,000 fans.

Middle right: Opened in the fall of 2011, the Hendricks Training Complex is home to the wrestling team, along with the men's and women's basketball squads.

Bottom: The NU Coliseum has hosted several major wrestling events, including the 2009 Big 12 Championships when the Huskers claimed a share of the conference title. The Huskers have five scheduled duals in the NU Coliseum during the 2011-12 season.

Hendricks Training Complex

The Nebraska wrestling program experienced some major facility improvements in the fall of 2011, starting with the addition of the Hendricks Training Complex.

The Hendricks Training Complex provides four full-sized practice mats, new office suites and new areas for both strength and conditioning and athletic medicine at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. The facility was completed in October of 2011.

Top Right: The Husker wrestling locker room features 40 custom-made lockers with back-lit displays, doubling the space from the Devaney Center.

Middle right: The Hendricks Complex features a new 5,000 square foot strength complex. The strength complex includes five Transformers, which are unique to Nebraska. The Transformers are fully automated, which helps the student-athletes reach optimal training.

Bottom: The Nebraska wrestling room has four new mats that have a thicker underlayment, creating a safer environment for practice. The room also features an athletic medicine area and a cardio area adjacent to the mats.

CHAMPIONSHIP FACILITIES

Nebraska's top facilities are not limited to the wrestling program. Nearly every Husker sport enjoys a venue that ranks among the nation's best. Nebraska is dedicated to providing its athletes top-notch game-day and practice atmospheres in every sport. Nebraska annually hosts conference and NCAA Championship events, including volleyball, baseball, soccer, softball, track and field, gymnastics, golf, wrestling and swimming and diving.

Top left: Memorial Stadium is packed for every home game and features a giant HuskerVision replay board. The Mitsubishi replay screen is one of the largest in any college stadium in the United States, measuring 117-feet, 7 1/8-inches wide by 33-feet, 7 3/16-inches high, roughly five times the width of the original screens inside Memorial Stadium. There are also replay boards in each of the four corners of the stadium and new ribbon boards spanning the east and west balconies.

Middle: Nebraska's teams compete in some of the nation's finest facilities in front of large crowds. The Huskers are also committed to improving their facilities on an annual basis, including the new Hendricks Training Complex, which opened in the fall of 2011, and a new downtown arena set to open in 2013-14 for Nebraska men's and women's basketball.

“The University of Nebraska strength and development program is the model for others in the country.”

Phillip Hage, Editor,
Physician and Sports
Medicine Magazine

The model strength and conditioning program in the nation, Husker Power plays a major role in the continuing success of Nebraska athletics. Nebraska's strength program was the first in the nation. With 13 staff members, Husker Power is one of the most comprehensive strength and conditioning organizations in the nation. Nebraska's strength training facilities have set the standard in collegiate athletics since the early 1970s. The Ndamukong Suh Strength and Conditioning Center in the Osborne Athletic Complex has taken the Husker program to a whole new level in the past five years.

HUSKER POWER

Three Reasons for Success

Program - The Husker Power Strength and Conditioning Program is geared for maximum improvement of performance on the field. Each athlete receives their own individual computerized program each year.

Supervision - The Husker Power staff has nine full-time strength and conditioning specialists and four interns. Former Nebraska NCAA Champion Jason Powell works directly with the wrestling program to help Huskers prepare for success.

Facilities - The Hendricks Training Complex features a 5,000-square foot weight room for the wrestling program, along with the men's and women's basketball programs. The new weight room is designed similar to the Ndamukong Suh Strength Complex in the Osborne Complex.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Providing expert care to nearly 600 Husker student-athletes, Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country.

Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers and Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber, the 2011-12 Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of five doctors, two therapist/athletic trainers, eight athletic trainers and six graduate assistant athletic trainers.

Nebraska's team of orthopaedists is led by Chief of Staff Dr. Pat Clare, a nationally respected orthopaedic surgeon with more than 30 years of service to Husker athletics.

The medical facilities at Nebraska have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come.

In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, the NU Coliseum, the Bob Devaney Sports Center and Haymarket Park all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

NUTRITION

Nebraska's Sports Nutritionists Josh Hingst and Lindsey Remmers work with all 23 of Nebraska's sports by educating athletes on topics such as increasing lean body mass, losing body fat, staying hydrated, nutritional strategies for competition, maximizing recovery following workouts and supplement use. Athletes are given individualized nutrition plans that can be applied in Nebraska's Performance Buffet at the Lewis Training Table, which was remodeled and expanded in 2010. In addition to utilizing the Lewis Training Table each day for lunch and dinner, student-athletes have access to a fueling station called The Landing (above right) to provide fluids, and nutritional foods before and after workouts and practices to maximize performance and recovery.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

The success of Nebraska student-athletes reaches far beyond athletic competition. More Husker student-athletes have been selected to CoSIDA Academic All-America teams (291) than any other school in the nation, and Nebraska has produced more NCAA Top Eight Award winners (16) than any other school. In its first season of Big Ten Conference competition in 2011-12, Nebraska continues to set the standard for the approximately 1,400 NCAA member institutions.

The Husker football team leads all individual sport programs in the nation with 99 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-America awards. The NU volleyball program has captured more Academic All-America awards (36) than any other women's team in the nation, while the Husker softball program ranks second on that list with 29 selections. Nebraska also ranks among the top 10 schools in the nation in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in men's and women's track and field/cross country, baseball and women's basketball.

Huskers Grow Academic Tradition in 2010-11

Husker student-athletes produced another stellar year at the University of Nebraska, continuing NU's tradition of academic success. Nebraska increased its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans across all sports to 291 with a Big 12 and Big Ten Conference-leading 14 honorees in 2010-11. Nebraska also set Big 12 records with 192 academic all-conference selections and 688 picks to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll during the year.

Track and field All-Americans Nicholas Gordon and Natalie Willer led an impressive season for Coach Gary Pepin's program. Gordon, a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American and the 2009 NCAA indoor long jump champion, claimed Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete-of-the-Year award. A two-time Big 12 long jump champion and a five-time All-American, the senior from Kingston, Jamaica, was a three-time first-team academic all-conference selection as a political science major. Willer, a three-time All-American and four-time Big 12 pole vault champion, added Female Student-Athlete-of-the-Year honors. Willer also joined Gordon as a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2011. The biological sciences major from Elkhorn, Neb., was one of three Huskers across all sports to earn prestigious $7,500 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, joining softball's Julie Brechtel and rifle's Ryann McGough. Willer also received a $7,500 Dr. Prentice Gautt Big 12 Postgraduate Scholarship.

Gordon, Willer and fellow two-time track and field Academic All-American Bjorn Barrefors headlined an impressive class of 14 Husker Academic All-Americans in 2010-11. Barrefors, who earned first-team honors, joined Gordon, Adam Dailey, Tyler Hitchler and Nate Polacek on the men's track and field/cross country Academic All-America team. The Husker men's track and field program led all sports nationally in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in 2010-11, while tying the NU record for most Academic All-Americans in one season by a Husker program (1997 football). The women's track and field team added Willer (first team) and Ashley Miller (second team) as CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

Safety Austin Cassidy earned first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors to become the 99th Husker football Academic All-American. Softball players Ashley Hagemann and Nikki Haget, who were also high school teammates, added CoSIDA Academic All-America honors of their own, along with wrestler Tucker Lane, soccer player Morgan Marlborough, rifle team member Ryann McGough and baseball player Casey Hauptman. The pitcher from Omaha who was a 26th round pick of the New York Mets in the 2011 MLB Draft became the 10th

Husker baseball player since 2001 to earn CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. He also earned a $7,500 Dr. Prentice Gautt Big 12 Postgraduate Scholarship.

Across all sports, Nebraska student-athletes claimed a Big 12-record 192 academic All-Big 12 selections, including a league-leading 148 first-team academic all-conference honorees. Over the past three years, Nebraska claimed nearly 550 academic All-Big 12 certificates across all sports, while no other Big 12 school accumulated 400 honors. NU student-athletes also earned a record-setting 688 spots on the Big 12 Commissioner's Fall and Spring Honor Rolls.

The hard work, dedication and commitment of Nebraska's student-athletes in the classroom resulted in 113 current or former student-athletes earning degrees from August of 2010 through May of 2011.

Each spring Nebraska hosts an Academic Awards Banquet to honor student-athletes who have earned either a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA or have earned a 3.0 or higher GPA in the previous calendar year. In the spring of 2011, Husker student-athletes earned 294 academic honors medallions.

Nebraska's 2010-11 Academic Highlights

- 291 All-Time CoSIDA Academic All-Americans across all sports (leads nation)
 - 99 Football Academic All-Americans (leads all sports, all time)

THE NEBRASKA ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

From the day student-athletes decide the University of Nebraska is the right place to be, the athletic academic counseling unit provides personal and academic support to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers. Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The academic support team is comprised of 13 full-time staff members and a tutorial staff of approximately 70 tutors addressing all subject areas.

Academic Counseling

Eight academic counselors and three assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor continuing eligibility and progress toward graduation. Essentially, academic counselors assist student-athletes in navigating the University of Nebraska system.

Tutorial Support

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support is available from day one up to college graduation. Subject and mentor tutors help provide academic support and study strategies to be successful. Supplemental Instruction, a sub-component of the tutorial program, provides targeted group review sessions to help ease the transition to college academics while improving study strategies and building academic self-esteem.

Study Hall

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the D.J. Sokol Enrichment Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Each student-athlete is required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. In addition, weekly study hall reports are provided to the coaching staff. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall may also be determined by the academic counselor.

Mentoring

Many student-athletes meet with a mentor on a weekly basis to assist in making a smooth transition from high school to college. Mentors collect syllabi, gather and report academic progress information and teach academic success strategies.

Educational Assessments

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach to determine student strengths and areas for improvement. Results allow academic counselors to develop a personalized academic support program and to determine if more in-depth testing is warranted. When additional assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined that a student-athlete has a learning disability, appropriate accommodations are made through the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

Multi-Cultural Programs

Designed to enhance cultural awareness, staff members concentrate efforts on issues of transition, adjustment and retention. These support programs include Ladies First, International Night and Your Degree First. Your Degree First is a program designed to assist, motivate and promote minority student-athletes in pursuing the degree of their choice.

Student-Athlete Orientation

The academic staff coordinates New Student-Athlete Orientation to help newcomers adjust to the multiple demands of being a college student-athlete. Presentations are made by academic counselors, compliance officials, NU faculty and administrators, business/community professionals and student-athletes.

Personal Counseling

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

Computer Resources

Student-athletes enjoy a new state-of-the-art computer lab and technology center with more than 50 computers and professional supervision. Laptops are also available during team travel. Student-athletes have the benefit of ongoing education and assistance from a full-time computer technician.

NEBRASKA LIFE SKILLS - SERVING LEADERS

The Nebraska Life Skills program is committed to providing proactive education, resources and support throughout college and beyond, best preparing Husker student-athletes for life after sports. Services will foster transition, retention, responsible decision-making, leadership, volunteerism and career development.

Nebraska has long been considered a pioneer in life skills support and programming. In 1998, Nebraska was one of five Division I schools nationally to win the prestigious Program of Excellence Award recognizing a strong commitment to total person development. In 2005, Keith Zimmer, Associate A.D. for Life Skills, was the recipient of the Dr. Gene Hooks Award recognizing him as the top life skills administrator in the country.

Life Skills Components

Proactive Education

Husker Life Seminar – All incoming student-athletes complete a 13-week fall semester seminar addressing a variety of life skills topics ranging from leadership to money to relationships and study skills. Team Workshops – Campus and community experts facilitate team-specific life skills education workshops. Student-Athlete Assemblies – Meetings featuring remarks from Athletic Director Tom Osborne and nationally recognized life skills trainers.

Personalized Support/Individual Sessions

Resume Development – Each student-athlete works individually with a life skills staff member to create a personalized resume with periodic follow-up meetings to make updates through graduation. Game Plan Creation – Life skills counselors will create a "Game Plan for Life" outlining specific goals and objectives to be completed to enhance marketability prior to college graduation.

Community Outreach

Nebraska student-athletes combine to impact over 100,000 people statewide on annual basis. Team Service Requirement – Each team participates in a minimum of two service projects per year. School Outreach – Individuals participate in numerous school outreach campaigns in both classroom and assembly settings. Hospital Visits – Huskers are frequent hospital visitors providing cheer and encouragement to a variety of patients. Miscellaneous Outreach – Outreach requests are received daily from the entire state requesting involvement from Husker student-athletes. Mentoring Programs – Typically requires one hour of service per week serving as a youth mentor.

Leadership/Citizenship

Life Skills promotes leadership development and provides recognition opportunities for extraordinary citizenship. Student-Athlete Advisory Committee – Elected team representatives from each of the 23 sports serve as the "voice" of the entire student-athlete population discussing student-athlete welfare, legislation and service events. Your Degree First – Leadership group providing programming and specialized support to student-athletes of color, women and international student-athletes. HERO Leadership Award – Individual recognition to Huskers who have consistently went above and beyond serving as an exemplary role-model. Heart and Soul Award – Presented annually to the top senior student-athlete leaders for extraordinary service throughout their college careers. Brook Berringer Citizenship Team – Annual "Good Works" team honoring football players for dedicated service in memory of late Husker Brook Berringer. Life Skills Award of Excellence – Presented to the single men's and women's team with the highest point total in the life skills team competition.

Career Commitment

In addition to the creation of a personalized resume and game plan, the following career resources are available to every Husker. Student-Athlete Career Fair – Attended by approximately 25 companies. Networking Night – Former Husker student-athletes and other professionals thriving in their chosen career fields share valuable insights with sophomore student-athletes. Assessments – On-line assessments to help individuals discover talents and match with a major and career. Practical Experience – Programs in place to facilitate shadowing and internship placements. Job Preparation – Expert advice on cover letter writing, interviewing skills and evaluating the job offer.

Postgraduate Assistance

Commitment to helping student-athletes pursue postgraduate plans and scholarships. Career Nights – Learn from the experts to gain valuable insight on timelines, application procedures, entrance requirements, personal essays and more. Scholarships – Seniors in their final season of athletic eligibility can apply for numerous postgraduate awards.

LEADING THE WAY

As one of the nation's premier public institutions, the University of Nebraska is committed to undergraduate learning and world-class research. Quality instruction is emphasized in Nebraska's 157 undergraduate majors, which are spread through nine undergraduate colleges.

Nebraska, which officially joined the Big Ten Conference on July 1, 2011, is a member of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, a consortium of Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which has generated unique opportunities for students and faculty by sharing expertise, leveraging resources and collaborating on programs.

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration.

NEBRASKA'S NATIONAL POWER

One of the nation's premier athletic programs, Nebraska is dedicated to and successful in all 23 of its varsity sports. Nebraska has won a total of 24 team national championships since 1970, including five football titles, eight men's gymnastics championships, five bowling crowns, three volleyball titles and three women's track and field championships. In 2010-11, eight Husker teams finished among the top 20 in their respective sports.

NU had 15 teams advance to postseason action in 2010-11, including the Husker football team's appearance in the 2010 Holiday Bowl. The bowling team finished third at the 2011 NCAA Championships, while the women's gymnastics team matched the best finish in school history with a fourth-place showing at the 2011 NCAA Super Six. The Husker volleyball team finished seventh in the final AVCA national poll, while the men's gymnastics team added a 10th-place finish at the NCAA Championships. The Nebraska wrestling team added a second straight 12th-place finish at the NCAA Championships behind the dominance of two-time undefeated NCAA champion Jordan Burroughs. The Nebraska football team, men's and women's indoor track and field teams and the NU softball team all added top-25 national finishes in 2010-11.

While Nebraska's teams continued to perform at the highest levels, individual Husker athletes also earned national honors. Jordan Burroughs became Nebraska's first-ever two-time NCAA wrestling champion and claimed the Huskers' first-ever Hodge Trophy presented to the nation's most outstanding wrestler. Cornerback Prince Amukamara claimed first-team All-America honors after being named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. He went on to a first-round selection in the 2011 NFL Draft. Hannah Werth added Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors of her own for the NU volleyball team, while soccer's Morgan Marlborough was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year.

Several Nebraska newcomers also made major impacts at the conference and national levels in 2010-11. Junior linebacker Lavonte David was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, while Lauren Cook added the same award for the Huskers in volleyball. Quarterback Taylor Martinez claimed the Big 12 Offensive Freshman-of-the-Year award, while women's track and field competitor Mara Griva was named the Big 12 Outstanding Freshman.

Overall in 2010-11, 40 Nebraska student-athletes combined to capture 51 All-America awards across all sports. As a testament to Nebraska's national recruiting prowess, the All-Americans came to NU from 14 states and five foreign countries. The Cornhusker state showed its success in keeping the best and brightest of its future leaders at home, as 15 All-Americans came from the state of Nebraska. Among NU's 40 All-Americans, 23 are expected to return for the Huskers during their inaugural Big Ten campaign in 2011-12.

Jordan Burroughs became Nebraska's first two-time NCAA wrestling champion in 2011. The 165-pounder from Sicklerville, N.J., produced a pair of undefeated national championship seasons in 2009 (157 pounds) and 2011. Burroughs, a three-time All-American, was also Nebraska's first winner of the Hodge Trophy, presented to the nation's most outstanding wrestler.

Top: Point guard Lance Jeter led the Nebraska men's basketball team to postseason play, while helping the Huskers produce 17 home victories at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Jeter earned All-Big 12 honors while claiming a spot on the USBWA All-District Team.

Bottom: The Nebraska women's track and field team captured the 2011 Big 12 Indoor title. It was NU's 103rd track and field conference crown in history. In 2010-11, 18 Husker men's and women's track and field athletes combined for 26 first- and second-team All-America awards.

HUSKERS MAKE HISTORIC MOVE TO BIG TEN

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Conference announced that its member schools voted unanimously to accept the University of Nebraska as the conference's 12th member beginning on July 1, 2011. The Big Ten Conference is a union of 12 world-class academic institutions that share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage.

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual has the opportunity to live a Big Life.

Big Ten Conference Highlights

- Big Ten universities provide approximately $120 million in direct financial aid to more than 9,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships.
- Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with 298 teams. Other than the Ivy League, the Big Ten has the most broad-based athletic programs in the United States.
- Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with nearly nine million patrons attending conference home contests for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball during 2010-11. In 2010, the Big Ten set attendance records for overall and average attendance in conference football games. In men's basketball, the Big Ten led the nation in average home attendance for the 35th straight season, while Big Ten women's volleyball also led the nation in total home attendance.
- Over the last 32 seasons, the conference has ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in football, men's basketball and wrestling attendance.
- Big Ten institutions have approximately five million living alumni and nearly 350,000 undergraduate students attending their universities.
- Based on the U.S. Census projected population for 2010, the nine-state Big Ten region accounts for approximately 70 million people, which ranks second only to the Big East and well ahead of the ACC, SEC, Pac-12 and Big 12.

Season Outlook

Nebraska Wrestling: Tough. Together.

2011-12 Season Outlook

Senior Tucker Lane needs 22 victories this season to become the 20th wrestler in school history with 100 career wins.

Tough. Together.

Those two words describe the Nebraska wrestling team as it embarks on a new era of Husker wrestling for the 2011-12 season. This season marks the beginning of competition in the Big Ten Conference for NU, after the University announced the switch from the Big 12 in June of 2010. Lauded as the top wrestling conference in the country, the Big Ten will offer premiere competition week in and week out for the Huskers.

"Starting the Big Ten schedule in January is going to be a grind, but it's going to be something we're used to," Head Coach Mark Manning said. "Every season is a grind, but it's going to be good. It's going to be a challenge. There are going to be different places than where we've wrestled in the past. We're looking forward to those different venues we're wrestling in."

The Huskers also moved into the newly opened Hendricks Training Complex this offseason, which was finished after 17 months of construction in early October. The 84,000 square foot state-of-the-art complex features a new wrestling room with four full-sized mats, new locker rooms, a players' lounge and coaches offices.

With changes abound taking place off of the mat, Manning, who is entering his 12th season as head coach, said he hasn't seen a better offseason from his guys on the mat. Grueling workouts and conditioning were a regular for a squad that finished 12th for the second straight season at last year's NCAA Championships, its 12th top-15 finish since 1995.

"It was the best offseason since I've been here in 11 years," Manning said. "Our guys have done a great job starting the week after the NCAA Tournament, and working out and training through the summer. They've had a great focus this fall. Our preparation has been tremendous and we just have to keep building momentum going through the season with how we trained in the offseason. I see that really being a huge factor for us. We have to keep that flame lit the whole season, but I'm really impressed with how our guys have trained in the offseason."

Three national qualifiers return to lead a lineup that could potentially see four new faces at the start of the season. One of two seniors on the team, Tucker Lane enters his fourth season as the heavyweight starter after amassing 78 career victories and qualifying for three consecutive NCAA Championships. Last season, the Redvale, Colo., native finished the year with a 27-9 record and a 14-5 mark in dual competition. At the NCAA Championships, Lane came up one match short of reaching All-America honors by falling to the No. 3 seed Ryan Flores of American in the quarterfinals and Maryland's Spencer Myers in the consolation bracket to finish the tournament with a 2-2 mark. The other senior on the squad with Lane is James Nakashima. A junior college transfer from Lincoln (Ill.) College, Nakashima saw time in first his year in the program in 2009-10, when he won six matches. He took a redshirt last season and looks to take over the spot at 197 pounds.

Nebraska will also lean on two-time returning national qualifier Josh Ihnen to provide some pivotal wins at 184 pounds. Ihnen fell just short of becoming an All-American last season after a 28-10 year and a second-place showing at the Big 12 Tournament. Earning a total of 47 team dual points for the Huskers, Ihnen was part of several big time wins including one over No. 4 Grant Gambrell of Iowa in the semifinals of the Midlands Championships. Manning will look to all three of his wrestlers at the three heaviest weights for leadership throughout the season.

"I'm looking for Josh, James and Tucker all to be leaders," Manning said. "I think we have a number of young guys that are stepping into leadership roles already, and I think it's important that they all do, besides just those three. All of those guys are going to be really valuable to our season and how our year goes."

A year after winning Nebraska's Most Improved Wrestler award, junior Ridge Kiley will return to be the starter at 133 pounds after having another impressive offseason, according to Manning. Kiley earned a spot in the NCAA Championships last season by winning the fourth-place challenge match at the Big 12 Tournament, and took advantage of his opportunity by winning his first career match at the NCAA Tournament over Stanford's Justin Paulsen, 4-0. Kiley will look to build off his 22-15 record and 11-8 mark in duals last season with another standout year as a junior.

"I'd say Ridge is one of the most improved wrestlers I've ever been around here at Nebraska," Manning said of Kiley's improvement over two seasons. "I have a lot of confidence and belief in moving forward with Ridge."

'Competition' is the best word to describe the middle-four weight classes of the Husker lineup, as several wrestlers are vying for the spots at 141, 149, 157 and 165 pounds. At 141 pounds, the Huskers could see true freshman Jake Suefloth step in and make an immediate impact after finishing his illustrious career at Arrowhead High School in Wisconsin. Suefloth will be challenged by redshirt freshmen Luis DeAnda and Chad Stroh, who both competed in open tournaments for NU last year. DeAnda won 15 matches, while Stroh finished with a record of 6-5. Redshirt freshman Brandon Wilbourn looks to be the front-runner at 149 pounds after not seeing any action during his true freshman season, but fellow redshirt freshmen John Svoboda and Skylar Galloway will compete with Wilbourn for the top spot. Svoboda was eighth on the team last year in overall wins with 25 and Galloway won 16 matches of his own.

Moving up a weight class from 149 to 157, junior Ross Grande will compete with Cody Compton for the spot at 157 pounds. Grande moved up a weight class after finishing last season with an 18-21 overall record. Compton started in six duals last season for NU at 157 and collected a 4-2 record in those duals. He finished with an 8-4 mark overall while battling a shoulder injury throughout the season. James Green, a true freshman from Willingboro, N.J., could also see action at 157.

40 NWCA ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM

Possibly one of the largest spots to fill comes at 165 pounds where former two-time national champion and Hodge Trophy Winner Jordan Burroughs departed after one of the most storied careers in program history. Redshirt freshman Robert Kokesh and junior Tyler Koehn will be the guys competing for the No. 1 spot. Kokesh had a stellar redshirt season collecting 34 wins and seven open tournament titles. The Wagner, S.D., native was dominant with 29 of his 34 victories coming in bonus-point fashion. Koehn will challenge Kokesh after moving up a weight class from 157 pounds. Koehn has an abundance of experience and has wrestled in two Big 12 tournaments for the Huskers. The Pittsburg, Kan., native finished last season with a 7-11 mark as the starter at 157 pounds.

"You never replace Jordan Burroughs, but I think we have two capable guys there that can compete," Manning said. "I would say Robert has shown a competitiveness that is really good to see in a young guy. He has to do it out in competition, but he shows the capacity to really wrestle with anyone in the country."

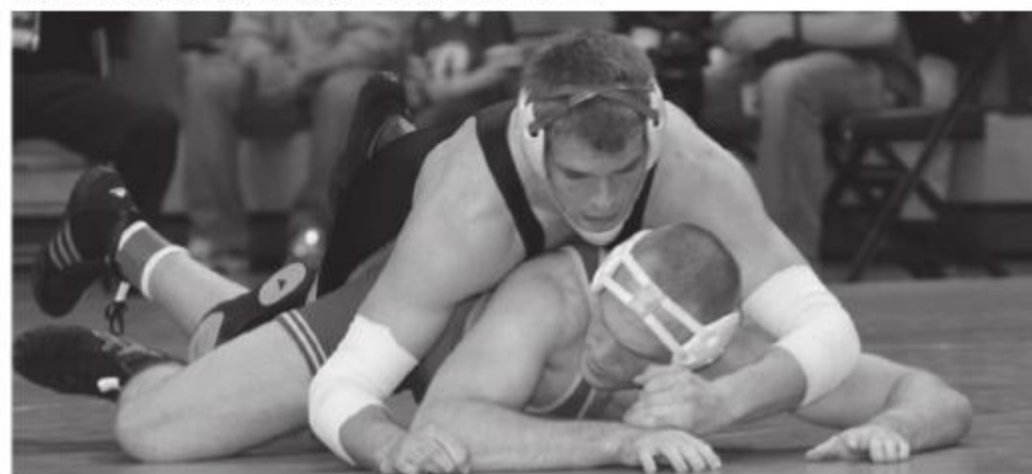

Caleb Kolb will be the starter at 174 pounds after a redshirt freshman season that saw him thrown right into the mix with some of the best wrestlers in the country. Kolb finished the year with a 15-15 record and started every dual except one for NU. The last spot in the lineup is at 125 pounds where sophomore Shawn Nagel will look to take the reins after the departure of NCAA qualifier David Klingsheim. Nagel gained invaluable experience last season as a true freshman by starting seven duals, but failed to earn a victory in those matches. The Nebraska native finished the year with an overall record of 17-11 and was second on the team in pins with nine. Pushing Nagel for the starting spot will be redshirt freshmen Ryne Harris and Brandon Rubino, who both finished last year with 10 or more victories.

"Due to the work Shawn put in over the spring and summer he's made a lot of strides," Manning said. "Shawn wrestled for us last year and got some great experience by being on the road. Right now he has the nod, but I would say it is really important for Brandon Rubino and Ryne Harris to push themselves each day and be ready to go when called upon."

Nebraska will also welcome eight newcomers to this year's squad that was part of a recruiting class that was ranked second nationally, according to InterMat. Along with Sueflohn and Green, who could both see time in the Husker lineup, Donny Longendyke (HWT), Cory Brester (184), Beau Bryant (133), Christian Gallardo (125), Ian Ousley (157) and Austin Wilson (165) make up the newcomers.

The Huskers will open the season with four consecutive duals on the East Coast, including three contests at the Wrestle for a Cure Duals against Kent State, North Carolina and Navy, after the season-opening dual against Bucknell. Overall the Huskers will face seven opponents that finished last season ranked inside the top 25. Nebraska has one of its most anticipated home dual schedules in recent memory, with defending national champion Penn State, Iowa, Purdue and Ohio State all visiting the Coliseum. NU will open its home schedule against Wyoming on Dec. 10. The Huskers will travel to the Las Vegas Invitational Dec. 2-3, and will participate in the National Duals, which unveiled a new regional format this season culminating with the Final Four Duals on Feb. 18-19. The Big Ten Championships will take place on March 3-4 in West Lafayette, Ind., on the campus of Purdue University. The 2012 NCAA Championships will be held in St. Louis at the Scottrade Center March 15-17.

Junior Josh Ihnen won 28 matches last season and looks to become one of the top 184-pounders in the country.

Nebraska's Projected Starters

125 Pounds: Sophomore Shawn Nagel

Sophomore Shawn Nagel gained valuable experience as a true freshman by earning time in the lineup in several key duals. The Nebraska native finished the season with a 17-11 overall record and a tournament title at the Briar Cliff Open to conclude his year. Nagel hopes to carry that momentum into 2011-12, but will be pushed by redshirt freshmen Brandon Rubino and Ryne Harris. Rubino finished last season with 13 victories, while Harris went 11-6 during his redshirt season.

133 Pounds: Junior Ridge Kiley

Junior Ridge Kiley returns to the lineup after starting every dual last season at 133 pounds for NU. Kiley qualified for his first NCAA Tournament last season, where he defeated Stanford's Justin Paulsen for his only victory. Regarded as one of the team's most improved wrestlers for the last two seasons, Kiley won 22 matches last season, including three victories over nationally ranked wrestlers. Redshirt freshman Keith Surber will provide solid depth for NU.

141 Pounds: Redshirt Freshman Luis DeAnda/Freshman Jake Sueflohn

Freshman Jake Sueflohn has the potential to make an immediate impact for the Huskers as a true freshman after an illustrious prep career at Arrowhead High School in Wisconsin. Redshirt freshmen Luis DeAnda, who won 15 matches last season, and Chad Stroh will compete with Sueflohn for the top spot. Stroh had a 6-5 record last season and recorded three pins.

149 Pounds: Redshirt Freshman John Svoboda/Redshirt Freshman Brandon Wilbourn

Brandon Wilbourn looks to take over for former starter Ross Grande, who moved up to 157 pounds. The redshirt freshman didn't compete in any matches last season, but has the talent to be a force at the 149 pounds. Fellow redshirts John Svoboda and Skylar Galloway will battle Wilbourn for the spot, with each of them winning at least 16 matches last season.

157 Pounds: Sophomore Cody Compton/Junior Ross Grande

Both sophomore Cody Compton and junior Ross Grande will battle for the top spot at 157 pounds. Compton saw action last season and finished with a 4-2 mark in dual competition. Grande moved up a weight class from 149 pounds where he started every dual for NU a year ago. Grande finished the year with an 18-21 overall record.

165 Pounds: Junior Tyler Koehn/Redshirt Freshman Robert Kokesh

Redshirt freshman Robert Kokesh and junior Tyler Koehn will battle for the spot at 165 pounds. Kokesh was dominant in his redshirt season by winning 34 matches and seven open tournament titles. Koehn brings a shot of experience after starting the majority of last season at 157 pounds and wrestling in two Big 12 Championships in his career.

174 Pounds: Sophomore Caleb Kolb

Sophomore Caleb Kolb started all but one dual last season at 174 pounds when he finished with 15-15 overall record. Kolb went 8-10 in dual matches, and came close to knocking off some of the top wrestlers in the country after losing four matches to nationally ranked opponents by three points or less. The Grove City, Pa., native won six matches last season in bonus-point fashion, finishing with two pins and four major decisions.

184 Pounds: Junior Josh Ihnen

Junior Josh Ihnen has high expectations for his junior year after coming up one win short of being an All-American the past two seasons. The two-time NCAA qualifier won 28 matches a year ago and went 14-5 in dual matches. Ihnen won four matches last season over ranked opponents, including a win over No. 6 Grant Gambrell of Iowa in the semifinals of the Midlands Championships. Ihnen will begin the season ranked No. 11 at 184 pounds, according to InterMat.

197 Pounds: Senior James Nakashima/Redshirt Freshman Spencer Johnson

Senior James Nakashima returns after a redshirt season last year where he won 28 matches in open tournaments. A junior college transfer from Illinois, Nakashima saw action in the lineup in 2009-10 when he won six decisions. Redshirt freshman Spencer Johnson finished third on the team last year in overall wins with 31 and won three open tournament titles.

Hwt.: Senior Tucker Lane

Senior Tucker Lane has high aspirations for his last season in a Husker singlet as he looks to become one of the top heavyweights in the nation. A three-time NCAA qualifier, Lane has amassed 78 victories in his Husker career and looks to become the 20th member of the 100-victory club at NU. Lane was one match short of reaching All-America status last season, falling to No. 3 Ryan Flores of American in the quarterfinals. Lane will begin the season ranked as the No. 9 heavyweight in the country.

Mark Manning

12th Season • Nebraska-Omaha (1985)

"I coach to help young men prepare for life. It is my job to create a positive environment in order for each of our athletes to perform at his highest level. When the correct principles are taught, winning will take care of itself." - Mark Manning

The Leader

With over 100 years of history, Nebraska wrestling is one of the most storied programs in the collegiate wrestling ranks. Head Coach Mark Manning has taken the Huskers to new heights in his tenure and has established himself as one of the top wrestling coaches in the nation.

The NU record book is a testament to Manning's accomplishments in Lincoln. In his 11 years at the helm, he has coached 30 of Nebraska's 89 All-Americans. He has led the Huskers to five top-eight finishes at the NCAA Championships, compared to just eight for the 14 NU coaches before him. He is the second winningest coach in Husker history with a dual-winning percentage of .707 and a record of 149-61-3 at NU. He won back-to-back Big 12 Coach-of-the-Year awards (2008 and 2009) after guiding Nebraska to a share of the conference crown in 2009 and a runner-up finish in 2008. NU went on to finish fourth at the NCAA Championships both seasons with nine Huskers earning All-America honors, and Jordan Burroughs capturing the 157-pound national title with a perfect 35-0 record in 2009.

Manning earned one of the top coaching honors in the entire sport when he was named the 2011 FILA Freestyle Coach of the Year after helping Burroughs capture the gold medal at the World Championships in Istanbul, Turkey.

Records go on paper and in books and get tucked away. More important to Manning is the fact that he has helped numerous young men grow into upstanding adults by teaching them the correct principles of life. Regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters, Manning not only lands, but he usually finds the correct wrestler for his program. He has a keen eye for finding the athletes with the right work ethic and dedication that he can develop. His recruiting and coaching abilities have allowed him to quickly find success at both programs he has led.

Manning's coaching philosophy focuses on developing wrestlers to reach their potential. A wrestler who brings a positive attitude and work ethic to the room can use goal setting and responsibility to develop into an upstanding citizen who is committed to excellence. Manning works daily with the team on every detail in and out of practice, while keeping in mind the best long-term interests of his student-athletes.

Known for his fiery nature on the edge of the mat, Manning instills in his wrestlers a sense of determination and pride through his actions and demeanor. His guidance teaches his athletes to become winners in life, which translates into success in the classroom, on the mat and in their lives beyond wrestling. Manning works to instill life-long values in his wrestlers and it shows.

In addition to their success on the mat, Husker wrestlers under Manning have earned 41 academic All-Big 12 selections (over 3 1/2 awards per year), including current student-athletes Ross Grande, Josh Ihnen, Tyler Koehn, Tucker Lane and James Nakashima. Both Ihnen and Lane were named to the 2011 NWCA All-Academic Team, as Nebraska turned in the nation's eighth-highest team grade-point average (3.1343). Manning's beliefs and values in developing student-athletes is evident right outside his office, where former Husker All-Americans Bryan Snyder, Jason Powell, Craig Brester and Brandon Browne are members of the NU coaching staff. During their time under Manning, Snyder and Brester were each named the Nebraska Male Student-Athlete of the Year.

Manning's coaching philosophy is one that he began during his competitive days, developed during his time as an assistant coach and continues to modify during his time as head coach at Nebraska.

Manning's Mark at Nebraska

Manning began teaching his methods immediately when he was hired at Nebraska in May of 2000. His efforts first paid dividends when he led Nebraska to back-to-back eighth-place team finishes at the NCAA Championships in 2001 and 2002. Four Huskers (Todd Beckerman, Bryan Snyder, Ati Conner and Brad Vering) claimed All-America honors in Manning's first year coaching the Huskers in 2000-01, as NU finished with an 11-6 dual record. Powell and Snyder also gave Manning his first two Big 12 Conference champions that year.

During the 2001-02 season, Manning led the Huskers to their third consecutive third-place finish at the Big 12 Championships. Justin Ruiz and Powell earned their first All-America accolades under Manning, while Snyder became Nebraska's first four-time All-American with his second-place finish at 157 pounds.

Nebraska claimed a 16-7 dual record in 2002-03, as Manning guided NU to seven victories over ranked opponents, including a 20-17 victory over fifth-ranked Illinois at the Virginia Duals. At the 2003 NCAA Championships, Manning led a young lineup that included two juniors, five sophomores and three redshirt freshmen to a 13th-place showing. The finish marked the eighth time in nine seasons that NU had claimed a spot in the top 15 in the nation.

The 2003-04 Huskers and Manning posted one of the best wrestling seasons ever at NU with a 19-3 overall record, tying the second-highest win total in NU history. The Huskers posted two team titles during the season, winning the prestigious Las Vegas Invitational behind individual titles from Powell, Travis Shufelt and Travis Pascoe and winning the Virginia Duals with a 25-13 defeat of Lehigh in the finals. Manning directed the Huskers to second at the Big 12 Championships, while qualifying eight wrestlers for the NCAA Tournament, where NU earned a fifth-place finish. Manning coached his first national champion at Nebraska, as Powell claimed the title at 125 pounds with a 17-2 technical fall in the finals.

The Huskers' success continued in 2004-05, with Nebraska winning 19 duals for the second straight year. NU's 19-2-1 dual record was the second-best mark in school history. The Huskers started the campaign with eight straight dual wins, and ended the season by winning 12 of the last 13 duals. Nebraska posted eight wins over ranked foes, including a 16-15 upset of No. 2 Iowa State to end the dual season.

Manning's 2005-06 squad was relatively inexperienced, but the Huskers earned a solid 12-5 dual record and a third-place finish at the National Duals. NU claimed third at the Big 12 Championships and two Huskers went on to finish as All-Americans.

Manning's legacy continued to grow in 2006-07, as he watched his second Husker claim a national title. Paul Donahoe earned the crown at 125 pounds to lead Nebraska to a 10-7-1 dual record.

The 2007-08 Husker campaign was one of the best ever under Manning. NU finished second at the Big 12 Championships with three individual champions and claimed fourth at the NCAA Championships with five Huskers finishing as All-Americans. That success would no doubt be a challenge to match, but the 2008-09 Nebraska wrestling team did just that. The Huskers won a share of the Big 12 championship for the first time in school history behind individual titles from Burroughs, Browne, Brester and Vince Jones. Seven NU wrestlers qualified for the NCAA Championships, where the Huskers finished fourth with All-America accolades going to Burroughs (1st, 157), Brester (2nd, 197), Browne (4th, 174) and Jones (6th, 184).

In 2010, Nebraska fought through a rash of injuries, including a season-ending setback to Burroughs. Despite the unfortunate luck, the Huskers still qualified five wrestlers for the NCAA Championships and finished 12th in the team standings, marking the seventh top-15 finish under Manning.

History was made last season when Manning helped Burroughs become the first two-time national champion in school history by winning the 165-pound title at the NCAA Championships in Philadelphia, Pa. After the season, Burroughs was awarded the school's first-ever Hodge Trophy, given annually to the nation's top wrestler. As a team, the Huskers qualified seven total wrestlers for the national tournament and finished in 12th place for the second consecutive season.

The Road to Lincoln

Manning showed his ability to develop a top-notch program was universal, as he led a turnaround in the tradition-rich Northern Iowa program in his first head coaching position. Manning coached three seasons for the Panthers from 1997 to 2000 in Cedar Falls, Iowa. Under Manning, UNI compiled a 23-24-2 dual record and improved its mark in each of his seasons. His rebuilding effort with the Panthers included strong showings at the NCAA Championships. Northern Iowa tied for 30th in Manning's first year, but improved to a 17th-place showing in 1998 and added an 11th-place finish at the 2000 NCAA Tournament, which was the school's best showing in seven seasons.

Individually, several UNI wrestlers excelled on the national stage under Manning. In each of his last two seasons, the Panthers had a pair of All-Americans, including Tony Davis. A two-time NCAA finalist, Davis was the national champion at 149 pounds in 2000 and finished second in 1999.

Manning returned the Northern Iowa program to national prominence by attracting some of the nation's top wrestling talent. His first Panther recruiting class was ranked second in the nation, while his second class was tabbed as the top class in the nation in 2000.

Before his appointment as the head coach at UNI, Manning had extensive experience as an assistant coach, including ties to the Big 12 Conference. Manning spent four seasons on Jack Spates' staff at Oklahoma from 1993 to 1997 before accepting Northern Iowa's head position. Manning helped guide the Sooners to three top-10 team finishes at the NCAA Championships during his tenure, including a seventh-place showing at the 1997 national tournament. He assisted in coaching 14 OU wrestlers to All-America accolades, and five Sooners to the NCAA finals. John Kading also claimed the 1996 190-pound title under him. Manning aided in the recruitment of three top-five national recruiting classes while in Norman.

Manning began his coaching career as an assistant at North Carolina from 1985 to 1993. While pursuing his master's degree in sports administration, Manning assisted Coach Bill Lam in guiding 15 Tar Heel wrestlers to All-America honors, including four NCAA finalists and a pair of national champions. UNC posted top-10 NCAA finishes in 1986, 1987 and 1993 with Manning on staff, and captured four Atlantic Coast Conference titles. He also helped attract the nation's top recruiting class to Chapel Hill, N.C., in the spring of 1990.

In addition to his extensive collegiate coaching experience, Manning has been selected numerous times to coach the United States in international competition. He has coached on two U.S. Olympic teams as an assistant in 1996 and 2000, while also being named the head coach at U.S. Olympic Festivals in 1991, 1993 and 1995. Manning was chosen to head the U.S. freestyle team at the 2001 FILA World Championships and was an assistant on the U.S. delegation to the FILA World Championships eight times. He has also been active at the FILA Junior level, serving as the head coach twice, and traveling to the 2008 FILA Junior World Championships in Turkey as an assistant coach, where he coached Burroughs to a 10th-place finish. In 2009, Manning was a coach for the U.S. Freestyle World Team at the World Wrestling Championships in Herning, Denmark.

Molding Manning

Manning had plenty of experience to build his coaching philosophies, as he was one of the top wrestlers in the nation during his competitive career. Manning wrestled collegiately at Nebraska for one year, before transferring to the University of Nebraska-Omaha. After redshirting a season, Manning went on to become a two-time NCAA Division II national champion and three-time All-American under Coach Mike Denney. Manning posted a 121-23 record for the Mavericks, while capturing titles at 150 pounds in 1983 and 1985. Manning helped UNO earn a third-place team finish in 1983 and runner-up honors in 1985. While competing for the Mavericks, he was the leader of UNO's chapter of Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years. Manning was inducted into the NCAA Division II Hall of Fame for his accomplishments as a wrestler and coach in 1999.

Manning's competitive career also extended beyond the collegiate ranks. He was a member of the U.S. freestyle team from 1986 to 1989. He won a silver medal at the 1989 Pan American Games.

The Vermillion, S.D., native received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Nebraska-Omaha in 1985, with a specialization in exercise science. Manning was the recipient of an NCAA postgraduate scholarship following his graduation from UNO and earned his master's degree in sports administration from North Carolina in 1989.

Manning and his wife, Carrie, were married in August of 2006. Mark has four sons, Matthew, Connor, Ryan and Will.

Amassing All-Americans

Under Manning's tutelage, 34 wrestlers have earned All-America honors, including 15 in the last six years at Nebraska.

Nebraska Wrestling Philosophy

Guided by the following philosophy, the Nebraska wrestling program creates an environment in which student-athletes can reach their potential, both as wrestlers and as young men.

Attitude: Winners accept constructive criticism knowing it will make them better. Positive words and actions produce positive results.

Work Ethic: There is no substitute for hard work. Worthwhile things come from hard work and believing that you deserve to win.

Goal Setting: Individually, have a road map to reach your goals and the discipline to stick to your plan. Remember that the drive and determination in your daily activities will bring about success.

Responsibility: Anyone can make excuses; you must be responsible for your actions and learn to make proper choices in your academic work, athletic endeavors and in your personal life.

Citizenship: Each team member is expected to represent themselves, their family, university, teammates, coaches and community in a first-class manner.

Commitment to Excellence: Demonstration of total effort and concentration whereby each team member gives their absolute best during practice, competition and in the classroom, regardless of result.

Tony Ersland

• Assistant Coach • Sixth Season • Iowa (1997)

One of the most experienced coaches on the Nebraska staff, Tony Ersland enters his sixth year as an assistant coach after gaining experience in the Big 12, Big Ten and Mid-American Conferences in his 12-year coaching career.

The NU wrestling squad has racked up a solid 65-29-2 dual record with Ersland on the staff. Primarily working with NU's upper weights, Ersland helped guide the Huskers to a 14-5-0 dual mark in 2010-11. He helped guide seven wrestlers to the 2011 NCAA Championships, while the team finished 12th at the NCAA Championships for the second season in a row.

Over the last four seasons, he aided 197-pounder Craig Brester to claim All-America honors and has also led current Husker senior Tucker Lane in his quest to become one of the best heavyweights in the country. Lane is a three-time NCAA qualifier, while Ersland also helped junior 184-pounder Josh Ihnen qualify for two-straight NCAA tournaments. Both Lane and Ihnen are ranked in the top 15 to begin the 2011-12 season.

Ersland came to Nebraska after serving as an assistant wrestling coach for the Cyclone Wrestling Club in 2005-06. From 2000 to 2005, Ersland was the head assistant coach at Northwestern University. He was also an assistant coach at Northern Illinois for one season and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan.

Ersland turned to coaching after an illustrious competitive career at Iowa. A four-time letterwinner from 1994 to 1997, Ersland helped the Hawkeyes to four national championships and four Big Ten Conference team titles.

A 1997 NCAA qualifier, Ersland was also accomplished in the classroom as a four-time academic All-Big Ten honoree and the 1997 winner of the J. Donald McPike award, given to the Hawkeye senior wrestler who had the highest grade-point average. Ersland graduated from Iowa in 1997 with a degree in psychology, and later earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Central Michigan. Ersland and his wife, Carolyn, have twin sons, Mason and Jaxon.

Bryan Snyder

• Assistant Coach • Second Season • Nebraska (2002)

Bryan Snyder enters his second season as an assistant coach after joining the program in 2010 when he helped guide seven wrestlers to qualify for the NCAA Championships. Snyder is the only four-time All-American and four-time conference champion in school history.

In his first season at NU, Snyder played a key role in helping Jordan Burroughs win his second national championship with a perfect 36-0 record. Snyder also helped Burroughs win the 2011 74 kilogram freestyle World Championship in Istanbul, Turkey, becoming the first U.S. wrestler to win a freestyle title since 2006.

The Easton, Pa., native spent the 2009-10 season as the head assistant coach at Arizona State and helped guide five Sun Devils to the NCAA Championships in Omaha. Snyder began his coaching experience as an assistant at Harvard in 2002-03, while returning to the Husker wrestling program as a graduate assistant coach for two seasons (2003-04 and 2004-05), as NU went 38-5-1 in duals and finished fifth at the 2004 NCAA Championships. He helped coach eight All-Americans at NU during that time.

As a wrestler, Snyder ranks No. 1 on Nebraska's all-time winning percentage chart (.925), compiling a 136-11 record from 1999 to 2002. One of 19 members of Nebraska's 100-win club, he claimed All-America accolades and a Big 12 championship all four years, while finishing as the NCAA runner-up at 157 pounds in 2001 and 2002. He amassed more than 30 wins in a season three times, including his 43-3 record as a sophomore that stands as the second-best single-season mark in school history. A four-time NWCAA All-Academic selection, Snyder was named the 2002 Nebraska Male Student-Athlete of the Year and graduated with a double major in sociology and communication studies. He was also a four-time first-team academic All-Big 12 selection.

Prior to Nebraska, Snyder was a three-time state place-winner and a 1997 state champion at Easton (Pa.) High School. He finished with a 112-12 record and was one of the nation's most highly regarded recruits.

Wrestling Support Staff

Jason Powell

- Strength and Conditioning Coach
- Third Season
- Nebraska (2004)

Jason Powell is in his third season as the strength coach for the Huskers.

A native of Midwest City, Okla., Powell was one of the most decorated wrestlers in school history, claiming the 2004 national championship at 125 pounds with a 17-2 technical fall over Kyle Ott of Illinois. The win wrapped up a 26-2 season for Powell, as he helped lead NU to its first top-five finish at the NCAA Championships since 1996. As a junior, Powell finished third at the 2003 national meet following a fifth-place finish in 2002. He ranks 10th on NU's all-time win chart with 109.

A 2004 graduate of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln with a degree in sociology, Powell was a three-time All-American and four-year team captain before furthering his career with a fourth-place finish at the U.S. Nationals in the freestyle competition. After graduation, Powell spent time as a volunteer coach for the Huskers and as an assistant coach at Oregon and Maryland.

Craig Brester

- Administrative Assistant
- Second Season
- Nebraska (2010)

Craig Brester was hired as administrative assistant for the NU wrestling program in June 2010 after one of the most successful careers in school history. A three-time All-American, Brester begins a new role after solidifying his spot among the best wrestlers in school history.

A native of Howells, Neb., Brester finished his career in 2010 with his second-straight NCAA runner-up finish at 197 pounds. Through four years at Nebraska, he produced a 109-21 record that ranks as the ninth-best winning percentage (.838). He was named the Most Outstanding Wrestler of the 2009 Big 12 Championships following his individual title that lifted the Huskers to a share of the team championship.

Brester graduated with a mechanized systems management degree in May 2010 and was named Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year for excellent achievements on the mat, in the classroom and in the community.

Brandon Browne

- Volunteer Assistant
- Third Season
- Nebraska (2009)

A two-time All-American, Brandon Browne was hired as volunteer assistant coach in June 2010 following one season as the team's club coach.

A native of Plattsmouth, Neb., Browne won back-to-back Big 12 championships at 174 pounds in 2008 and 2009. He placed fourth at the NCAA Championships as a junior and senior to finish his career as a two-time All-American with a 79-15 record. His .840 winning percentage ranks eighth on the school's all-time win list after enjoying his best seasons in 2007-08 and 2008-09 with a combined 65-9 mark.

The team's Most Improved Wrestler during the 2007-08 season, Browne earned a psychology degree from Nebraska in August 2009.

Ellen Shutts

- Secretary
- Sixth Season

Ellen Shutts began working at the University of Nebraska in 1980, and served as the administrative assistant for the men's basketball program from 1987 to 2006. In November of 2006, Shutts became the administrative assistant for Nebraska's wrestling, men's and women's golf and men's and women's tennis teams.

Before joining the athletic department, Shutts was a secretary for the Nebraska Student Union's Food Department.

Shutts and her husband, Rob, have a daughter, Erin, a son, Ryan, and a grandson, Marshall.

Tyler Weeda

- Athletic Trainer
- First Season
- Coe College (2011)

Tyler Weeda is in his first season as the athletic trainer for the Husker wrestling team as a graduate assistant after training as an athletic training clinical student at Coe College from 2008 until his graduation in 2011. He worked with football, wrestling, swimming and diving, indoor track, women's tennis and the women's soccer team at Coe.

Before joining the Nebraska Athletic Medicine Staff as a graduate assistant, Weeda also wrestled at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he studied and earned a degree in athletic training and physical education with an emphasis in strength and condition.

Weeda is from Belle Plaine, Iowa.

Scott Pulverenti

- Media Relations Contact
- Second Season

Scott Pulverenti is in his second year as the media relations contact for the Nebraska wrestling team.

Pulverenti handles all media inquiries for the Huskers, which includes the production of the annual media guide, coordinating interview requests and managing the wrestling page on Huskers.com. In his role with the NU Athletic Department, he also serves as the media relations contact for the Nebraska women's gymnastics team.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Pulverenti is a senior business administration major at Nebraska. He has worked in the Media Relations Office for four years.

Coaching History

Nebraska has had only 15 head coaches in 101 years of wrestling history, including current Husker coach Mark Manning. Combining for more than 615 dual wins, NU coaches have always set a standard of excellence in the wrestling community. Dr. R.G. Clapp was the Huskers' first wrestling coach and led the team for 11 years before moving on to promote wrestling with the National Wrestling Coaches Association. Jerry Adam coached Nebraska for the majority of the 1930's and 1940's, before giving way to B.R. Patterson.

Orval Borgialli headed the Huskers for 14 years from 1964 to 1978, amassing 73 dual wins, and Bob Fehrs took over the team until 1985. Fehrs finished with a .648 dual-winning percentage with 95 career dual wins at Nebraska. Tim Neumann racked up 199 dual victories from 1985 to 2000 to become NU's all-time leader in dual wins. Manning took over in 2000 and has amassed a 149-61-3 mark in Lincoln, while leading the Huskers over the 600-win plateau during the 2009-10 season.

Dr. R.G. Clapp

NU's First Head Coach (1911-26)
Former Chairman
NCAA Wrestling
Rules Committee

Nebraska's first wrestling coach, Dr. Raymond G. Clapp (1911-26), was more than just a mentor for the first athletes who enjoyed the sport at the university. He was a prominent figure locally and internationally in the world of wrestling.

In the 1890s, Clapp distinguished himself as an all-around athlete while a student at Williston Seminary and at Yale University, starring in football, track, gymnastics and tennis.

It was as a track athlete at Yale that he rose to national and world prominence. Clapp won the IC4A pole vault title twice, annexed the national A.A.U. championship, earned a Canadian title and in 1898, he topped all performances to set a then-world mark in the vault of nearly 12 feet.

Dr. Clapp's interest and ability in gymnastics probably were more responsible than any other one thing in creating his great interest in collegiate wrestling. In addition to his many athletic distinctions, Clapp was crowned the all-around individual gymnastics champion of the Eastern Intercollegiate Association in 1889.

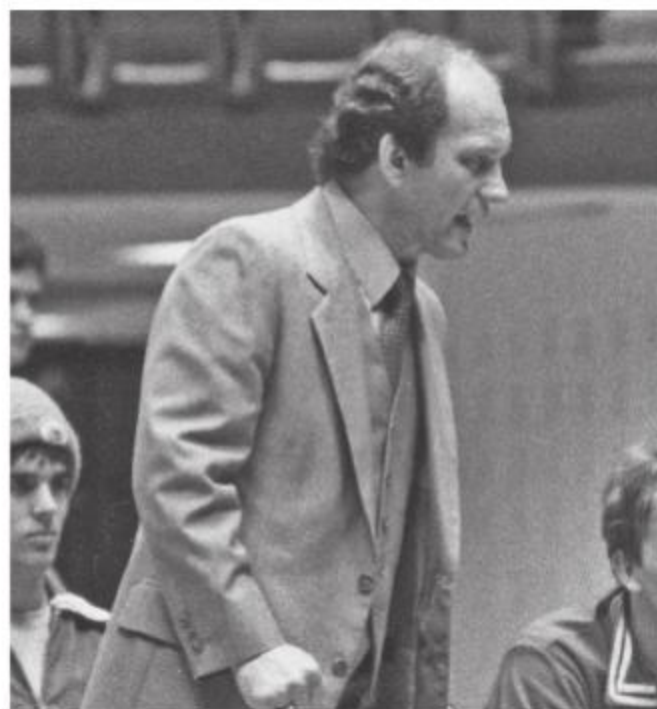

As a member and eventual chairman of the NCAA Wrestling Rules Committee, Clapp was largely responsible for the efficient organization of collegiate wrestling tournaments in the 1930s and 1940s. Clapp pioneered the system that is used to run many of the meets that take place even today.

While Ed Gallagher was building wrestling popularity in the Southwest, and Charlie Mayser was doing likewise in the East and Midwest, Dr. Clapp initiated college wrestling at the University of Nebraska in the earliest days of the sport, serving as head coach from 1911 to 1926.

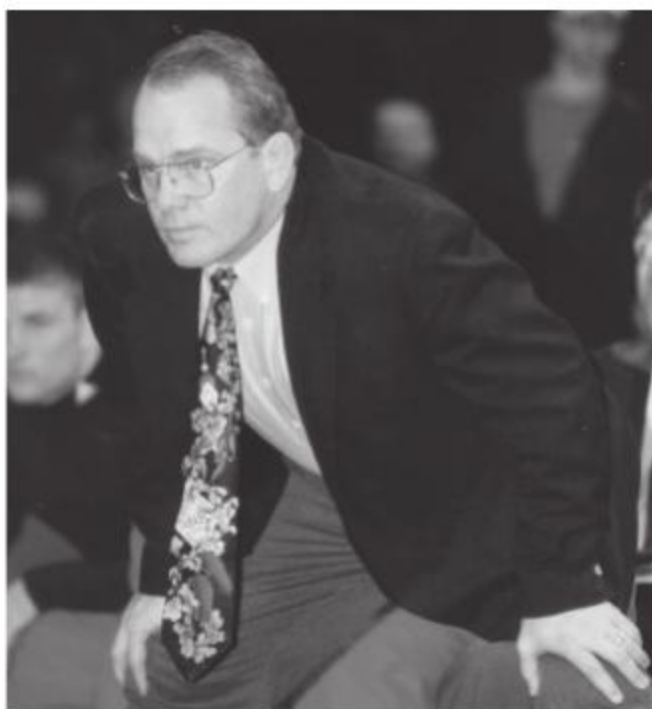

Known widely as a leader in the promotion of collegiate wrestling, Clapp served in the administrative branch of the National Collegiate Wrestling Association for numerous years.

In 1932 and 1936, Clapp was secretary of the American Olympic Wrestling Committee and in 1940 was elected chairman of the committee. As chairman of the USA-Pan American Wrestling Committee and the committee representative to the 1942 Pan-American Games Committee, Clapp became increasingly prominent in the wrestling community.

For over 30 years, Clapp freely and willingly gave his time and energy to popularize collegiate wrestling.

Bob Fehrs patrolled the mat for the Huskers from 1978 to 1985, racking up 95 dual wins and coaching 11 Nebraska wrestlers to All-America honors.

Tim Neumann coached Nebraska from 1985 to 2000, producing five top-10 finishes at the NCAA Championships, 40 Husker All-Americans and four NU national champions.

Tom Osborne

Athletic Director • Fifth Season • Hastings College (1959)

Hall of Fame football coach Tom Osborne has continued to leave a lasting impression on the history of Nebraska Athletics since returning to lead the Husker program as the school's 13th athletic director on Oct. 16, 2007. Osborne, who led Nebraska to three national championships (1994, 1995, 1997) and 255 victories in his 25 years as the Huskers' head football coach, has continued to use his impressive leadership skills to guide the NU athletic department as a whole over the past four seasons.

With the core values of integrity, trust, respect, teamwork and loyalty serving as guiding principles for Nebraska's 23-sport program as a whole, Osborne has made historic decisions to help the University of Nebraska athletic programs for years to come.

In June of 2010, Osborne joined Nebraska Chancellor Harvey Perlman and Big Ten Conference Commissioner Jim Delany to announce the Huskers would join the Big Ten beginning on July 1, 2011. Nebraska's move to the Big Ten is expected to add University-wide academic opportunities, while providing financial stability for the athletic department for years to come.

Just a few months later, Osborne announced an aggressive expansion plan for the east side of Memorial Stadium that will increase attendance past 90,000 for the first time, while continuing Nebraska's NCAA record-setting sellout streak. The expansion, which is set for completion before the 2013 football season, will include athletic and academic research components.

In the spring of 2010, the city of Lincoln also received voter approval to begin construction on a 16,000-seat downtown arena, which will serve as the new competitive home for both Nebraska men's and women's basketball programs beginning in 2013-14.

The basketball programs, the wrestling program and many of NU's other sports will also benefit from the Hendricks Training Complex at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. The facility, which opened in October of 2011, includes new practice and team areas, in addition to expanded athletic medicine and strength training areas.

The Nebraska baseball and softball programs will also benefit from a new indoor practice facility at Haymarket Park, which opened in September of 2011.

The first step in Osborne's aggressive building plan for Nebraska's facilities began in the summer of 2010, as the Huskers broke ground on the Student Life Complex on the west side of Memorial Stadium. The Student Life Complex, which opened in the fall of 2010, directly benefits every Husker student-athlete with expanded academic resources.

While Osborne has helped initiate landmark moves off the field, he has continued to help coaches and student-athletes focus on Nebraska's tradition of success in competition. In fact, the Huskers have enjoyed renewed success in Osborne's first four years as athletic director.

In 2010-11, eight Husker teams finished among the top 20 in the nation, while 15 NU squads advanced to postseason play in their respective sports, including the Husker football team's second straight Holiday Bowl appearance.

One of Osborne's first major decisions as athletic director was to hire Bo Pelini as the Huskers' football coach. Pelini, who had spent the 2003 campaign as NU's defensive coordinator, has energized Nebraska's storied tradition with back-to-back 10-win seasons and a trio of Big 12 North Division titles in his first three years. In 2009 and 2010, Pelini's Huskers finished among the top 20 teams in the nation in the final polls.

The tradition-rich NU volleyball program has claimed three Big 12 titles and advanced to three NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, while the women's basketball program has earned two NCAA Tournament trips, while notching the best season in school history with a 2010 Big 12 title and a berth in the NCAA Sweet 16. The NU wrestling program shared the 2009 Big 12 title and finished in the top 16 at four straight NCAA Championships. The NU men's and women's track and field teams combined for three conference crowns, while producing seven top-20 finishes indoors and outdoors over the past four years.

The men's and women's gymnastics teams have produced top-10 NCAA finishes the past two years, including a school-record-tying fourth-place showing by the women in 2011. The Husker bowling team won the 2009 NCAA title and has finished in the top eight at the NCAA Championships each of the past four years. The NU rifle team has produced a pair of top-six NCAA finishes in the last four years, while the men's and women's tennis teams both earned NCAA Tournament trips in 2010 and 2011. The 2010 NCAA first-round victory for the women was the first in school history, while the men's appearance in 2010 was the first in school history.

The Husker softball team has made three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, while the Husker women's golf and baseball programs both earned NCAA Regional bids in 2008.

Osborne made his second coaching hire since his return to Nebraska, when he named two-time Major League All-Star, three-time Gold Glove award winner, and former No. 1 MLB Draft pick Darin Erstad as the baseball team's new coach on June 2, 2011. Erstad was not only one of the best Husker baseball players in history, he was the starting punter on NU's 1994 national championship football team coached by Osborne.

While the Huskers have continued to make advancements in competition and in recruiting under Osborne's guidance, they have continued to set the bar high academically. Nebraska led the Big 12 with 14 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in 2010-11, increasing its nation-leading total to 291 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans all-time, across all sports. The Huskers also led the Big 12 with a league-record 192 academic all-conference selections, along with a conference-record 688 Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selections. NU graduated 113 student-athletes from August of 2010 through May of 2011.

Before being asked by Chancellor Perlman to return to Nebraska as athletic director in 2007, Osborne served three terms in the U.S. House of Representatives (Nebraska's 3rd congressional district) from 2000 to 2006.

He returned to academia following a 2006 gubernatorial bid, serving as a senior lecturer at Nebraska in the College of Business Administration, teaching leadership and business ethics, in the fall of 2007. Osborne also worked as a consultant for local college athletic departments for two years.

Osborne and his wife, Nancy, continue to pour their time and support into the TeamMates mentoring program, which they founded in 1991. TeamMates provides encouragement to school-aged youth to help them graduate from high school and pursue a post-secondary education.

Osborne's leadership of the TeamMates program began while he was putting the final touches on one of the best coaching careers in college football history. The Hastings, Neb., native, who earned master's and doctoral degrees in educational psychology from the University of Nebraska, was named NU's 25th head coach following the 1972 season.

In 25 seasons with Osborne at the helm, the Huskers mounted a 255-49-3 record - the sixth-most wins in major college history. Osborne's .836 winning percentage ranked fifth all-time. His career came to a close with a 42-17 win over No. 3 Tennessee in the 1998 Orange Bowl, when he became the first coach in college football history to retire as a reigning national champion. Following his career, he became one of just four coaches in history to have the mandatory three-year waiting period waived for induction into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in December of 1998.

Osborne's 1994 and 1995 teams allowed Nebraska to become just the second school in history to post back-to-back perfect national championship seasons (Oklahoma 1955-56). Nebraska put together the best five-year run in college football history from 1993 to 1997, going 60-3 with five straight 11-win seasons.

Osborne led NU to 13 conference crowns, including six of his last seven seasons on the sideline. All 25 of his Husker teams won at least nine games and went to a bowl, while 15 won 10-or-more games.

In the classroom, the NU football program totaled 65 CoSIDA Academic All-America awards in Osborne's 25 years. In fact, he accumulated more football Academic All-Americans in his 25 years as coach than any other football program in the nation has produced in its history.

Prior to becoming head coach, Osborne spent five seasons under Devaney, helping the Huskers win back-to-back national championships in 1970 and 1971. In 1973, Osborne succeeded Devaney, who also served as Nebraska's Athletic Director from 1967 to 1993.

Osborne and his wife, Nancy, have three adult children, Mike, Ann and Suzanne and four grandchildren.

Bob Burton

- Associate Athletic Director
- 14th Year
- Nebraska (1985)

Associate Athletic Director Bob Burton joined the Nebraska athletic department in 1998. He spent 10 years as associate athletic director for compliance/sports administration from 1998 to 2007.

Burton is responsible for the direct administrative supervision to the sports of wrestling, golf, tennis, men's gymnastics, track and field, cross country, bowling, and swimming and diving. He also oversees the operation of Haymarket Park. Working with the Lincoln Saltdogs, he helps set the budget for field and stadium operation costs and create strategic plans for the facility.

Burton is a member of the athletic department's executive team, which helps set policy, develops short- and long-term goals and objectives, and creates strategic plans for the department. Burton also reviews and monitors compliance with all contracts for the athletic department.

Burton filled a similar position at Oklahoma State as the assistant athletic director for sports administration and compliance from 1993 to 1997. He oversaw OSU's Olympic sports programs as well as the training and strength and conditioning, wrestling, men's and women's track and field and men's and women's tennis programs.

Burton came to Nebraska from Texas Tech, where he served as an associate athletic director for compliance for one year. While at Texas Tech, Burton helped complete the NCAA investigation into the Red Raider athletic department and analyzed the entire compliance system at the institution. He also helped identify and implement financial aid and eligibility systems, including changes in personnel and restructuring of the compliance department.

Burton, who was a member of the NCAA Division I women's soccer committee for three years and was a member of the NCAA Division I bowling committee, served as a legislative administrator for the NCAA from 1989 to 1993. At the NCAA, he was involved in the development of legislation, interpretation of regulations and reviewed legal issues related to the application of the association's regulations. He served as an NCAA liaison to committees and conducted comprehensive education to several intercollegiate athletic conferences. He has served on the National Association of Athletic Compliance Coordinators Executive Committee and the subcommittee of Big 12 Directors of Compliance.

He received his bachelor's degree in finance from Nebraska in 1985 and his juris doctorate from the Nebraska College of Law in 1989. A native of Falls City, Neb., Burton and his wife, Krista, have a daughter, Elly, and sons Robert Falk, McClain John and Abram Lawslo.

Alvin Banks

- Academic Counselor
- 12th Year
- Nebraska (1992)

Alvin Banks serves as an academic counselor and the coordinator of student-athlete development for Nebraska's Academic Performance Team. Banks began working as an academic counselor at Nebraska in 2003, after serving two years as an assistant academic counselor.

As Nebraska's coordinator of student-athlete development, he provides academic, athletic, personal and career counseling to all Husker student-athletes. As an academic counselor, he works primarily with the Nebraska men's and women's golf teams, the women's swimming and diving team and the wrestling team, while also assisting with the football.

Before joining the Academic Performance Team, Banks served six years as a law enforcement officer for the City of Lincoln. He is currently a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics.

Banks, who lettered in football at Nebraska during the 1991 season, earned his master's degree in vocational education in 1998, after receiving a bachelor's degree in business management in 1992 from Nebraska. Banks and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Kaylie and Darius.

Josephine Potuto, J.D.

- Institutional Representative
- 14th Year
- Rutgers (1971)

Josephine (Jo) R. Potuto, the Richard H. Larson Professor of Constitutional Law, has been Nebraska's faculty representative (FAR) to the NCAA and conference level since May 15, 1997.

For the past three years, Potuto has been president of the 1A FAR (FARs from FBS institutions). In 2002, she was named Outstanding Faculty Athletics Representative by the All-American Football Foundation.

Potuto spent nine years (the maximum) on the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions (chair her last two years) and currently substitutes on the Committee when a member cannot serve. She is a past Big 12 Conference representative on the NCAA Division I Management Council, served on the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship Committee, and currently serves on an NCAA-wide (all divisions) committee to advise NCAA staff on student-athlete issues.

Potuto is an expert on NCAA enforcement and infractions processes as well as the general NCAA committee structure. She has testified before the House Subcommittee on the Constitution regarding due process in NCAA infractions hearings and has made presentations to the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics. Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, has drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission, and also has written on issues of gender equity in college athletics.

At Nebraska, Potuto is a member of the academic senate as well as the senate's intercollegiate athletics committee. She also served on Nebraska's NCAA site certification steering committee.

Potuto teaches constitutional law, procedural and criminal law, federal jurisdiction, and sports law. She has been a visiting professor of law at the University of Arizona, Rutgers University, the Cardozo College of Law at New York's Yeshiva University, the University of Oregon, the University of North Carolina, and Seton Hall University. She has worked as an assistant prosecutor in the Essex and Morris County (N.J.) prosecutor's offices.

Potuto was project director and a drafter of the Uniform Law Commissioners Sentencing and Corrections Act, as well as the drafter for the Nebraska Supreme Court Committee to Draft Criminal Jury Instructions. She is the author of three books and numerous articles. She also is a member of the American Law Institute.

Potuto earned her bachelor's degree in journalism at Rutgers' Douglass College; her master's degree in English literature at Seton Hall; and her juris doctorate at the Rutgers Law College. She is a member of the bar of the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and the U.S. District Courts for Nebraska and New Jersey.

2011-12 Outlook

Tucker Lane has high aspirations for his final season in a Husker singlet. A three-time NCAA qualifier, Lane has amassed 78 victories over his career and looks to become the 20th member of the 100-victory club at NU this season. Lane looks to earn All-America honors after coming up one match short the past two seasons at the NCAA Championships.

2010-11 (Junior)

NCAA Championships

Wrestling in his third NCAA Tournament, the No. 11 seed Lane came one match short of reaching All-America status after winning his first two bouts. The Redvale, Colo., native defeated Buffalo's Brett Cornell in the first round before taking down Brendan Barlow, 4-2, in the second round to advance to the quarterfinals.

Matched up against the No. 3 seed Kevin Flores from American, Lane couldn't pull off the upset dropping a 5-2 decision to fall into the wrestleback bracket. Lane was knocked from the tournament by Maryland's Spencer Myers to finish with a 2-2 record.

Big 12 Championships

Lane went 2-1 at the Big 12 Championships to propel him to his third consecutive third-place finish at the conference tournament. Oklahoma's Nathan Fernandez upset Lane in his first match, winning by pin in 3:56, but Lane won two consecutive matches to end the tournament.

Lane defeated Blake Rosholt of Oklahoma State by decision, 7-2, before claiming a forfeit victory over Kyle Simonson of Iowa State.

Regular Season

Lane opened his season with two tournament titles at the Daktronics/Warren Williamson Open and the Cowboy Open to propel him to an 8-0 record. His first loss came against No. 10 Ryan Tomei of Pitt in the opening dual match of the season, but Lane bounced back to win six of his next seven matches, including a 2-0 decision over No. 12 Clayton Jack of Oregon State for his first victory over a ranked opponent during the season.

One of Lane's most impressive performances came at the Lone Star Duals in Dallas, where he went 3-0 with a pin, technical fall and major decision. Those results helped Lane finish the year with four pins, one technical fall and three major decisions, while also helping him finish with 56 total team dual points, which was second on the team behind Jordan Burroughs.

In Big 12 dual competition, Lane won three of four matches with victories over No. 10 Nathan Fernandez of Oklahoma, Blake Rosholt of Oklahoma State and Iowa State's Kyle Simonson. Lane concluded the regular season with a 23-6 mark, including a 14-5 record in dual matches. The heavyweight recorded 27 takedowns in dual competition, while only surrendering four.

2009-10 (Sophomore)

NCAA Championships

Lane went 1-2 in his second straight NCAA Championship appearance. The sophomore began the tournament with a 2-1 win over Virginia's John Danilkowicz before running into a pair of tough opponents. Against No. 4 Konrad Dudziak of Duke, Lane dropped a 4-3 decision, before falling in overtime, 3-1, to No. 7 Jarod Trice of Central Michigan.

Big 12 Championships

Lane finished third at the conference tournament for the second consecutive year. Facing a pair of top-15 ranked opponents, Lane defeated No. 14 Nathan Fernandez of Oklahoma in a first round overtime battle, 3-1. He then came up short against No. 1 Jared Rosholt of Oklahoma State, 5-3, before coming back to defeat Fernandez again, 3-1.

Regular Season

Lane produced another 20-plus win season in his second year as Nebraska's heavyweight starter. The sophomore was 23-12 overall, including a 12-8 mark in duals. He had identical bonus victory numbers as 2008-09 with three pins, one technical fall and one major decision.

Lane began the season on fire by winning his first six matches. He finished first at the Kaufman-Brand Open in Omaha and delivered a critical season-opening win over Eric Bugenhagen of Wisconsin. Lane did not lose his first match until Nov. 28 against No. 6 Zach Rey of Lehigh. Despite the setback, Lane rattled off six straight victories until he fell in the championship match of the Las Vegas Invitational to No. 10 Nate Everhart of Indiana.

The Redvale, Colo., native went 8-7 the rest of the regular season, but lost four of those matches in either overtime or by only one point. After defeating No. 13 Nathan Fernandez of Oklahoma in the semifinals of the Las Vegas Invite, Lane downed the Sooner again Feb. 4 in the dual against Oklahoma.

2008-09 (Freshman)

NCAA Championships

Lane posted a 2-2 mark in his first career appearance at the NCAA Championships. He took No. 19 Kyle Massey of Wisconsin into the second tiebreaker in the first round, but lost a 4-3 decision. Lane rebounded with a 6-0 win over Ricardo Alcala from UC-Davis and a 4-2 sudden victory against North Carolina's Justin Dobies. Lane was eliminated by East Stroudsburg's Christopher Birchler, 4-3.

Big 12 Championships

The fourth seed at the Big 12 Championships, Lane posted a 2-1 record, including a 3-2 upset of third-ranked Jared Rosholt of Oklahoma State to finish third. Lane also defeated OU's Nathan Fernandez in the pigtail round before losing to top-ranked David Zabriskie of Iowa State in overtime.

Regular Season

In his first year as a starter at heavyweight, Lane posted a 28-14 record, including 13-8 in duals. He had three pins, one technical fall and one major decision to tie for the seventh-best record by an NU freshman.

Lane opened with a second-place finish at the Daktronics Open on Nov. 8 behind a 3-1 record, and quickly picked up his first career dual victory on Nov. 20 against Cody Sliger of Chattanooga. Lane climbed into the rankings for the first time after a fourth-place showing at the Las Vegas Invitational on Dec. 6. Lane was 5-2 at the tournament, including two wins over ranked foes.

Lane posted back-to-back dual wins on Jan. 4, before going 3-1 at National Duals. His decisions over Northwestern's Ben Kuhar and Penn State's Cameron Wade gave Nebraska wins over the Wildcats and Nittany Lions in the first and second rounds, respectively. He lost to No. 12 Dan Erekson of Iowa in the semifinals, but defeated third-ranked Dave Zabriskie of Iowa State in the consolation final. Lane's efforts earned him Big 12 Wrestler-of-the-Week honors.

Lane went 5-6 to finish the regular season, but battled some tough opponents. Two of those losses came to opponents ranked in the top three in the nation. Lane was able to secure a key decision against Central Michigan on Jan. 25. Wrestling in the last match of the day, his 5-4 win over Jarod Trice gave NU a 17-17 tie in Mount Pleasant, Mich.

2007-08 (Redshirt)

Regular Season

Lane capped a standout redshirt season at heavyweight with 2008 NU Redshirt-of-the-Year honors after his 27-3 campaign.

Competing in seven open tournaments, Lane laid claim to four titles, one second place and two third-place finishes. His seven pins placed him second on the team and paced him to first at the Cowboy Open, Kaufman-Brand Open, Bob Smith Open and Dana Open.

Despite finishing first at more than half of his competitions, the highlight of Lane's season came during his third-place finish at the Brand Open on Jan. 19. Lane suffered a 4-2 overtime loss to open the tournament, but rebounded with five straight dominating victories. Lane pinned two of those opponents, notched a 13-0 major decision, won a 6-0 decision and came out on top of a 6-3 contest.

Before Nebraska

Lane was a three-time state champion at Nucla High School under the direction of Coach Larry Lane. He also was a four-time Junior All-American, and was recognized by Intermat as a four-star recruit. Lane was also accomplished in the classroom. He earned a 31 on his ACT and graduated as the valedictorian of his class with a 4.25 grade-point average.

Personal Information

The son of Larry and Gwen Lane, Tucker was born on June 4, 1988. He has one sister, Mollie, and one brother, Stryker. Tucker earned his degree in communications in the spring of 2011. Larry Lane wrestled collegiately at the Northern Colorado and was on the All-Army wrestling team. Larry went on to wrestle professionally from 1973 to 1983 as 'Red Dog Lane' and 'Cowboy Larry Lane'.

Career Highlights

2011 First-Team Academic All-Big 12
Four-Time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll (Fall 2009, 2010; Spring 2010, 2011)

Regular Season

Nakashima began his Division I career with a pin in 1:25 against Drae Cox of Lindenwood. The fall was the beginning of four wins at the Harold Nichols Open as he went on to a fourth-place finish.

The competition and pressure intensified from that point on, as Nakashima earned a starting role at 165 pounds and faced eight ranked opponents in his final 14 matches. He had major decision wins over Tanner Weiks of Northern Colorado and Weston Blasius of South Dakota State to finish the regular season with a 6-15 record.

Before Nebraska

Nakashima spent two seasons at Lincoln (Ill.) College and was crowned the 2009 NJCAA national champion at 174 pounds before committing to Nebraska.

At Dwight High School, Nakashima was a four-time letterwinner and twice qualified for the state meet. In 2007, he finished runner-up in Class 1A. Nakashima also lettered two seasons on the basketball court for the Trojans.

In the classroom at Lincoln College, Nakashima was the valedictorian of his Associates Class.

Personal

James is the son of John and Janet Nakashima and was born on Oct. 26, 1988, in Dwight, Ill. He is the youngest of three kids, as he has older siblings, Jennifer and Joey. James is a political science major at Nebraska.

2011-12 Outlook

Senior James Nakashima returns after a redshirt season last year when he won 28 matches in open tournaments. A first-team academic All-Big 12 selection last season, Nakashima will look to replace former Husker Andy Johnson at the 197-pound weight class. A junior college transfer from Illinois, Nakashima saw action in the lineup in 2010 when he won six decisions before redshirting last season.

2010-11 (Redshirt)

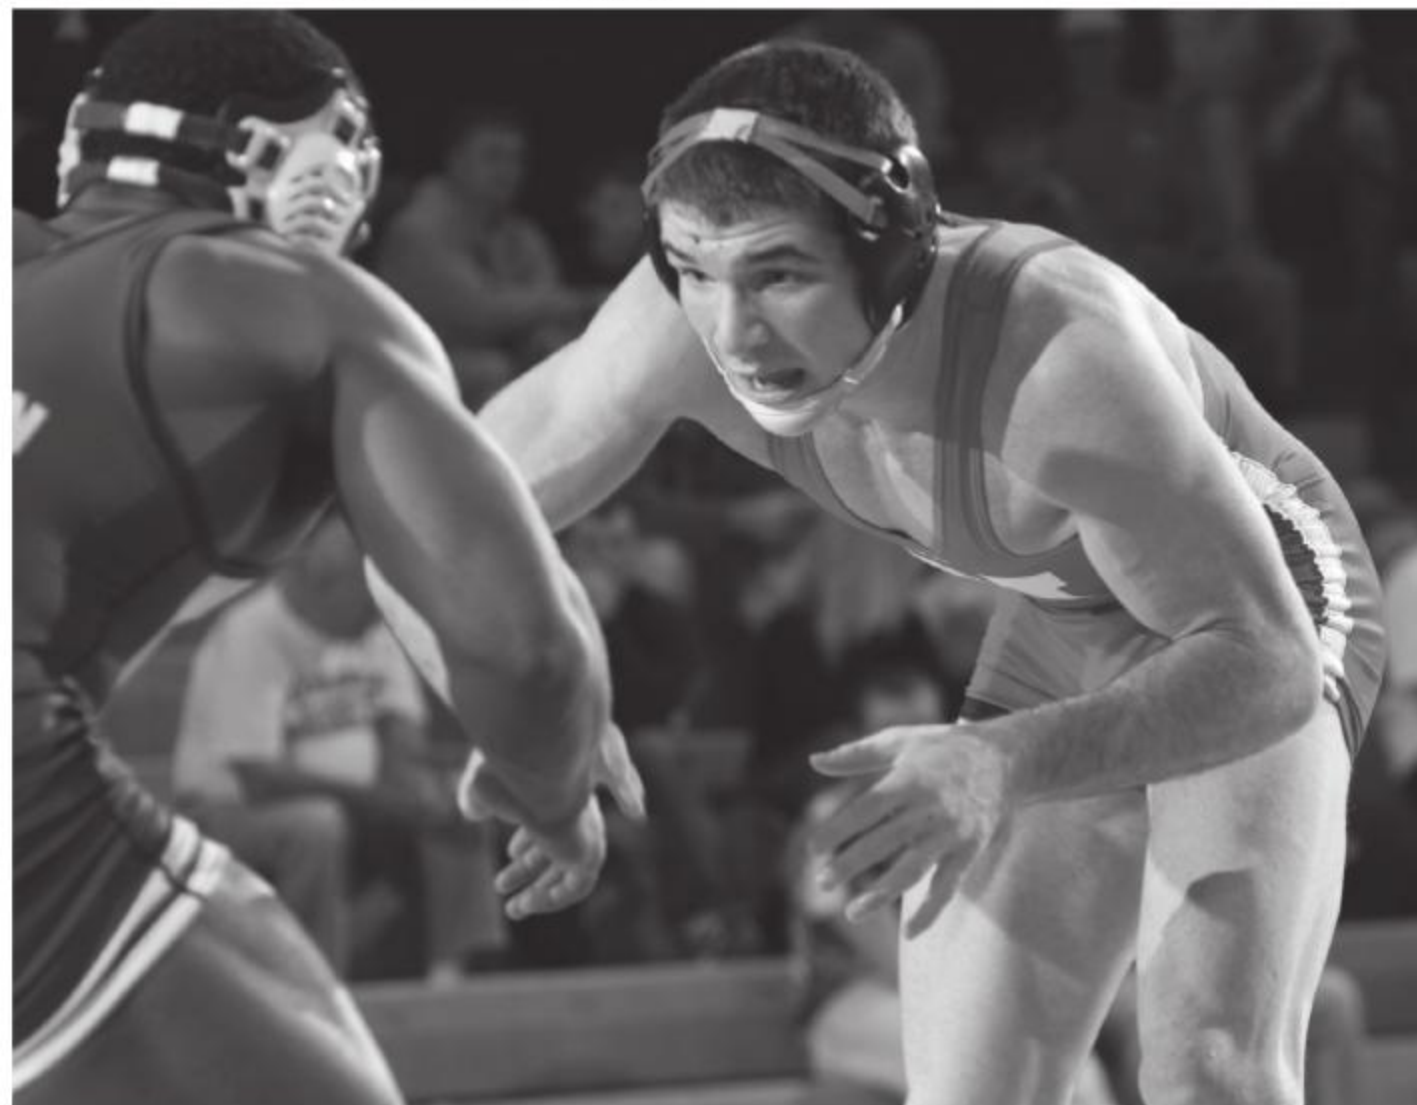

Regular Season

After seeing action in the Huskers' lineup as a junior, Nakashima used a redshirt season in 2010-11. Nakashima made the most of his year by collecting 28 victories and six top-three finishes at open tournaments at 184 pounds. With a title at the Cowboy Open to begin the season, Nakashima reached the finals in three of his next four tournaments. Nakashima also competed in the Midlands Championships, where he went 4-3 with victories over NCAA qualifiers Max Thomsen of Pitt and Illinois' Tony Dallago. Nakashima's 28 victories tied for fourth on the team. He also claimed 11 bonus-point victories.

2009-10 (Junior)

Big 12 Championships

Nakashima drew a pair of tough opponents at the Big 12 Championships and was eliminated after two matches. In the first round, he dropped a 5-0 decision to No. 15 Tyler Caldwell of Oklahoma before an 11-4 loss to No. 8 Alex Meade of Oklahoma State in the consolation bracket.

 (Fall 2008, 2009, 2010; Spring 2009, 2010, 2011)
 Most Dedicated Wrestler Team Award (2011)
 Nebraska Co-Redshirt of the Year Award (2009)

2008-09 (Redshirt)Regular Season

Grande collected the second-most wins among the Husker redshirts with his 21-13 mark, and narrowly missed placing at several tournaments. He finished with four pins, one technical fall and seven major decisions. Grande opened the season with a 2-2 showing at the Harold Nichols Cyclone Open and went 4-2 at the Kaufman-Brand Open. Grande also posted a 4-2 mark at the Fort Hays State Open.

Grande went 0-2 at the UNK Loper Open, but rebounded with a fifth-place showing at the Dana Open. He went 5-2 during the tournament, including two pins. Grande posted a 3-2 mark at the Brand Open and ended his season with a 3-1 mark to place second at the Grandview Open.

Before Nebraska

Grande was a four-time all-conference wrestler under Coach Dan Collins at Class 2A Palatine High School. Grande's 128 career victories broke the school record. He racked up a 43-5 senior season in which he was voted conference wrestler of the year and finished in the top eight in the state. In the classroom, Grande was named to the honor roll for seven semesters.

Personal

The son of Ralph and Maggie Grande, Ross was born on July 3, 1990, in Evanston, Ill. He has two sisters, Angie and Theresa. Ross is a nutritional science and dietetics major.

2011-12 Outlook

After starting every dual last season at 149 pounds, Ross Grande moved up to 157 pounds for the 2011-12 season. A first-team academic All-Big 12 team member, Grande will compete with sophomore Cody Compton for the starting spot. NU's Most Dedicated Wrestler award winner last season, Grande will look to build off an 18-21 overall record last season at 149.

2010-11 (Sophomore)
Big 12 Championships

Grande dropped two hard-fought matches to end his year at the Big 12 Championships. Grande opened the tournament with a 2-1 loss to Max Mayfield from Iowa State in the tiebreaker period, before falling to No. 15 Matt Lester of Oklahoma, 1-0.

Regular Season

Grande finished the regular season with an 18-19 record, while going 0-4 in Big 12 Conference duals. He opened the season with a fourth-place finish at the Harold Nichols Open, which catapulted him to a 7-2 record before winning his first dual match of the season with a 7-6 decision over Sean Nemec of Ohio State.

At the Midlands Championships, Grande won two matches over Dan Osterman from Michigan State and Wisconsin La-Crosse's Matt Mauseh. Grande added a tournament title at the Quality Hotel Open. He finished the regular season with one pin, two technical falls and two major decisions.

2009-10 (Freshman)

Grande was 0-3 in his first varsity campaign as he battled through a shoulder injury that eventually ended his season.

A win would have put Ihnen on the All-America podium as a freshman.

Big 12 Championships

Ihnen produced a third-place finish at the Big 12 Championships with a 2-1 record.

Both of Ihnen's wins came over Erich Schmidtke of Oklahoma. In the first round, Ihnen downed the Sooner, 8-3, while coming back with a strong performance in the consolation final by shutting out Schmidtke, 4-0. Ihnen's only setback in the Big 12 Championships was a 2-1 loss to No. 3 Max Askren of Missouri.

Regular Season

Ihnen was 14-12 during the regular season with a 10-10 dual record. A starter at 184 pounds in his redshirt freshman season, Ihnen began the season 1-3 but made notable improvements to achieve a successful year.

The Iowa native defeated one ranked opponent during the regular season when he downed No. 17 Joe Budi of Old Dominion at the Las Vegas Invitational. Nine of Ihnen's 10 dual losses came to opponents ranked in the top 15, with eight of those by decision. After an 8-4 loss to No. 18 Sonny Yohn of Minnesota on Dec. 10, Ihnen went 8-6 the rest of the regular season. He picked up his first Big 12 win with a 5-1 decision over Erich Schmidtke of Oklahoma on Feb. 4.

Ihnen finished the regular season with one technical fall and two major decision wins.

2008-09 (Redshirt)

Regular Season

Ihnen claimed a 24-5 record during 2008-09 to post the best record among NU's non-varsity wrestlers. Ihnen had six pins, two technical falls and five major decisions.

Ihnen opened the season with a 1-2 performance at the Harold Nichols Cyclone Open on Nov. 15, but the Sheldon, Iowa, native went 23-3 the rest of the season to place at six open tournaments, including three titles.

Wrestling in the amateur division, Ihnen posted four wins to advance to the final of the Kaufman-Brand Open on Nov. 22, before losing to place second. Ihnen continued his roll with a 5-0 performance to win the Fort Hays State Open on Dec. 6. Ihnen went 4-1 to place third at the UNK Loper Open on Dec. 13, but racked up six straight victories to win the Dana and Brand opens on Jan. 3 and 17. Ihnen ended his season with a 4-1 showing and second-place finish at the Grand View Open on Jan. 31.

Before Nebraska

Ihnen was a standout performer for Coach Steve Fischer on and off the mat at Sheldon High School. Ihnen was a four-time state qualifier and set Sheldon's career wins mark with a 156-11 record. He was 93-1 his final two years, finishing first and second at the state championships in his junior and senior seasons.

In the classroom, Ihnen earned a 3.99 grade-point average and was named to the honor roll all four years. He was a member of National Honor Society and a two-time first-team selection to the academic all-state wrestling squad.

A three-sport athlete, Ihnen also earned six letters in football and track and field in high school. He was a three-year starter at linebacker, helping Sheldon to a 12-1 record his sophomore year and an appearance in the state finals. He was named to the all-district first team twice for football and was also named the Siouxland Male Athlete of the Year by the Sioux City Journal.

Ihnen was ranked No. 10 nationally at 189 pounds by InterMat.

Personal

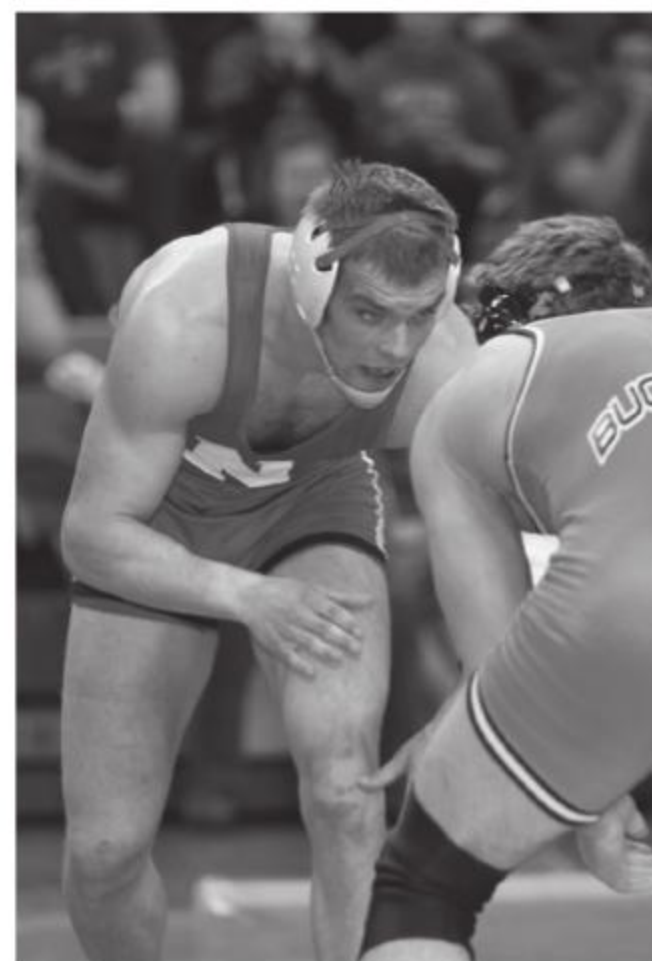

The son of Gary and Donna Ihnen, Josh was born on Sept. 7, 1989. He has two sisters, Rachel and Elizabeth, and one brother, Jacob. Josh is a finance major at Nebraska.

2011-12 Outlook

Josh Ihnen will be one of the top 184-pounders in the entire country after coming one match short of All-America status at last year's NCAA Championships. Ihnen won 28 matches last season and qualified for the NCAA Championships for the second consecutive season, and looks to build off that momentum in 2011-12.

2010-11 (Sophomore)

NCAA Championships

For the second straight year, Ihnen fell one match short of earning All-America honors at the NCAA Championships, but had a solid showing with three victories.

Ihnen opened the tournament with a dominant major decision victory over West Virginia's Matt Ryan, but fell to Big 12 foe Chris Perry from Oklahoma State by a 5-2 decision to drop into the wrestleback bracket. The Sheldon, Iowa native won his second match by major decision after taking down OU's Erich Schmidtke, 10-1, and defeated Austin Trotman of Appalachian State, 8-1.

Ihnen's tournament run came to an end against the No. 1 overall seed Christopher Honeycutt from Edinboro, who defeated Ihnen, 4-3.

Big 12 Championships

Ihnen began the tournament with his third victory of the season over Oklahoma's Erich Schmidtke to advance to the finals against Chris Perry from Oklahoma State.

In the finals, Ihnen couldn't hold off Perry in the sudden-victory period and gave up a takedown in a 3-1 loss. The second-place finish was the highest finish for Ihnen at the Big 12 Championships after finishing third in 2010.

Regular Season

Ihnen produced a strong regular season that included 24 victories and three wins over top-20 opponents. Ihnen kicked off the year with a third-place finish at the Harold Nichols Open, before winning his first five dual matches to improve to 11-1. Ihnen's first dual loss came on Dec. 4 against No. 2 Joe LeBlanc from Wyoming, dropping a 5-3 sudden-victory decision.

Ihnen had one of his best performances at the Midlands Championships where he won his first four matches, including an upset of No. 4 Grant Gambrell of Iowa in the semifinals. Ihnen wasn't able to take the Midlands title home after falling to No. 6 Travis Rutt from Wisconsin in the finals, 4-3, but responded with three victories at the Lone Star Duals in Dallas.

The sophomore was nearly perfect in Big 12 matches going 3-1 in conference duals helping him to a 14-5 dual record. Those victories included a major-decision victory over No. 17 Erich Schmidtke from Oklahoma and a technical fall victory over Iowa State's Cole Shafer to close the regular season.

2009-10 (Freshman)

NCAA Championships

Ihnen had a strong showing in his first NCAA Championship appearance, going 3-2 and falling just short of a top-eight finish.

Ihnen opened the tournament with a 7-5 loss to No. 7 Joe LeBlanc of Wyoming but came back to win his next three in a row. He first defeated No. 17 Mike Miller of Central Michigan, 3-1, and then shut out No. 20 Thomas Spellman of Virginia Tech, 4-0. Ihnen's rise continued with a 5-3 victory over Zac Thomusseit of Pittsburgh before his run came to an end with a 9-6 loss to No. 3 Dustin Kilgore of Kent State.

NCAA Championship Qualifier (2011)
Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll (Fall 2008)
Most Improved Wrestler Team Award (2011)

2008-09 (Redshirt)

Regular Season

Kiley posted a 10-2 record in his redshirt season for the Huskers, including three pins and two major decisions. Kiley started the year with nine straight wins, including a 5-0 showing to place first in the amateur division of the Kaufman-Brand Open. Kiley went 3-0 at the UNK Loper Open, before a minor injury forced him to default out. He ended the season with a 2-2 showing at the Brand Open.

Before Nebraska

Kiley racked up a 153-25 career record for Dave Morgan and Darin Schreck at Eagle Grove High School. Kiley claimed second and third his freshman and sophomore years and capped his career with a 37-1 record and state title his senior year. A two-time all-state honoree, Kiley earned two All-America selections at the Junior National Championships. In the classroom, he was on the honor roll all four years.

Personal

The son of Ernie and Ladawn Kiley, Ridge was born Dec. 14, 1989, in Ames, Iowa. He has one brother, Garrett. Ridge is majoring in marketing at Nebraska.

2011-12 Outlook

Junior Ridge Kiley returns to the lineup after starting every dual last season at 133 pounds for NU. Kiley qualified for his first NCAA Tournament last season where he defeated Stanford's Justin Paulsen for his only victory. Regarded as one of the team's most improved wrestlers for the last two seasons, Kiley won 22 matches last season, including three victories over nationally-ranked wrestlers.

2010-11 (Sophomore)

NCAA Tournament

Participating in his first NCAA Tournament, Kiley went 1-2 in the 133-pound bracket. In his opening round match, Kiley fell to the No. 4 seed Tyler Graff of Wisconsin by major decision, 19-6, to drop to the wrestleback bracket.

Kiley recorded his first victory at the NCAA Championships in his second match against Stanford's Justin Paulsen in dominating fashion, 4-0, but was bounced from the tournament after falling to Flint Ray from Utah Valley.

Big 12 Tournament

Needing one victory at the Big 12 Tournament to automatically qualify for the NCAA Championships, Kiley defeated Iowa State's Ben Cash in the fourth-place challenge match by major decision, 9-0.

Kiley battled the No. 2 seed Jordan Keller of Oklahoma in the opening round, but fell to the Sooner in a one-point decision. Kiley then fell to Missouri's Nathan McCormick in another one-point decision to fall into the fourth-place challenge match.

Regular Season

Kiley wrestled one of the most challenging schedules on the Husker squad with 11 nationally ranked opponents on his slate. Opening his season with a title at the Harold Nichols Open, Kiley went on to start every dual at the 133-pound spot where he garnered an 11-8 dual record with two pins and two major decisions. He finished the regular season with a 20-11 record.

After an 0-2 start in dual competition, Kiley responded by winning eight of his next 11 matches, including an eighth-place finish at the Midlands Championships. At the tournament, Kiley recorded two pins over North Central College's (Ill.) Nathan Fitzenreider and No. 16 Levi Mele of Northwestern, which was Kiley's second victory over a ranked opponent on the year.

Kiley was 2-2 in conference dual matches with victories over Missouri's Nathan McCormick and Iowa State's Ben Cash. Kiley was competitive in almost every match, with seven of his 11 losses coming by two points or less. He was a valuable part of the Huskers' success during the dual season accounting for 34 dual points to tie for No. 5 on the squad.

2009-10 (Freshman)

Kiley was 18-10 overall in his redshirt freshman season with six pins and one technical fall. His six falls tied for third among all Huskers. Kiley had a pair of third-place finishes at the Harold Nichols Open and Glen Brand Open to highlight the tournament season. He began the year with a 10-4 record. Kiley's two varsity starts came against top-four ranked opponents, as he fell to eventual national champion Jayson Ness of Minnesota by pin and No. 4 Jordan Oliver of Oklahoma State by technical fall.

2011-12 Outlook

Caleb Kolb will return as the Huskers' starter at 174 pounds after starting all but one dual last season. Kolb will look to improve on his 15-15 overall record last season and 8-10 mark in dual competition.

2010-11 (Redshirt Freshman)

Big 12 Championships

Kolb entered the tournament as the No. 4 seed, but couldn't pick up a victory after dropping two tightly contested battles. Kolb opened the tournament with a 2-1 loss to Oklahoma's Jeff James, before falling to Dorian Henderson of Missouri by a 6-2 count.

Regular Season

Kolb went 15-13 in the regular season as the 174-pound starter, while finishing with two pins and four major decisions. His 29 dual points ranked seventh on the team and his four major decisions tied for fifth on the squad.

After opening the season with a loss to No. 17 Ethan Headlee from Pitt, Kolb came back and helped the Huskers in their upset over Ohio State by defeating the Buckeyes' Robel Campbell in major-decision fashion, 13-5. Kolb participated in two open tournaments during the season, finishing third at the Viking-Warrior Open and taking the title at the Quality Hotel Open. Following his title at the Quality Hotel Open, Kolb finished the season with a 5-6 record in his next 11 matches, including dual victories over Oklahoma's Jeff James and Northern Iowa's Brice Wolf. Kolb finished the year with 24 dual takedowns.

Career Highlights

Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll (Spring 2011)

2011-12 Outlook

Cody Compton is a contender for the top spot at 157 pounds with junior Ross Grande, who moved up from 149 pounds. Compton saw limited action in the lineup during his redshirt freshman season winning four dual matches, including a three-dual win streak to begin the season.

2010-11 (Redshirt Freshman)Regular Season

Compton saw his first action of the season when he was inserted into the lineup for the Huskers' third road dual of the season against the Northern Colorado Bears. After collecting his first career dual victory over the Bears' Rodney Dollar, Compton went on to beat Minnesota's Alec Ortiz and Alex Elder from Oregon State to leap to a 3-0 start. Compton wrestled in three other duals for NU, earning his other dual victory over Patrick Labuz from Brown. Compton finished the season with an 8-4 record and a 4-2 mark in dual competition. In dual matches, Compton racked up 11 takedowns, while only giving up one. Compton won the 157-pound title at the Briar Cliff Open to finish his season.

2009-10 (Redshirt)Regular Season

Compton had an impressive redshirt season, as he compiled a 13-4 record with five major decisions and one technical fall. In four tournaments, Compton finished in the top three, including a title at the Quality Hotel Open when he went a perfect 5-0. After beginning the season just 4-3, Compton won nine of his final 10 matches. He finished second at the Glen Brand Open and third at the Fort Hays State Open.

Before Nebraska

A two-time All-American, Compton found success at the state level for North County High School in Bonne Terre, Mo. Compton racked up a 162-7 career record with four straight top-five finishes at the state championships. He claimed third as a freshman and sophomore with a 37-2 record at 130 pounds and a 40-1 mark at 140, respectively. He won the title in 2009 and went on to claim the senior national championship.

He claimed third at 145 pounds in the freestyle division of the 2007 Cadet National Championships, before notching an eighth-place showing at 152 pounds in the freestyle division of the 2008 Junior National Championships.

Personal

The son of Bill and Kathy Compton, Cody was born on April 16, 1991 in Cleveland, Ohio. He has an older brother, Will, and a younger brother, Wyatt. Will is a junior linebacker for the Nebraska football team. Cody is majoring in sociology at Nebraska.

Career Highlights

Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll (Fall 2010; Spring 2011)

2011-12 Outlook

Spencer Johnson had a very successful season during his redshirt year by winning 31 matches to finish third on the team in total victories. Johnson will look to translate that success on the mat as he will be in contention for the 197-pound starting spot.

2010-11 (Redshirt)Regular Season

Johnson produced a stellar freshman campaign with 31 victories and three open tournament titles. His 31 wins ranked third on the team behind Jordan Burroughs and Robert Kokesh. Johnson also posted eight bonus-point victories. Johnson began the year by winning his first three matches at the Harold Nichols Open, before falling to Iowa State's Kyven Gadson, 3-2, in the finals. After winning five matches at the Kaufman/Brand Open, Johnson took home his first tournament title at the Bob Smith Open by dominating the 184-pound weight class, with two major decisions among his five victories. Johnson added crowns at the Quality Hotel Open and the Grand View Open, while finishing runner-up in the Viking-Warrior Open. Johnson concluded his season with a third-place finish at the Briar Cliff Open, while wrestling up a weight class at 197 pounds.

Before Nebraska

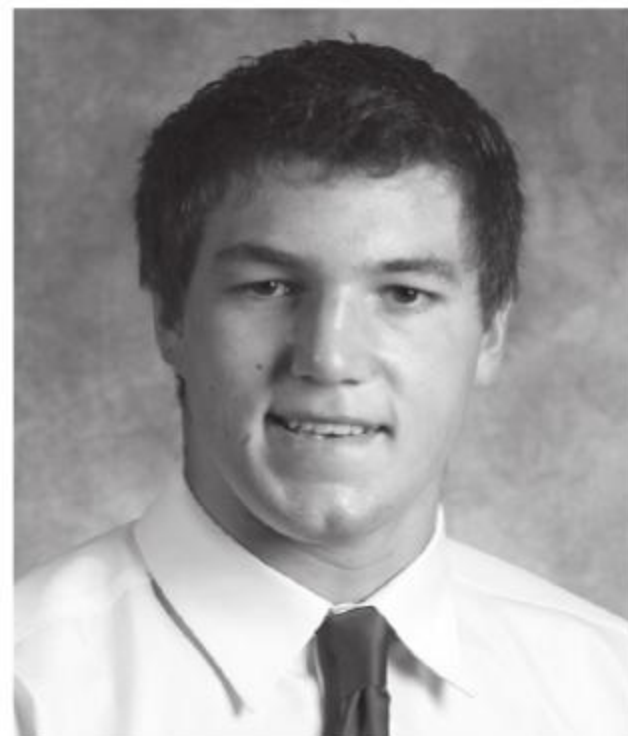

Johnson was a 2010 Minnesota Class 2A state champion following a 42-3 senior season. In 2009, he finished runner-up at the state tournament with a 42-6 record. An all-state and all-conference selection, Johnson finished sixth at Senior Nationals to claim All-America honors.

Johnson earned six letters in wrestling and three in football. Johnson was a member of the National Honor Society and was on the B-Honor Roll.

Michael Klinginsmith will provide depth and could potentially see time in the lineup at 157 pounds for NU. The 4.0 student won 16 matches last season in open tournaments.

2010-11 (Redshirt Freshman)

Regular Season

Klinginsmith finished the season with a 16-13 overall record and was tied for fifth on the team in pins with five. Klinginsmith kicked off the season by losing three straight matches, but responded with three victories at the Bob Smith Open to pull his record to 3-4. Klinginsmith placed in his first open tournament a week later at the UNK Loper Open by taking fifth. He added a third-place finish at the Viking-Warrior Open in his next tournament.

2009-10 (Redshirt)

Regular Season

Klinginsmith was 13-14 as a redshirt with six pins and three major decisions. His pin total ranked first among Nebraska's redshirts in 2009-10. Klinginsmith made steady improvement throughout the year as he placed sixth at the Dana Open in early January with a 2-3 mark. The following week, he had the best showing of his season by taking second at the Quality Hotel Open in Hastings with a 4-1 record, as he won three matches in bonus-point fashion.

Before Nebraska

Klinginsmith had a standout career at Kearney Catholic High School. He won the state championship each of his final three years after placing third as a freshman, and finished with a 168-7 overall record.

Klinginsmith also excelled on the football field as the Stars' starting quarterback. He led the team to three straight playoff appearances with a 21-8 record.

In the classroom, Klinginsmith had a 4.0 grade-point average and earned a 35 on his ACT.

Personal

The son of John and Julie Klinginsmith, Michael was born on May 29, 1990 in Davenport, Iowa. He has one sister, Molly, and one brother, Matt. Michael is a biology major at Nebraska. He had a 4.0 grade-point average in 2010 and 2011.

Career Highlights

First-Team Academic All-Big 12 (2011)
Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll (Fall 2009; Fall 2010)
Nebraska Granite Award (2010)

2011-12 Outlook

Tyler Koehn moved up a weight class from 157, where he spent the past three seasons to 165 pounds. He will be one of the wrestlers in competition to replace former national champion Jordan Burroughs. Koehn spent the majority of the time as the starter at 157 last season and accumulated a 7-11 overall record.

2010-11 (Sophomore)

Big 12 Championships

Koehn went 0-2 at the Big 12 Championships after dropping two competitive decisions to Iowa State's Trent Weatherman and Oklahoma's Chase Nelson.

Koehn opened the tournament with a 3-2 loss to Weatherman, before falling out of the tournament with a 4-1 setback to Nelson.

Regular Season

Koehn finished the regular season with a 7-9 overall record, while going 5-8 in dual matches for the Huskers. The Kansas native accumulated 21 dual points for NU at the 157-pound spot in the lineup and recorded two pins.

After three straight losses to open the season, Koehn picked up his first victory against Nick Flynn of South Dakota State by an 8-3 decision. Koehn's most impressive victory of the season came with a pin against No. 20 Corey Mock of North Carolina.

2009-10 (Redshirt Freshman)

Big 12 Championships

Despite entering the tournament as the fifth seed, Koehn won his first-round match over Patrick Wright of Missouri by an 11-2 major decision. Looking for a spot in the finals, the redshirt freshman fell short of an upset in a 4-1 loss to No. 12 Shane Vernon of Oklahoma. In the third-place match, Koehn nearly posted a victory over No. 19 Andrew Sorenson of Iowa State, but dropped a narrow 2-1 decision.

Regular Season

Koehn began the season in open tournament action at 165 pounds and claimed top-five finishes at the Harold Nichols Open, Kaufman-Brand Open and Fort Hays State Open. During that stretch, he compiled a 13-6 record.

After 157-pound starter Jordan Burroughs went down with a season-ending injury in mid-December, Koehn cut weight over winter break and returned as the 157-pound starter in the Jan. 3 double dual against North Dakota State and North Carolina State. He earned a win over the Wolfpack's Colton Palmer, 2-0 and remained the starter the rest of the season. Although the transition was tough, Koehn won his second and final dual match of the season with a 10-3 decision over Rocco DePaolo of Northern Colorado.

Koehn finished the regular season with a 15-15 overall record. He had one pin and one major decision victory.

2008-09 (Redshirt)

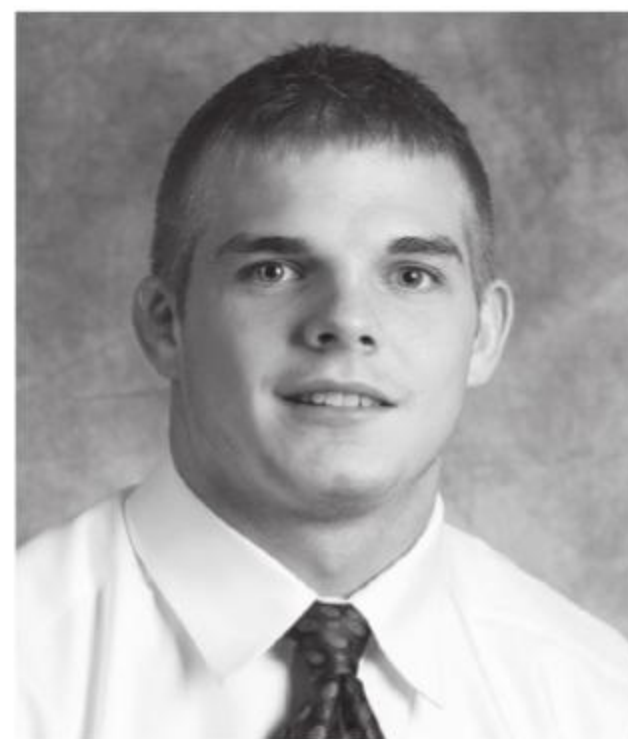

Regular Season

Koehn racked up four pins and five major decisions en route to a 20-8 record during his redshirt season. He placed at three open tournaments, including winning two titles.

Koehn went 4-2 at the Harold Nichols Open on Nov. 15, before going 5-0 to win the amateur division at the Kaufman-Brand Open on Nov. 22. Koehn combined for a 5-5 mark at the Fort Hays State and UNK Loper opens in early December, before winning his second tournament with a 4-0 record at the Dana Open on Jan. 3. Koehn finished with a 2-2 showing at the Brand Open on Jan. 17.

Before Nebraska

Koehn finished in the top three at the Kansas state tournament his final three seasons for Coach Scott Rieck and Pittsburg High School. A four-time state qualifier, Koehn did not place his freshman year at 119 pounds, but earned third as a sophomore with a 41-2 record at 135. He collected 26 pins his junior year while rolling to a perfect 38-0 record and a state championship at 152 pounds. He capped his high school career with a second-place finish at 171 pounds after a 34-3 season. Koehn finished with a 147-15 career record and was a three-time all-area pick and a four-time all-conference selection.

Koehn was a five-time All-American at the Junior National Championships in Fargo, N.D. He claimed fifth in Greco-Roman and seventh in freestyle at 140 pounds in 2006. He moved up to 160 in 2007 to claim eighth in freestyle, before earning fourth in Greco-Roman and seventh in freestyle in 2008.

Koehn also spent all four years on the honor roll at Pittsburg High School.

Career HighlightsBig 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll (Fall 2010)
Nebraska Redshirt of the Year (2010-11)2011-12 Outlook

Robert Kokesh looks to build off a true freshman season that saw him win 34 matches in open tournaments, including 29 victories in bonus-point fashion. Kokesh is the front-runner to replace former two-time national champion Jordan Burroughs at 165 pounds. Last season, Kokesh led the team in pins with 19.

2010-11 (Redshirt) Regular Season

Kokesh unleashed one of the most dominant freshman seasons in recent Nebraska history by going 34-1 and recording 29 bonus-point victories. Kokesh's only loss of the season came to fellow Husker Jordan Burroughs in the finals of the Harold Nichols Open to start the season when Kokesh forfeited for medical reasons. His 34 victories ranked second on the team behind Burroughs, and he led the team in pins with 19. Kokesh also tied for the lead in major decisions with eight.

After the second-place finish at Harold Nichols Open, Kokesh went on to capture seven open tournament titles, which included the Kaufman/Brand Open, Bob Smith Open, UNK Loper Open, Viking-Warrior Open, Quality Hotel Open, Brand Open and the Briar Cliff Open. Kokesh closed the season wrestling in top form, pinning 11 of his final 15 opponents.

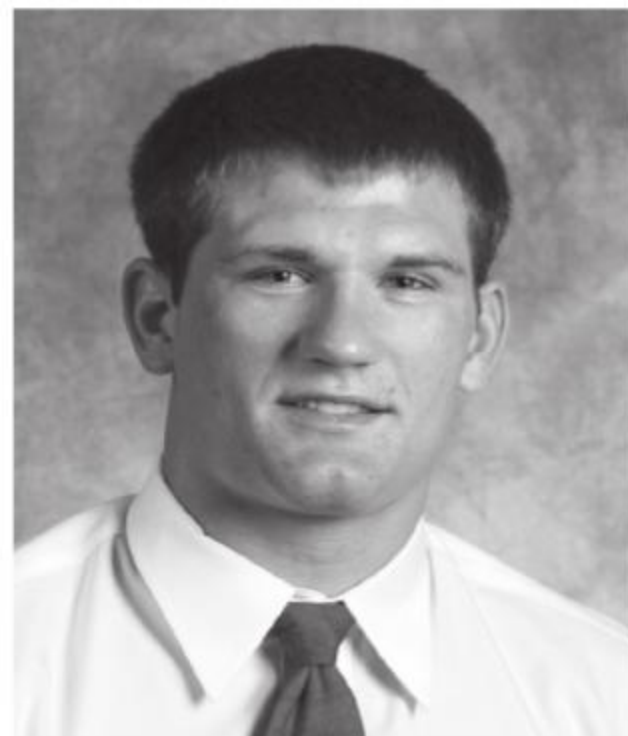

Before Nebraska

Kokesh was a three-time South Dakota Class B state champion (2008-10) and led Wagner High School to team state titles each year. His impressive career included a 216-24 prep record, while earning All-America honors in his last three seasons. In 2008, Kokesh was the NHSCA Sophomore Nationals champion before he also claimed a pair of runner-up finishes at the Junior Nationals in 2009 and 2010.

Kokesh also excelled on the football field for the Red Raiders, as the linebacker earned first-team all-state honors. He also lettered in track and field. Academically, Kokesh was on the honor roll.

Career HighlightsBig 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll (Fall 2010; Spring 2011)
Nebraska Granite Award (2010-11)2011-12 Outlook

Shawn Nagel will open the season as the starter at the 125-pound weight class after seeing limited action in the lineup last season. Despite not recording a win in his seven dual matches last year, Nagel improved greatly in the offseason and will use his experience last year as a building block during his sophomore season. Nagel finished last season with a 17-11 overall record.

2010-11 (Freshman) Regular Season

Nebraska's 2010-11 Granite Award winner, Nagel was the only Husker true freshman to compete in dual action. Nagel finished the year with a 17-11 overall mark, while going 0-7 in dual competition. Four of those seven losses came against nationally ranked opponents. Nagel reeled off six straight victories to open the season at the Cowboy Open. He secured a third-place finish after dropping his opening-round match. At the UNK Loper open, Nagel went 5-2 to finish fifth. Nagel's best tournament came at the Briar Cliff Open to conclude his year. He won all four of his matches, two by pin, to take home first-place honors.

For the season, Nagel pinned nine of his opponents, which was good enough for second on the team behind Robert Kokesh, while also producing two technical falls and two major decisions for a total of 13 bonus-point victories.

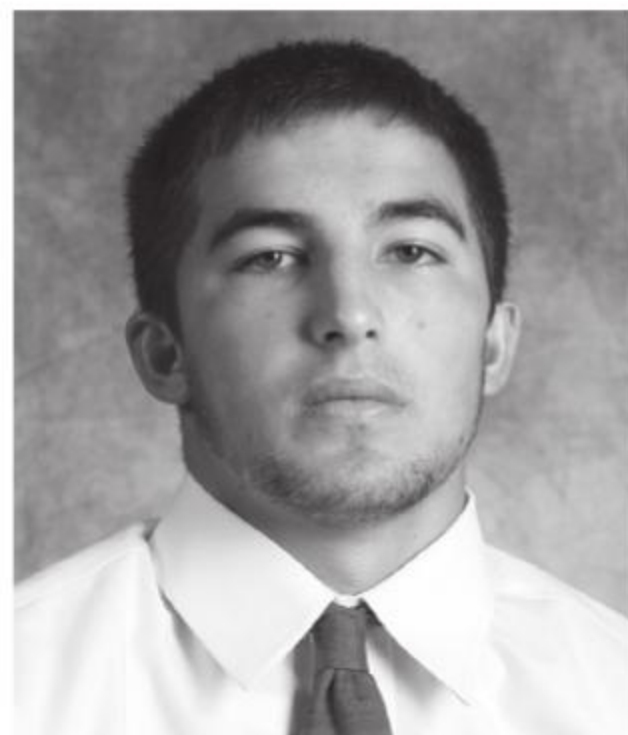

Before Nebraska

A three-time Class C state champion and one-time runner-up, Nagel ended his career by being named the 2010 Nebraska Wrestler of the Year. Nagel was undefeated in his last three seasons and owned a 147-3 career high school record along with being a four-time member of the first-team All-Region squad. He also earned all-league honors four times along with being tabbed the Western Trails Conference Most Outstanding Wrestler all four years.

Nagel was on the Principal's Merit Honor Roll along with being a member of the National Honor Society. Nagel won four letters in wrestling, track and cross country throughout his high school tenure.

ST. CHARLES EAST

2011-12 Outlook

Brandon Rubino won 13 matches last year in open tournaments and will be a key in the Huskers' depth at 125 pounds. The St. Charles, Ill., native won over half of his matches last season in bonus-point form and is looking to build off the momentum he gained near the end of last season.

2010-11 (Redshirt)

Regular Season

After a 1-4 start to begin the season, Rubino found his form at the Quality Hotel Open where he went 4-2 with a technical fall, major decision and pin to capture fifth place. Following the Quality Hotel Open, Rubino won nine of his last 13 matches to finish the season with a 13-11 overall record. More than half of Rubino's victories came in bonus-point fashion. Rubino also found the award stand at the Brand Open, finishing third after posting two of his three major decisions during the season. Along with his three majors, Rubino also won two matches by technical fall and pin.

Before Nebraska

Rubino was the Illinois 2010 Class 3A state champion as a senior after he defeated Aurora's Nicholas Drendel, 5-1, in the state finals at 112 pounds. Rubino finished his senior year with an overall record of 41-6 and was the first state champion from St. Charles East since 2004. Rubino was ranked No. 20 among high school seniors at 112 pounds, according to InterMat, and was awarded the 2010 Gaffney Outstanding Male Athlete award at St. Charles East for his efforts as a senior. As a junior, Rubino won a total of 35 matches and advanced to the second round of the consolation bracket in the state tournament.

Huskers Witness History in 100th Season

Jordan Burroughs became Nebraska's first two-time national champion in 2011 and also won the school's first Hodge Trophy.

The 2011 Nebraska wrestling team produced something never before accomplished in its first 99 years as a program: a two-time national champion. Jordan Burroughs highlighted an historic year for the Husker wrestling program after capturing his second national championship by going a perfect 36-0. Burroughs was a force in a lineup that went 14-5 in dual competition and finished 12th (43.5 points) at the NCAA Championships for the second straight season.

What made Burroughs' journey to the top so special were the obstacles he overcame to reach the pinnacle of collegiate wrestling. In 2009, Burroughs suffered a season-ending knee injury against Central Michigan's Steve Brown on Dec. 19, which required months of rehabilitation. Burroughs was granted a medical redshirt and returned for his senior season with the motivation to return to the top.

Burroughs finished the year with his second undefeated season and topped it off with a major decision victory over Tyler Caldwell of Oklahoma in the 165-pound finals of the NCAA Championships in Philadelphia, Pa., just 30 minutes from Burroughs' hometown. His name will be etched in the Husker record books at No. 4 in career wins (128) and tied for fifth in duals wins (62). Burroughs became the 19th Husker wrestler ever to win 100 matches with his victory over Corey Lear of Bucknell on Nov. 27, 2010 and joined an even more prestigious group after the season as he was awarded the Hodge Trophy, given annually to the nation's most outstanding wrestler. Burroughs is Nebraska's first Hodge Trophy winner.

"It's meant so much to have Jordan in our program," Nebraska coach Mark Manning said. "He's a very talented kid, but he's worked extremely hard to get to this level. He deserves all the things he received. He earned it."

The Huskers qualified seven wrestlers for the NCAA Championships, extending their streak to 26 seasons qualifying at least five wrestlers for the national tournament. Burroughs was joined in Philadelphia by redshirt freshman David Klingsheim (125), sophomore Ridge Kiley (133), senior Mike Koehnlein (141), sophomore Josh Ihnen (184), senior Andy Johnson (197) and junior Tucker Lane (HWT). Both Ihnen and Lane were on the cusp of earning All-America honors, but came up one match short of the medals stand. Ihnen finished the NCAA Tournament with a 3-2 record and saw his season come to an end with a 4-3 loss to No. 1 seed Christopher Honeycutt of Edinboro. Lane dropped two straight matches after reaching the quarterfinals to No. 3 Ryan Flores of American and Spencer Myers of Maryland.

Along with Burroughs, the Huskers had two seniors end their careers at the NCAA Championships. Johnson returned to the team after a year away from the sport and quickly became a force to be reckoned with at the 197-pound weight class. The Yankton, S.D., native finished with a 28-13 record and was ranked as high as No. 13 in the country at his weight class. Koehnlein, a junior college transfer, finished the year with a 17-15 overall record, and started every dual at 141 pounds during his two seasons as a Husker.

Nebraska began the season ranked No. 14 in the NWCA Coach Poll and would face off against two nationally ranked opponents at the Buckeye Duals in Columbus, Ohio to open the season. The Huskers were knocked off in their first dual of the season by No. 20 Pittsburgh, but responded that same day with a victory over future Big Ten foe Ohio State, 24-11. The No. 12 Buckeyes weren't able to hold back the Huskers, as three out of the last four matches were won by NU to take control of the dual.

The win over the Buckeyes sparked a five-dual winning streak for NU. A trip home to Lincoln for the home opener against Bucknell and South Dakota State awaited Manning and Nebraska, and the Huskers didn't disappoint. In the first dual against Bucknell, late heroics from Lane at the heavyweight position propelled NU to a 19-16 victory over the Bison. Trailing by a point in the team race, Lane earned a major decision over Conor Sweeney (BU) to bring the Huskers back. Lane, a Redvale, Colo., native had three major decision victories during a season which saw him finish with a 27-9 record.

A trip west was on tap for NU as they would take on the Northern Colorado Bears and Wyoming in the Huskers' next two duals. Redshirt freshman Cody Compton recorded his first varsity victory and was one of eight wrestlers to earn a win in Nebraska's 34-6 stomping of the Bears. The next day, Nebraska traveled to Laramie, Wyo., for a dual against the Cowboys. Ranked by some wrestling publications, the Cowboys provided stiff competition for Manning and company on the road. The Huskers jumped on the Cowboys right out of the gates, recording a victory from Johnson and a major-decision win by Lane to jump out to a 7-0 lead, which catapulted the Huskers to a 20-12 win. The triumph in Laramie improved NU's record to 5-1 and would set them up for their toughest match of the season up to that point against No. 3 Minnesota at the NU Coliseum.

Against the Gophers, Burroughs continued his monster season by beating No. 6 Cody Yohn by technical fall, 23-7. Compton was the only other Husker to record a victory with his 6-4 decision over Alec Ortiz at 157 pounds as NU dropped the match, 22-8. Nebraska wouldn't have long to think about the Minnesota dual with No. 12 Oregon State coming to the NU Coliseum just two days later. The Beavers featured a strong lineup that included five nationally ranked wrestlers. NU fell behind by six points after Ross Grande was defeated at 149-pounds, but rallied furiously by winning three of the last four duals, including Ihnen's decisive win over Brice Arand to give the Huskers a 17-16 victory.

Next up for the Huskers was a trip to Evanston, Ill., to participate in the prestigious Midlands Championships on the campus of Northwestern University. The Huskers were wrestling at Midlands for the first time since 2001. Burroughs again stole the show by capturing the 165-pound title by winning his first four matches of the tournament in bonus-point fashion. In the finals, Burroughs beat the defending national champion and No. 1 ranked Andrew Howe of Wisconsin, 10-7, in the finals. For his efforts, Burroughs was awarded the Dan Gable Most Outstanding wrestler award for the tournament.

Ihnen joined Burroughs in the finals at Midlands by upsetting No. 4 Grant Gambrell of Iowa in dramatic fashion in the semifinals. Tied at 2-2 after three periods, Ihnen was able to record a takedown and a win in the sudden-victory period to advance to the finals. In the title match, Ihnen dropped a hard-fought match to No. 6 Travis Rutt of Wisconsin, 4-3. Kiley and James Nakashima finished in eighth place at the tournament.

Nebraska embarked on a seven-dual road swing next, which saw them go 5-2 including a victory over No. 7 Missouri. The Huskers opened the trip by traveling to Grand Prairie, Texas for a trio of duals against Utah Valley, Stanford and Brown at the Lone Star Duals. NU swept through the triple-header, with its closest match being a 19-17 victory over Stanford. The Huskers took down Utah Valley 22-12, and Brown, 37-3, in the final match.

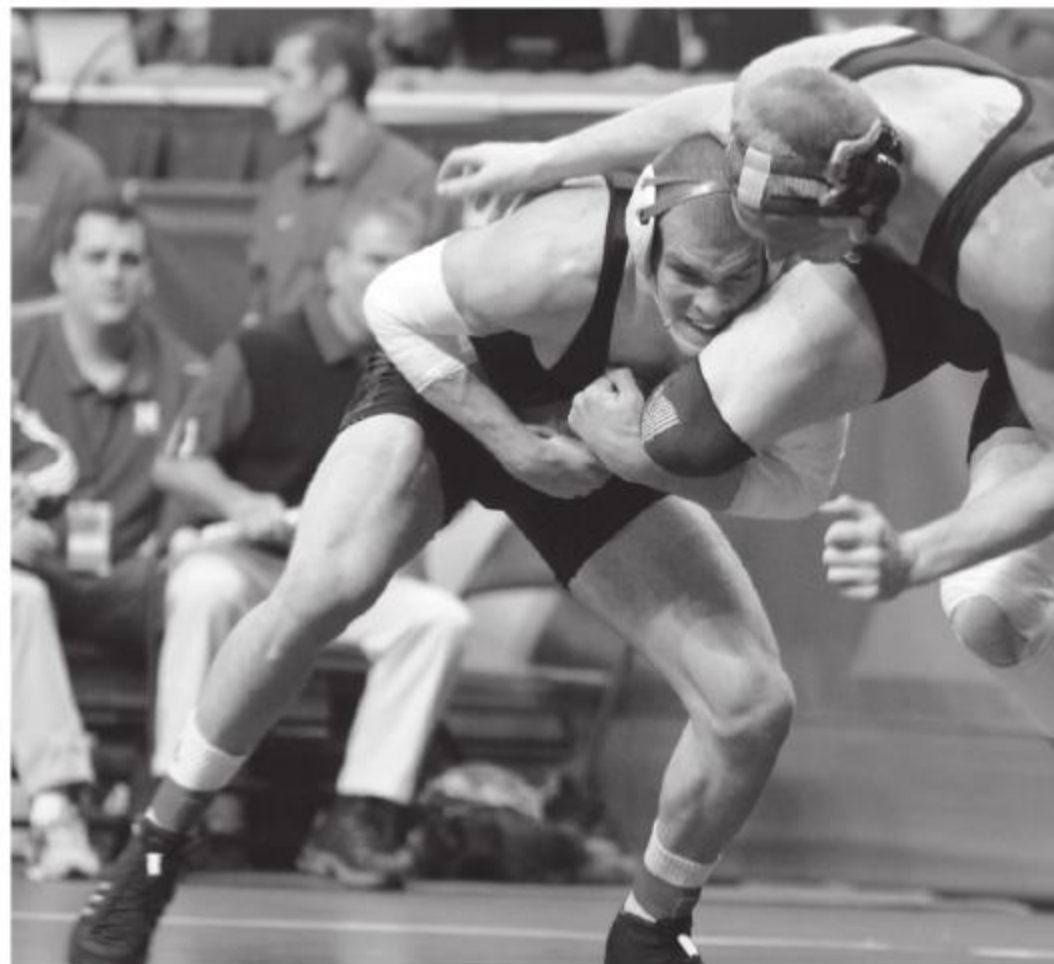

The third and final Big Ten opponent was on tap for Nebraska, as the Huskers traveled to Madison, Wis., to take on the No. 4 Badgers on Jan. 21. NU claimed victories from Burroughs, Koehnlein, Klingsheim and Johnson, but could not pull off the upset falling by the score of 22-15. The Huskers responded two days later with an 18-15 victory over Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls, Iowa. Nebraska again entered the final match of the dual trailing by one team point, but Johnson carried the Huskers to victory after his major decision over Jarion Beets at 197 pounds. The win was NU's 10th dual victory of the season and marked the ninth time since 2000 the Huskers had recorded 10 dual wins.

The Huskers finished their seven-dual road swing by opening Big 12 Conference dual action against the Oklahoma Sooners and Missouri Tigers. Both matches were decided by one point, with the Huskers coming out on the winning end against the Tigers.

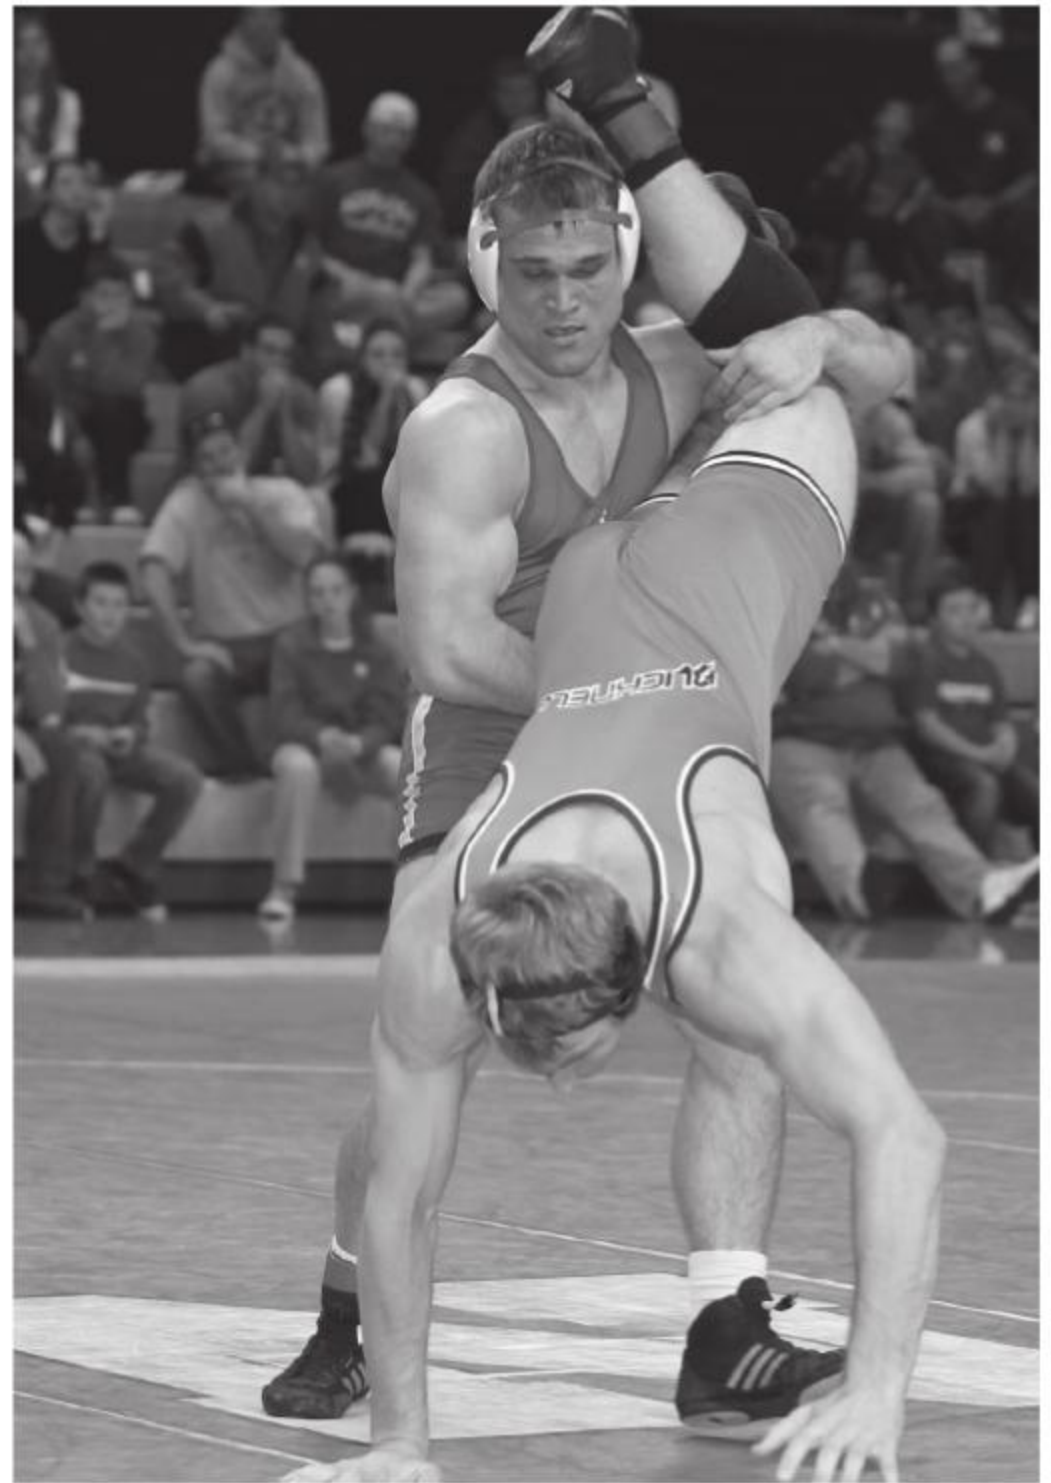

After falling behind the Sooners 17-9, Burroughs broke a streak of five straight OU victories with his 7-3 decision over No. 2 Tyler Caldwell. The victory sparked NU, which won the last two matches at 174 and 184 pounds, but fell one point short of the victory, 17-16. Caleb Kolb defeated Jeff James of Oklahoma, 5-3, while Ihnen took down Erich Schmidtke by major decision, 8-0.

Nebraska responded with its own one-point victory over the No. 7 Tigers, which marked the highest ranked opponent NU has defeated since 2008. Ihnen and Johnson both recorded victories over nationally ranked opponents in the 184- and 197-pound matches, respectively, to put away the Tigers, 17-16. The win was NU's first Big 12 victory of the season.

A welcomed return trip home for a pair of matches against Arizona State and Oklahoma State were up next for NU. The Huskers dominated the Sun Devils, 35-8, while not allowing a takedown in the duals first four contests. NU couldn't find as much luck against the No. 5 Cowboys, falling by 22-10 score.

Josh Ihnen finished his sophomore season one win short of becoming an All-American. The Sheldon, Iowa native finished the year with a 28-10 overall record.

Andy Johnson finished the season with a 28-13 record at 197 pounds and was one of seven NCAA qualifiers for the Huskers.

In its final road dual of the season, NU took down ACC foe North Carolina in dominating fashion. The Huskers won the first six matches of the dual to gain a 21-0 lead, and won by a final count of 31-6. The most impressive win of the day came at 157 pounds where Tyler Koehn pinned No. 20 Coery Mock of North Carolina with only eight seconds remaining in the third period.

Nebraska returned home to the Coliseum for senior night against the Iowa State Cyclones for the Huskers' last Big 12 dual in school history. Three seniors, Mike Koehnlein, Jordan Burroughs and Andy Johnson, were honored before the match as part of Senior Night ceremonies. The Huskers took down the No. 17 Cyclones, 21-14, by winning five of the first six matches to gain a 17-4 lead. Johnson didn't disappoint in his last match at home by beating No. 14 Jerome Ward, 5-3, to finish the regular season with a 25-9 record. Burroughs finished his home career with a major decision victory over Chris Spangler, 22-8.

Burroughs and Klingsheim both claimed titles at the Big 12 Championships for the Huskers before NCAA's, while Burroughs became only the second Husker all-time to win three Big 12 crowns. Burroughs squeezed by Caldwell from Oklahoma in the finals, 2-1, while Klingsheim made an unprecedented run through his bracket, upsetting two top-10 wrestlers in Oklahoma State's Jon Morrison and Oklahoma's Jarrod Patterson in the finals. As a team, the Huskers finished in fourth place with a total of 46.5 points.

The Huskers remained outstanding in the classroom as the Nebraska wrestling program ranked eighth in team grade-point average (3.1343) in the NWCA academic rankings, while Lane and Ihnen were both named to the NWCA All-Academic squad. Lane was named a second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American, becoming only the fifth Husker in school history to earn the honor. As a team, Nebraska placed six members on the academic All-Big 12 squad, including first-team members Grande, Ihnen, Koehn, Lane and Nakashima, while Johnson was named to the second team.

Senior Jordan Burroughs had two technical falls and was one of three Huskers to win both matches on the day as the 14th-ranked Nebraska wrestling team opened the dual season by splitting contests with No. 12 Ohio State, 24-11, and No. 20 Pittsburgh, 10-22, at the Buckeye Duals in Columbus, Ohio.

Wrestling in a Nebraska uniform for the first time since Dec. 19, 2009, Burroughs (165) was back in full force following his season-ending knee injury the previous year. The Sicklerville, N.J. native led the Huskers to a comeback win over Ohio State with his technical fall victory over Jared Kusar (OSU). Prior to Burroughs' win, the Huskers had trailed 11-6 through five matches, gaining their two wins at 141 and 149 pounds from senior Mike Koehnlein (141) and sophomore Ross Grande (149). Burroughs' win tied the dual at 11-11 and began a string of five straight NU victories to close a 24-11 win.

Following Burroughs' technical fall, redshirt freshman Caleb Kolb (174) earned his first varsity win with a 13-5 major decision over Robel Campbell (OSU) to put NU ahead 15-11. Sophomore Josh Ihnen (184) turned in the third-straight Husker win with an 11-4 decision over Peter Capone (OSU), while senior Andy Johnson (197) upset No. 14 Cody Magrum (OSU) by decision, 7-4, and junior Tucker Lane (HWT) downed Jonathan Hiles (OSU), 4-1, to put the Buckeyes away.

Earlier in the day, Nebraska was defeated by No. 22 Pittsburgh, 22-10. After falling behind 13-3, Burroughs dominated Adam Counterman (PITT) with a technical fall victory, 25-10, to make it 13-7, but the Huskers only picked up one more win the rest of the way, a 7-5 decision from Ihnen over Max Thomsen (PITT). Nebraska's other victory came from Koehnlein, as he downed Mike Tully (PITT) by a 2-1 decision.

 South Dakota State.....6

Nov. 27, 2010 | NU Coliseum | Lincoln, Neb.

The Nebraska wrestling team used a late rally to take down the Bucknell Bison, 19-16, before defeating the South Dakota State Jackrabbits, 36-6, to pick up their second and third victories of the season in the Huskers' home opener.

Trailing 16-15 entering the last match against Bucknell, NU looked to junior heavyweight Tucker Lane to bring the Huskers back in the deciding match. Lane used a pair of first period takedowns while only giving up three escape points en route to his 12-3 major decision victory over Conor Sweeney (BU). The victory gave the Huskers their 19-16 win.

Lane also defeated Kevin Kelly (SDSU) in the day's last match to be one of only two Nebraska wrestlers to win both of their matches on the day. Lane was dominant in his match as he did not give up a point in a 4-0 shutout against Sweeney.

History was made at the NU Coliseum, as Jordan Burroughs won his 100th and 101st career matches to become only the 19th Husker in school history to reach the century mark. The senior was dominant in both of his matches, recording two pins at the 165-pound weight division. In his first match, Burroughs only used 1:05 to pin Corey Lear (BU), while he also won by fall over John Nething II (SDSU) in 4:02.

The Huskers also had victories from Ridge Kiley (133), Mike Koehnlein (141) and Josh Ihnen (184) against the Bison. Ihnen defeated Joseph McMullan (BU), 8-3, while Koehnlein took down Zachary Hancock (BU), 5-3. Kiley picked up his first dual win of the season by defeating Alex Pelliccotti (BU).

After dropping two of the first three matches against the Jackrabbits, Nebraska reeled off four straight victories to take control of the dual. In addition to Burroughs' pin, Ross Grande (149), Tyler Koehn (157) and Caleb Kolb (174) all won by decision over their respective opponents to pull away from the Jacks.

#15 Nebraska (4-1).....34
 Northern Colorado.....6

Dec. 3, 2010 | Butler-Hancock Sports Pavilion | Greeley, Colo.

Behind two pins and one technical fall, the Huskers extended their winning streak to four matches after taking down Northern Colorado, 34-6.

Nebraska couldn't have asked for a better start as Jordan Burroughs (165) kicked off the match with a pin over Rocco DePaolo (UNC) in just 43 seconds to give the Huskers an early six-point lead.

After dropping the match at 174 pounds, NU got back on track by winning its next five matches to extend the lead to 28-3. Josh Ihnen (184) got the streak rolling as he won by major decision over Eric Brennan (UNC), 13-4. The win improved Ihnen's dual record to 5-0 on the season and gave him his second major decision victory of the year.

Andy Johnson (197) continued the dominance for the Huskers by defeating Nick Bayer (UNC) by technical fall, 18-2, before junior Tucker Lane (HWT) recorded the second pin of the night for NU over Konner Knudtsen (UNC) in 2:23. The pin was Lane's fourth of the season.

Seeing his first action of the season, sophomore David Klingsheim (125) held off Sam Bauer (UNC) in the third period and used 1:40 of riding time to take the decision, 5-3.

Sophomore Ridge Kiley (133) picked up his third dual victory of the season after defeating Michael Balagna (UNC) by major decision, while Ross Grande (149) was victorious over Jacob Milewski (UNC).

Nebraska's last victory came from redshirt freshman Cody Compton (157) in his first varsity match, after he defeated Rodney Dollar (UNC) by decision, 7-4. Compton used two takedowns in the first period and a reversal in the third to put away Dollar and wrap up the Huskers' 34-6 victory.

 Wyoming.....12

Dec. 4, 2010 | UniWyo Sports Complex | Laramie, Wyo.

The 15th-ranked Nebraska wrestling team took down the Wyoming Cowboys, 20-12, to extend its winning streak to five straight duals. Nebraska collected victories in the first two matches to gain a 7-0 lead on the Cowboys and never looked back.

In the first match, Andy Johnson (NU) defeated L.J. Helbig (UW) by decision at 197 pounds, 10-4, to get the Huskers rolling. Johnson was followed by a victory from heavyweight Tucker Lane (NU), who took down Joe O'Farrell (UW) by major decision.

After dropping the 125-pound match, Mike Koehnlein (NU) defeated Chase Smith (UW), before Ridge Kiley upset 16th-ranked Michael Martinez (UW) at the 133-pound weight division to extend the Huskers' lead to 13-3, before Wyoming was able to take the next two matches to narrow the margin 13-9.

Nebraska took the next two matches, as senior Jordan Burroughs (165) added another major decision to his season total after defeating Patrick Martinez (UW), 19-7. Caleb Kolb (174) got the last points for NU as he won by decision over Dallas Hintz (UW), 7-1.

In the dual's most anticipated match of the night, No. 2 Joe LeBlanc (UW) used a takedown in extra time to defeat No. 10 Josh Ihnen (NU) by the score of 5-3 at 184 pounds.

 #3 Minnesota 26

Dec. 9, 2010 | NU Coliseum | Lincoln, Neb.

The Huskers saw their five dual winning streak come to an end after falling to the No. 4 Minnesota Gophers, 26-8, in front of 812 fans at the NU Coliseum. The loss dropped NU's record to 5-2 on the season.

After dropping the first two matches at 141 and 149 pounds, Nebraska was able to rebound with two straight victories of their own from redshirt freshman Cody Compton (157) and senior Jordan Burroughs (165) to take their only lead of the night at 8-7.

Compton recorded his second dual victory in two tries this season by taking down Alec Ortiz (UM) by decision, 6-4. Leading 4-3 late into the third period, Compton used a takedown with 1:07 left in the match to extend his lead to three points and ice the victory.

Burroughs added to his overall fall total for the season after defeating No. 6 Cody Yohn (UM) by technical fall, 23-7 (5:54).

After Burroughs' match, the Huskers couldn't find the win column, dropping the last six matches of the dual, with five of those matches being by two points or less. The match of the night came at the 133-pound weight division, where Bart Reiter (UM) took on Ridge Kiley to conclude the dual. Kiley was able to tie the score at 3-3 at the end of regulation by gaining the riding time advantage and send the match to overtime. After a scoreless sudden-victory period, Kiley was unable to escape the down position in the second tiebreaker period and lost the match, 4-3.

No. 7 Tucker Lane (HWT) saw his five dual winning streak snapped after his sudden-victory loss to No. 11 Tony Nelson (UM), while No. 8 Josh Ihnen (184) dropped his second straight match to No. 15 Kevin Steinhaus (UM) by a 3-2 score.

#15 Nebraska (6-2) 17
 #12 Oregon State 16

Dec. 11, 2010 | NU Coliseum | Lincoln, Neb.

Nebraska won three of the last four matches against the Oregon State Beavers to complete a 17-16 come-from-behind victory at the NU Coliseum.

The Huskers jumped out to an early 6-0 lead after Andy Johnson (197) and No. 7 Tucker Lane (HWT) won two close matches to start the dual. Trailing 3-2 entering the third period to Chad Hanke (OSU), Johnson used an escape and a takedown in the third period to go ahead 5-3 and complete the comeback, while Lane used an escape and gained the riding time advantage to put away No. 12 Clayton Jack (OSU), 2-0.

Oregon State battled back to take a 12-6 lead after winning the next four matches all by decision, before redshirt freshman Cody Compton got the Huskers back on track at 157 pounds. Compton defeated Alex Elder (OSU) by an 8-6 decision to close the Husker deficit to three at 12-9.

Senior Jordan Burroughs then gave the Huskers the lead in the next match at 165 pounds after he defeated Jon Brascetta (OSU) by technical fall, 26-9 (5:17). The victory marked Burroughs' second straight by technical fall and fifth of the season.

With the Huskers leading by two points, the Beavers were able to take the lead in the 174-pound match, as No. 6 Colby Covington (OSU) defeated Caleb Kolb (NU) by major decision to give Oregon State a two-point advantage.

With Kolb's loss, the dual was left in the hands of sophomore Josh Ihnen (NU). The No. 8 wrestler at 184 pounds jumped to an early four-point lead over Brice Arand (OSU) and never looked back, cruising to a 6-2 decision to give the Huskers a 17-16 victory.

#16 Nebraska (9-2) 37
 Brown 3

Jan. 15, 2011 | South Grand Prairie High School Coliseum | South Grand Prairie, Texas

The Huskers won all three duals they participated in at the Lone Star Duals in Grand Prairie, Texas. The Huskers defeated Utah Valley, Stanford and Brown to improve their record to 9-2 on the season.

In the first dual, the Huskers won the last six matches and rallied back from a 12-0 deficit to defeat the Utah Valley Wolverines, 22-12.

Utah Valley jumped out to 12-0 lead in the dual, as the Wolverines took the first four matches by decision. Getting his first start since the South Dakota State match on Nov. 27, Shawn Nagel (125) fell to No. 14 Ben Kjar (UVU) in the dual's opening match, and was followed by Ridge Kiley (133) who was defeated by No. 14 Flint Ray (UVU) in a tight 2-0 decision. The last two victories for UVU came from Justin Morrill (UVU) who defeated Mike Koehnlein (NU) at 141 pounds, and Josh Wilson (UVU) who took down Ross Grande (NU) at 149 pounds.

Nebraska got its first team points from Tyler Koehn (NU) after he defeated Richard Winger (UVU) by decision, 3-0, at 157 pounds. Koehn was followed by senior Jordan Burroughs (NU) who took down Jeb Clark (UVU) by major decision to pull the Huskers within five points of the Wolverines at 12-7.

The Huskers pulled within two points of the Wolverines when Caleb Kolb (NU) used a takedown with eight seconds remaining in the third period to defeat Brad Darrington (UVU) at 174 pounds, 4-2. Nebraska took the lead in the dual when No. 11 Josh Ihnen (NU) defeated Casen Eldredge (UVU) by decision to give NU a 13-12 lead.

In the last two matches, Andy Johnson (NU) and Tucker Lane (NU) were dominant, as they extended the Huskers' lead to 22-12. Johnson won his sixth dual match of the season by defeating Trevor Rupp (UVU), 7-2, while Lane collected his fourth pin of the season over Christian Denny (UVU) in 2:38.

In their match against Stanford, the Huskers used a technical fall victory from Lane (NU) to rally back and defeat the Cardinal by a 19-17 count. Entering the 184-pound match trailing by three team points, Ihnen tied the dual with his 2-1 victory over Spence Patrick of Stanford. NU couldn't pull ahead in the next match as Johnson (197) fell to No. 10 Zack Giesen (Stanford) by a 10-4 decision to give the Cardinal a three-point lead.

With the Huskers needing a bonus-point victory to win the dual, Lane came through by defeating Alen Yen (Stanford), 18-2, in the heavyweight bout. The dual-clinching victory gave Lane his first technical fall of the season.

Earlier in the dual, Ridge Kiley (NU) got the Huskers their first three points with his upset of No. 18 Justin Paulsen (Stanford) in the second sudden-victory period, while Mike Koehnlein (NU) picked up his second victory of the day by taking down Jordan Gray (Stanford) at 141 pounds. Jordan Burroughs was the other Husker to get a win, as he defeated Garrett Schaner (Stanford) by technical fall, 24-7.

In their last dual of the night, the Huskers jumped on the Brown Bears right out of the gate by winning the first three matches. David Klingsheim (125), Kiley (133) and Koehnlein (141) gave the Huskers a 10-0 lead, before Brown's Giuseppe Lanzi defeated Ross Grande to put the Bears on the scoreboard.

After Grande's defeat, the Huskers won the last six matches of the dual, with four of those being bonus-point victories. Burroughs pinned Dave Foxen (BU) for his sixth pin of the season, while Cody Compton (NU) defeated Pat Labuz (BU) at the 157-pound match for his first victory of the day. The Huskers also got major decision victories from Kolb, Ihnen and Lane to round out the action. Burroughs, Lane and Ihnen all went 3-0 on the day for Nebraska.

#4 Wisconsin	22

Jan. 21, 2011 | UW Field House | Madison, Wis.

The Huskers had their four-dual winning streak snapped against No. 4 Wisconsin, 22-15, in Madison, Wis.

Wisconsin opened the dual with a victory by pin from Calvin York (UW) at 157 pounds over Nebraska's Cody Compton to give the Badgers a 6-0 lead. Following the pin, No. 1 Jordan Burroughs won by forfeit at 165 pounds to tie the score at 6-6.

At 174 pounds, No. 19 Ben Jordan (UW) regained the lead for the Badgers after holding off a late takedown attempt from Caleb Kolb (NU) with less than 10 seconds remaining in the match.

After No. 10 Josh Ihnen (NU) dropped the 184-pound match to No. 4 Josh Rutt, Andy Johnson (NU) used a strong third period, as he scored eight points in the final two minutes, to defeat Derrick Borlie (UW) by decision, 10-5, at 197 pounds.

At the heavyweight match, No. 10 Tucker Lane (NU) was upset by No. 19 Eric Bugenhagen (UW) in the tiebreaker period, 2-1. Lane, who was unable to escape in the first tiebreaker period, let Bugenhagen escape in the second tiebreaker period, but wasn't able to score a takedown and dropped the match.

The Huskers were able to win two of the next three matches, as David Klingsheim (NU) and Mike Koehnlein (NU) both won at their respective weight classes. Klingsheim defeated Tom Kelliher (UW) by decision, 3-0, in the 125-pound match, while Koehnlein was dominant in his victory over Danny Arnel (UW) at 141 pounds. The two victories pulled the Huskers within four team points at 19-15, needing a bonus-point victory at the 149-pound match to win or tie.

At 149 pounds, Ross Grande (NU) was unable to score the bonus point victory the Huskers needed after falling to Shawn Perry (UW) by decision, 6-2.

#16 Nebraska (10-3)	18
Northern Iowa	15

Jan. 23, 2011 | West Gym | Cedar Falls, Iowa

Trailing by one point entering the final match against the Northern Iowa Panthers, Andy Johnson (NU) was able to rally the Nebraska wrestling team back to an 18-15 victory.

The dual opened with a pair of ranked wrestlers at the 285-pound weight class in No. 10 Tucker Lane (NU) and No. 16 Christian Brantley (UNI). After no scoring in the first two periods, Lane was able to score an escape and was awarded the riding time point to take the match, 2-0.

At 125 pounds, David Klingsheim (NU) was unable to hold off Caleb Flores (UNI) surrendering a takedown with 36 seconds remaining in the third period to give Flores the 2-1 victory. Ridge Kiley (NU) was able to get the Huskers back on track at 133 pounds, defeating Ryan Jauch (UNI), 3-2. After scoring a reversal to take a 2-1 lead, Jauch tied the score at 2-2 after being awarded a stalling point, but Kiley was able to collect over a minute of riding time and took the match, 3-2.

After Kiley's victory, the Huskers dropped three-straight decisions and fell behind by six points in the team score at 12-6, before senior Jordan Burroughs (NU) recorded his ninth technical fall victory of the season to pull the Huskers within one. Burroughs was dominant in his victory over John Simon (UNI), recording five takedowns in the first period en route to a 21-5 win.

Following Burroughs' win, sophomore Caleb Kolb (NU) regained the lead for NU after defeating Brice Wolf (UNI) by decision, 5-3, at 174 pounds. Kolb used two second period takedowns to give the Huskers a 14-12 lead in the team score.

The lead didn't last long for NU, as No. 14 Ryan Loder (UNI) upset No. 12 Josh Ihnen (NU) at 184 pounds, 5-0, to set up the deciding match at 197 pounds. In that match, Johnson (NU) used three takedowns and two near falls to defeat Jarion Beets (UNI) by major decision, 12-0, and give NU the 18-15 victory.

#16 Nebraska (10-4)	16
#11 Oklahoma	17

Jan. 28, 2011 | McCasland Field House | Norman, Okla.

The Huskers fell to the No. 11 Oklahoma Sooners, 17-16, in Norman, Okla. The Sooners were able to hold off the Huskers, who won the last three matches of the dual. NU dropped to 10-4 and 0-1 in the Big 12 Conference.

Nebraska raced out to a 6-0 lead after Andy Johnson (NU) and Tucker Lane (NU) won the first two matches of the dual. Johnson won his fourth straight match and 21st overall after defeating Keldrick Hall (OU) at the 197-pound weight class, 8-2, while Lane upset No. 10 Nathan Fernandez (OU) by decision, 4-1, for his third victory of the season over a nationally ranked opponent.

The Huskers weren't able to keep a hold on the lead after dropping the next five matches to fall behind, 17-6. At 125-pounds, David Klingsheim (NU) fell to No. 7 Jarrod Patterson (OU) by decision, 5-0, before Ridge Kiley (NU) was defeated by No. 19 Jordan Keller (OU) in a tight, 4-2, battle.

After back-to-back major decision victories by Oklahoma, No. 1 Jordan Burroughs (165) got the Huskers back on track by defeating No. 2 Tyler Caldwell (OU) by decision, 7-3, to bring the Huskers within eight points at 17-9.

Caleb Kolb (NU) pulled the Huskers within five points with one match remaining after defeating Jeff James (OU) at 174 pounds by decision, 5-3. After James tied the score at 3-3 with the riding time point at the end of regulation, Kolb was able to take down James in the first sudden-victory period to secure the win.

In the last match of the dual, No. 13 Josh Ihnen (NU) broke a two-match losing streak by defeating No. 17 Erich Schmidtke (OU) by major decision, 8-0. The major decision victory wasn't enough to close the gap on the Sooners, as the Huskers fell by the score of 17-16.

#16 Nebraska (11-4)	17
#7 Missouri	16

Jan. 30, 2011 | Hearn Center | Columbia, Mo.

Nebraska picked up its first conference dual victory of the season by upsetting the No. 7 Missouri Tigers, 17-16, at the Hearn Center in Columbia, Mo. Missouri marked the highest ranked opponent defeated by Nebraska since the Huskers beat No. 7 Minnesota, 21-18, on Dec. 21, 2008.

Missouri controlled the dual early capturing three of the first four matches and taking a 10-3 lead. David Klingsheim (NU) battled No. 9 Alan Waters (MU) at 125 pounds to open the dual, but couldn't pull off the upset, falling by decision, 5-3. NU was able to even the score at 3-3 when Ridge Kiley (NU) took down Nathan McCormick (MU), 4-0, at 133 pounds. After a scoreless first period, Kiley was dominant in the final two periods scoring a reversal and a penalty point (locked hands) en route to the victory.

With the score tied, MU regained the lead after scoring victories at 141 and 149 pounds, but NU responded with two wins of its own from Tyler Koehn (NU) and No. 1 Jordan Burroughs (NU). Koehn used two first period takedowns to take control early against Giorgio Gregoris (MU) at 157 pounds and took the match by decision, 9-4. Burroughs defeated his second nationally ranked opponent of the weekend by taking down No. 11 Zach Toal (MU) by technical fall, 26-11, at 165 pounds.

With a one-point advantage in the team score, the Huskers weren't able to keep a hold on the lead after No. 20 Dorian Henderson (MU) edged Caleb Kolb (NU), 4-2, at 174 pounds. Trailing by two-points, No. 13 Josh Ihnen (NU) defeated No. 15 Mike Larson in a tight 2-1 battle at 184 pounds to give NU the lead for good. Ihnen used the riding time point to secure the victory after accumulating 1:48 of riding time in the third period.

Andy Johnson (NU) extended the Huskers' lead to four points at 197 pounds by upsetting No. 10 Brent Haynes (MU) for his fifth straight victory. Entering the third period trailing 1-0, Johnson rallied back with two takedowns in the final period to take the match by decision, 5-3.

Nebraska was able to hold on for the 17-16 victory despite No. 12 Tucker Lane (NU) falling to No. 4 Dom Bradley (MU) by decision, 5-4, at the heavyweight spot.

125- #9 Alan Waters (MU) by dec. over David Klingsheim (NU), 5-3	NU 0, MU 3

Arizona State.....8

Feb. 4, 2011 | NU Coliseum | Lincoln, Neb.

The Huskers didn't allow a takedown in their first four matches en route to a dominating performance over the Arizona State Sun Devils, 35-8, at the NU Coliseum.

The Huskers jumped on the Sun Devils early, as Ross Grande (NU) broke his seven-dual losing streak with a 7-2 decision over Tai Fukumoto (ASU) at 149 pounds. The sophomore used a takedown in each period to claim the victory over Fukumoto.

After Tyler Koehn's (NU) win by forfeit at 157 pounds, No. 1 Jordan Burroughs stretched the Huskers' lead to 14-0 with his 11th technical fall victory of the season over Te Edwards (ASU). After a slow start that saw Burroughs with a 2-1 lead after the first period, the senior erupted in the last two periods and pulled away for the win, 21-6.

At 174 pounds, Caleb Kolb (NU) won by forfeit and was followed by No. 10 Josh Ihnen (NU) at 184 pounds, where he shut out Jake Meredith (ASU), 5-0, to extend Nebraska's lead to 23-0.

Newly ranked Andy Johnson (NU) continued his strong wrestling at 197 pounds, as he defeated Luke Macchiaroli (ASU), by decision, 3-1.

ASU got its only two victories of the dual in the next two matches as Levi Cooper (ASU) upset No. 10 Tucker Lane (NU) in the sudden-victory period, and No. 2 Anthony Robles won by technical fall over freshman Shawn Nagel (NU) at 125-pounds.

Nebraska finished the dual with back-to-back victories from Ridge Kiley (NU) and Mike Koehnlein (NU). Kiley gave the Huskers their second shutout of the dual by blanking Kalin Goodsite (ASU), 4-0, while Koehnlein finished the dual in style by pinning Carlos Castro (ASU) in 6:20 at 141 pounds.

#14 Nebraska (12-5).....10
#5 Oklahoma State.....22

Feb. 6, 2011 | NU Coliseum | Lincoln, Neb.

The Nebraska wrestling team dropped its conference home opener after falling to the Oklahoma State Cowboys, 22-10.

The dual started with Nebraska senior Mike Koehnlein (NU) upsetting No. 17 Josh Kindig (OSU) at 141-pounds by decision, 10-4. Trailing 2-1 entering the second period, Koehnlein used two takedowns and an escape to take the lead at 7-4. Koehnlein then scored a two-point near fall in the final seconds of the match to extend his lead to 10-4 with the riding-time advantage.

Oklahoma State responded with two victories of its own at 149 and 157 pounds to regain the lead at 6-3. Ross Grande (NU) battled No. 10 Jamal Parks (OSU) for the entire match, but fell to the nationally ranked wrestler by a 2-0 count. At 157, No. 16 Neil Erisman (OSU) defeated Tyler Koehn (NU) by decision, 7-1.

No. 1 Jordan Burroughs (NU) picked up his 27th-straight victory of the season by defeating No. 12 Dallas Bailey (OSU) by major decision at 165-pounds, 21-9.

The Huskers were not able to keep the momentum after Burroughs' victory, dropping three straight matches to nationally ranked opponents. No. 17 Mike Benefiel (OSU) defeated Caleb Kolb (NU) by decision, 11-5, at 174 pounds, while No. 11 Chris Perry (OSU) edged No. 10 Josh Ihnen (NU) at 184, 3-2. With Perry leading 2-1 heading into the third period, Ihnen was able to get an escape in the third to tie the match at 2-2, but wasn't able to get the takedown he needed as Perry held the riding time advantage (1:34), which ended up being the deciding point.

At 197 pounds, No. 14 Andy Johnson saw his six-match winning snapped when he fell to No. 3 Clayton Foster (OSU), 4-0. In the first period, Johnson was on the attack and nearly caught Foster on his back, but the senior couldn't capitalize on numerous shot attempts at Foster's legs. Foster used an escape and a takedown in the second period to take control of the match between the two ranked wrestlers.

The Huskers got their final victory of the dual from junior Tucker Lane (NU) at the heavyweight spot. Lane earned an escape in the third period and owned the riding-time advantage (1:56) in route to his 2-0 decision over Blake Rosholt (OSU).

NU dropped the final two matches of the dual to a pair of top-10 opponents. At 125 pounds, David Klingsheim (NU) fell to No. 8 Jon Morrison (OSU), 4-2, while No. 1 Jordan Oliver (OSU) remained perfect on the season with his victory over Ridge Kiley (NU) at 133 pounds.

North Carolina.....6

Feb. 12, 2011 | Carmichael Arena | Chapel Hill, N.C.

The Huskers won the first six matches over the North Carolina Tar Heels en route to a 31-6 victory in Chapel Hill, N.C. The Huskers were wrestling in their final road dual of the season.

Nebraska opened the dual with a shutout from No. 11 Josh Ihnen (NU) at 184 pounds over Antonio Giorgio (UNC), 6-0. Ihnen's victory was followed by Andy Johnson (NU) defeating Zac Bennett (UNC) by decision, 10-4, at 197. Both Ihnen and Johnson were coming off losses to nationally ranked opponents against Oklahoma State.

At heavyweight, No. 12 Tucker Lane (NU) defeated Ben Brooks (UNC) after Brooks had to withdrawal from the match with an injury in the second period. Leading by 12 points, the Huskers extended the margin to 21-0 with three decisions from David Klingsheim (NU), Ridge Kiley (NU) and Mike Koehnlein (NU). Klingsheim recorded the Huskers second shutout of the dual at 125 pounds when he defeated Jake Correll (UNC), 6-0. At 133 pounds, Kiley defeated Pat Owens (UNC) by decision 7-1, while Koehnlein won his third straight dual by taking down Mike Rappo (UNC), 10-3.

The match of the day came at 157 pounds where Tyler Koehn (NU) upset No. 20 Corey Mock (UNC) by fall with eight seconds left in the final period. Trailing 3-0 entering the third period, Koehn earned an escape point to pull within two points, and then turned a single-leg takedown attempt into a pin to extend the Husker lead to 27-3.

No. 1 Jordan Burroughs (NU) recorded his 12th technical fall of the season for the Huskers' last victory at 165 pounds over Thomas Scotton (UNC), 24-9.

The Huskers' only losses came at 149 and 174 pounds where, Nick Stabile (UNC) defeated Ross Grande (NU), 3-2, and Thomas Ferguson (UNC) took down Caleb Kolb (NU), 3-1.

#13 Nebraska (14-5).....21
#17 Iowa State.....14

Feb. 20, 2011 | NU Coliseum | Lincoln, Neb.

Wrestling in dual competition for the last time as a member of the Big 12 Conference, the Nebraska wrestling team took down the No. 17 Iowa State Cyclones, 21-14, in NU's final regular-season dual. The win capped a 14-5 regular season for the Huskers and evened their record in Big 12 duals to 2-2.

In front of 1,158 fans at the NU Coliseum, the Huskers kicked off the dual by honoring three seniors, Mike Koehnlein, Jordan Burroughs and Andy Johnson, as the Huskers celebrated Senior Day.

Nebraska fell behind after the first dual when, No. 1 Jon Reader (ISU) stayed unbeaten on the season by defeating Caleb Kolb (NU) by major decision, 16-4, at 174 pounds. The lead wouldn't last long for ISU, as junior Josh Ihnen (NU) brought the Huskers back with his 17-1 technical fall victory over Cole Shafer (ISU). No. 10 Ihnen jumped on Shafer quickly, recording a takedown and a pair of two-point near falls in the first period to cruise to the dominating victory.

Ihnen's win was the start of five straight for the Huskers, as they extended their lead to 17-4. Johnson (NU) ended his home career as a Husker by defeating No. 14 Jerome Ward (ISU) by decision, 5-3, at 197 pounds. No. 13 Johnson extended his lead to 5-2 in the third period with a takedown with 1:39 remaining in the match, and was able to hold off a late charge from Ward as time expired for the victory.

After Johnson's decision, junior Tucker Lane (NU) used a reversal in the second period to take control in his 3-0 decision over Kyle Simonson (ISU). The Huskers got two more victories from David Klingsheim (NU) and Ridge Kiley (NU) at 125 and 133 pounds, respectively. Klingsheim was able to hold off a late shot attempt from Brandon Jones (ISU) for his 4-3 win, while Kiley used a reversal and gained the riding-time advantage in the third period for his victory over Ben Cash (ISU), 3-0.

ISU was able to pull within three points of the Huskers by reeling off three-straight victories of its own. No. 15 Chris Drouin (ISU) took down Koehnlein by major decision at 141 pounds, while Max Mayfield (ISU) defeated Ross Grande at 149 pounds, 8-4. The Huskers' final loss came at 157 pounds, where Trent Weatherman (ISU) was able to score a takedown 37 seconds into the sudden-victory period against Tyler Koehn (NU).

Leading by only three points, the Huskers turned to Burroughs to put the match away and the senior responded. Wrestling in his last home dual, Burroughs defeated Chris Spangler (ISU) by major decision, 22-8. After a scoreless first period, the All-American used eight takedowns in the final two periods to secure the match.

Burroughs finished the regular season with a perfect 29-0 record and a 19-0 mark in dual matches. His 62 dual victories placed him in a tie for No. 5 on the all-time duals wins list with Brad Vering (1997-01) and Tolly Thompson (1993-97). His 62-8 mark in dual matches also tied Burroughs with Vering at No. 6 on the career dual winning percentage chart with an .886 clip over his career.

The winningest wrestler in NU history, Tolly Thompson compiled a 157-21 record from 1993 to 1997. The 1995 NCAA heavyweight champion also tops the career falls list with 72. Thompson won the bronze medal in freestyle at 120kg for the United States at the 2005 World Championships in Budapest, Hungary.

A three-time All-American, Bill Scherr is Nebraska's all-time dual wins leader with 71 recorded from 1980 to 1984. Scherr captured the 190-pound national championship in 1984.

Bryan Snyder was Nebraska's first four-time All-American from 1999 to 2002. Snyder sits atop the all-time winning percentage list at Nebraska, with a clip of .925 over his four seasons as a Husker.

Integrity • Trust • Respect • Teamwork • Loyalty

The mission of the University of Nebraska Athletic Department is to serve our student-athletes, coaches, staff and fans by:

- Displaying INTEGRITY in every decision and action
- Building and maintaining TRUST with others
- Giving RESPECT to each person we encounter
- Pursuing unity of purpose through TEAMWORK
- Maintaining LOYALTY to student-athletes, co-workers, fans and the University of Nebraska

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln does not discriminate based on gender, age, disability, race, color, religion, marital status, veteran's status, national or ethnic origin or sexual orientation.

Facility Use Restrictions

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has an interest in protecting its facilities, property and reputation associated with its intercollegiate sports. Therefore, no person shall be permitted to access or use the arenas, facilities and other University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic venues without first securing the permission of the Athletic Director or his/her designee. The only exception is an individual who records an image (e.g. photograph, videotape) for his/her non-commercial use. In no case shall any person be permitted to use these venues for the purposes of promoting the sale or manufacture of alcohol or tobacco or the promotion of any venture associated directly or indirectly with legal or illegal gaming or gambling.

Compliance Guidelines

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department takes great pride in abiding by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Big Ten Conference rules and guidelines that govern Division I competition. For the benefit of the many alumni, fans and booster club members who are so active in supporting and assisting the Huskers throughout the year, we would like to remind everyone of a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic representatives and boosters.

NCAA Principles

Institutional Control

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA.

Responsibility

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

Question and Answers for Fans, Boosters, Alumni and Representatives of Athletic Interests

Definitions

Q: What is a booster?

A: You are a booster if you belong to a University of Nebraska athletic booster club; have promoted or made financial donations to the athletic department or to a specific Husker team; assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; and/or employ, give benefits to or provide services for a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relative/friends of either. Once an individual is identified as an athletic representative, that person retains that identity indefinitely.

Q: What is a Prospective Student-Athlete?

A: A prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade or above, including students in prep schools and junior colleges as well as students who have officially withdrawn from a four-year institution and plan to transfer to another institution. In addition, a student who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospective student-athlete if the institution or a Nebraska booster provides the individual or the individual's relatives or friends with any financial assistance or benefits that the institution does not provide to prospective students in general. A good rule of thumb is to treat ALL STUDENTS as prospects.

Q: What is a Student-Athlete?

A: A student-athlete is a student whose enrollment was solicited by a member of the Nebraska athletic staff or other representative of athletic interests with a view toward the student's ultimate participation in the intercollegiate athletic program.

Q: What is a contact?

A: Contact is ANY face-to-face encounter between a prospect, or the prospect's parent or legal guardian, and a Nebraska staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs.

Q: What is recruiting?

A: Recruiting is any solicitation of a prospect or a prospect's family member (or guardian) by an institutional staff member or by athletic representative of the institution, for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment and ultimate participation in Nebraska's intercollegiate athletic program.

Guidelines

Q: What constitutes impermissible contact by a booster?

A: Phone calls to prospects (9-12th grade) and their relatives placed for recruiting purposes (questions about the athletic program at UNL must be directed to the coach); writing, paging, text messages or instant messages to a prospect to encourage UNL attendance; contact with a prospect at a high school or club contest; contact with a prospect or his/her coach, principal, or counselor to evaluate the prospect; visiting the prospect's educational institution to pick up videotape or transcripts for evaluation purposes; contacting a prospect to congratulate him/her for signing a National Letter of Intent to attend UNL; giving anything of value to a prospect to induce him/her to attend UNL; contact of any kind while the prospect is on the UNL campus for an official or unofficial visit.

Q: Can I give anything to a prospective student-athlete?

A: A booster cannot expend funds to entertain or provide transportation for a prospective student-athlete, the prospect's family members or friends; and/or become directly or indirectly involved in making arrangements for a prospect, or the prospect's relative or friends to receive money or financial aid of any kind.

Q: As a Husker booster, how can I stay involved?

A: There are several ways a booster may stay involved. You may discuss summer employment opportunities with a prospect after he/she has signed a National Letter of Intent with the University of Nebraska; attend high school athletic events WITHOUT contacting prospective student-athletes; continue existing friendships with families and friends of prospective student-athletes; and/or send recommendation letters, newspaper clippings or similar information about prospective student-athletes to Husker coaches.

Q: What are non-permissible extra benefits?

A: An extra benefit is any special arrangement by a Nebraska employee or an athletic representative to provide a student-athlete or the student-athlete's relative or friend a benefit not expressly authorized by NCAA legislation. Only benefits that are authorized by NCAA legislation can be provided to and accepted by a student-athlete. It is not permissible for a student-athlete to receive a benefit that is the result of a "special" arrangement by an institutional employee, booster, employer or fan.

Non-permissible benefits include, but are not limited to:

- Free or reduced-fee housing/rent, including use of vacation/seasonal homes;
- Free or reduced-fee meals;
- Loans or cash advances in pay or salary;
- Tuition costs or school supply expenses;
- Gifts or presents of any type regardless of the occasion or purpose;
- Use of telephone or telephone cards for long distance and use of cell phones;
- Free use of any motor vehicle, boat or recreational vehicle;
- Free use of services i.e., automobile repair, hair care, laundry, copying, faxing, etc.; and
- Free or reduced-fee memberships at golf courses, health clubs, etc.

Q: As a booster, how may I help student-athletes?

A: Boosters can help current student-athletes in several ways. Feel free to invite a student-athlete to participate in non-profit, charitable or educational events; invite a student-athlete into your home for an occasional meal; and make sure to pay a student-athlete the commensurate rate for actual and legitimate employment. If you choose to assist in any of the ways described above, you must contact the compliance office to receive PRIOR approval.

For further information regarding NCAA Guidelines for Athletic Representatives, please contact the athletic compliance office at (402) 472-2042 or 1-(800) 927-7220. Big Ten Conference

Formed more than 115 years ago, the Big Ten Conference is an association of world-class academic institutions with shared values and goals. Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been the priority for every member institution. However, maintaining the conference's status as one of the preeminent athletic conference's in the country also endures as an important component of the Big Ten student-athlete experience. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its student-athletes not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

James E. Delany
Commissioner

Academics

All Big Ten Universities have been granted Tier One Status by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, a distinction awarded to just over 100 universities in the country. The Big Ten leads all conferences with the highest number of ranked graduate school programs among the top 25 according to U.S. News and World Report in 2011. The Big Ten ranks first with 23 top-25 programs in the fields of law, medical (research and primary care), business and engineering.

Successful Program

During the 2010-11 season, the Big Ten claimed six team national championships, including titles for Northwestern women's lacrosse, Ohio State synchronized swimming and men's volleyball, Penn State women's volleyball and wrestling and Wisconsin women's ice hockey.

The Big Ten led all conferences with national titles in 13 different NCAA-sponsored championships from 2001-02 to 2010-11. Over that time period, the Big Ten produced championships in cross country, fencing, field hockey, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, soccer, softball, tennis, track and field, volleyball and wrestling.

Student-Athlete Opportunities

Big Ten universities provide over $120 million in direct financial aid to more than 9,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 Big Ten championships, 12 for men and 13 for women. Conference institutions sponsor 298 teams. Other than the Ivy League, the Big Ten has the most broad-based athletic programs in the United States.

Television Exposure

The Big Ten's media agreements with CBS Sports, ABC/ESPN, FOX Sports and the Big Ten Network (BTN) provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever. Over 900 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally on an annual basis, more than any other conference. In 2006, the Big Ten created the first national conference-owned television network, the BTN. It launched on Aug. 30, 2007, and now is in its fifth year of operation. It is available to approximately 75 million homes nationally, and appears in 19 of the top 20 national media markets.

Attendance

Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with more than 8.9 million patrons attending conference home contests during the 2010-11 seasons for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball alone.

Honoring Legends. Building Leaders.

The mission of the Big Ten Conference has always been to excel athletically without compromising the priority our member institutions assign to their academic standards and to their commitment to student academic success. We seek to celebrate the many accomplishments of Big Ten student-athletes while continuously reinforcing each of our member institutions' high academic standards. Striking that important balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity, and that philosophy led to the genesis of the new football division names. Both names link directly to the Big Ten mission.

Nebraska Media Relations

The 2011-12 Nebraska Wrestling Media Guide is designed to assist the media in its coverage of Husker wrestling. In addition to this guide, updated releases, statistics, feature ideas and photographs may be obtained by contacting the Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263. Please take a moment to review the following policies and services that are intended to assist you in your coverage of Nebraska wrestling this season. Thank you for your continued interest in collegiate wrestling.

Updated releases, flipcards and media guides will be provided before each meet on press row at the NU Coliseum. Final results and play-by-play synopsis will also be available during post-match interviews.

Scott Pulverenti

Nebraska Media Relations Office

The Nebraska Media Relations Office is always interested in helping members of the media cover Husker athletic teams. Your Nebraska wrestling media relations contact for the 2011-12 season is Scott Pulverenti. Contact Pulverenti to set up interviews and for the latest results, releases and photographs of the Nebraska wrestling team.

Pulverenti, a student assistant in the Nebraska Media Relations Office, coordinates all aspects of media relations for the Nebraska wrestling team, including press and photo credentials, wrestler and coach interviews and meet-day management of the Bob Devaney Sports Center and NU Coliseum press row and statistical information, along with post-meet interviews and releases.

In addition to Pulverenti, other members of the Nebraska Media Relations Office are available to help media representatives with their coverage of the Husker wrestling program. Nebraska's Media Relations Director is Keith Mann. He is the primary contact for football and directs all aspects of sports media relations. Media Relations Director of Operations Jeff Griesch (women's basketball), Associate Media Relations Director Shamus McKnight (men's basketball), and Assistant Media Relations Directors Matt Smith (softball), Assistant Media Relations Director Jeremy Foote (soccer, baseball), Assistant Media Relations Director Hilary Winter (volleyball, track and field), Scott Bruhn (photography) and Design Specialist Annie Wood are other full-time staff members of the Media Relations Office, along with Administrative Assistant Vicki Capazo. Student assistants Derek Brandt, Brett Crevier, BreAnna Haessler, Makayla Hipke, Connor Stange and Claire Porter round out the media relations staff.

The University of Nebraska Media Relations Office is located in the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex, which is located at the north end of Memorial Stadium at Salt Creek Roadway and Stadium Drive. Address: Nebraska Media Relations Office, One Memorial Stadium, P.O. Box 880123, Lincoln, NE 68588-0123. Phone: (402) 472-2263. Fax Access: The Nebraska Media Relations Office fax number is (402) 472-2005. Opponent media relations offices should submit a fax list of media outlets that need to receive results.

Award-Winning Publications

The Nebraska Media Relations Office is one of the best programs in the nation at producing award-winning media guides for its 23 varsity sports. Over the past 10 years, Nebraska has produced more than 180 national publication honors.

Big Ten Conference Media Relations

Assistant Director of Communications Dan Mihalik coordinates wrestling information and statistics for the Big Ten Conference in Park Ridge, Ill. Mihalik compiles weekly statistical information for the conference, along with coordinating Big Ten Conference Wrestler-of-the-Week honors and helping promote the accomplishments of Big Ten teams, players and coaches. Mihalik is also responsible for directing media services at the 2012 Big Ten Wrestling Championships in West Lafayette, Ind., March 3-4.

Media Services

Hendricks Training Complex

The Nebraska wrestling program will practice at the Hendricks Training Complex, which was completed before the 2011-12 season and is connected to the Devaney Center. To reach the facility from Lincoln Municipal Airport, turn right on Northwest 12th Street as you drive out of the airport. Northwest 12th Street becomes Cornhusker Highway, which intersects with 14th Street. Exit south on 14th Street off Cornhusker Highway. Travel to Court Street, turn left, and go two blocks east to the arena, which is on the north side of Court Street. From Omaha's Eppley Airfield, follow the signs to downtown Omaha and I-480. Take I-480 west to I-80, then take I-80 west approximately 60 miles to I-180. Exit South on I-180, then exit east to Cornhusker Highway and follow the instructions above.

NU Coliseum

All of Nebraska's home matches in 2011-12 will be contested at the NU Coliseum. To get to the NU Coliseum from Lincoln's Municipal Airport, exit the airport on W. Adams Street, the main road leading out to Cornhusker Highway. Follow W. Adams Street to the first stoplight and turn right on Cornhusker Highway. Follow this and take a right on 14th Street. Go south until you reach Vine Street. The Coliseum is located a half block west of the 14th and Vine streets intersections. From Omaha's Eppley Airport, exit the airport to the stoplight. Turn right onto Abbott Drive. Go approximately one mile to Storz Expressway (Abbott Drive turns into Storz Expressway). Proceed approximately three miles to I-480 South. Follow the signs and get onto I-80 West to Lincoln. Follow I-80 for about 60 miles and take the 27th Street Exit. Follow 27th Street to Vine Street and turn right. Go west on Vine until you reach 14th street. The Coliseum is located a half block west of the 14th and Vine streets intersection.

Media Parking

Parking for the media for duals at the NU Coliseum is available. Contact Scott Pulverenti at (402) 472-7873 for details.

Press Facilities

Limited press seating is available during wrestling matches at the NU Coliseum. Please contact Scott Pulverenti the week before the meet with your coverage plans so that accommodations may be made. Following the meet, the press room at the NU Coliseum, located on the south end of the arena on the second floor, will be available for media filing from the facility. Telephones and ethernet lines are provided in the press room on a first-come, first-served basis. Wireless internet and a fax machine will also be available at the site. Fax list or e-mail requests should be made to an MRD representative before the match. Radio stations or other media sources wishing to install a phone line should contact University of Nebraska Telecommunications at (402) 472-2000.

Post-Meet Interviews

For duals at the NU Coliseum, post-meet interviews will be conducted on the floor following a short cooling-off period after the meet is completed. Please coordinate interviews with a media relations representative.

Interviews

All media requests for interviews with Nebraska wrestling student-athletes and coaches should be directed to Scott Pulverenti (office phone: (402) 472-7873; e-mail: spulverenti@huskers.com; cell phone: (402) 850-3584 at least one day in advance. The best time for in-season interviews is before and after practice, which usually runs from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. With advance notice, interviews can be arranged for other hours.

The best time to reach Coach Mark Manning for an interview is weekdays from 9 a.m. to noon. Interviews with Coach Manning should be coordinated through the Media Relations Office.

Media Services

Updated releases, flipcards and media guides will be provided before each meet on press row at the NU Coliseum. Final results and play-by-play synopsis will also be available in the during post-match interviews.

Big Ten Conference Media Relations

Assistant Director of Communications Dan Mihalik coordinates wrestling information and statistics for the Big Ten Conference in Park Ridge, Ill.
